Three Pay $260 After Racing Traffic Cop

PENDLETON, Aug. 16 (AP).—Perry mules an hour speed cost three motorists $260 today in justice of the peace court. Sergeant Leichten, traffic officer, captured the quartet after a chase and planned to book them on speeding charges, but investigation of the car revealed two barrels, some beer, whiskey, grain and other paraphernalia. Goodman was fined $110 and his companions $50 each.

NATIONAL POLITICS WARMING UP

(Continued from Page 1) me a little personal consideration," he said to friends in Buffalo. "There is a scriptural saying about a man gaining the world and losing his own soul. What good would it do me to be nominated for the presidency and have my health shattered so that I would not be able to carry on the duties of the office if elected?" he added that he would run for re-election of the democratic state convention decided upon it.

Scores At Smith Bishop Adna W. Leonard, of the Methodist Episcopal church, president of the New York Anti-Slavery League, reiterated in New York his recent statement in connection with Governor Smith that "no governor who kisses the parties will be able to carry on the duties of the office if elected?" he added that he would run for re-election of the democratic state convention decided upon it.

BOYH ASSAULTS WITNS DOISE, Ida., Aug. 16. (AP)—Assaults of the 18th amendment have as their objective nullification of the U. S. constitution. Senator William E. Borah said last night in treating prohibition as a governmental question which is "testing our self-governing ability, our courage and our patriotism to maintain law, until the people, in their wisdom, see fit to change it." He spoke at a community mass meeting under the auspices of the Boise industrial association. The senator arraigned the New York referendum and declared the question is not that of wet or dry but that opponents of the 18th

Grants Pass Smallest City with Wire Service

The Courier is to be congratulated on its installation of Associated Press leased wire and the community, the smallest in the northwest to provide this improvement, should be highly gratified at the addition of such metropolitan, advanced service by its own daily newspaper. The La Grande Observer.

We welcome you on the Oregon Associated Press wire and as no chain is stronger than its weakest link we are sure that the Grants Pass Courier will strengthen the link considerably. Let us all work with each other. That is what the Associated Press means to us. Roseburg News Record.

I want to congratulate the people of Grants Pass for having in their midst a publisher with courage and progress enough to assume the heavy cost of the Associated Press news service. This bringing to their doorstep the news of the world at every moment of the day. If they realize its importance I know they will appreciate it. Klamath Falls Evening Herald.

Welcome to the family of The Associated Press Oregon state leased wire. Your enterprise in taking on this splendid service undoubtedly will win the high appreciation of your readers, be desired to carry on the duties of the office if elected?" he added that he would run for re-election of the democratic state convention decided upon it.

STEWART INVITES PROBE

PENDLETON, Aug. 16. (AP)—In answer to charges made against him regarding filing of his campaign account, Frederick Stewart, republican candidate for United States senator today stated that if an investigation is not made he will ask for one. His statement today was:

"I will not permit the U'Ren complaint to interfere with completion of the campaign but I will in due time, proceed with my campaign as I had originally planned. I have no further statements to make as this time concerning the U'Ren complaint. It is so obviously a political move and so false in fact that I will take no steps in the matter at this time. I hope that it will result in a thorough and prompt investigation, not only of my expenses but also of the motives of Mr. U'Ren. If it does not result in an investigation I will later attempt to obtain an investigation on my own account."

Congratulations upon your arrival at the leased wire mile post and your selection of the Associated Press as the service to meet the needs of your community. The facts you evidenced in the Grants Pass community deserve unstinted support and cooperation. Capital Journal, Salem.

Addition of Grants Pass Courier to Associated Press leased wire family gives your readers news facilities equal to any city and gives Oregon, including the southern end of the state, most complete news service. Congratulations. Alford Tribune.

Yellow and German caused to be printed and circulated a so called "yellow ticket", bearing neither the name nor address of the printer, but under the name of Oregon 200 government league Inc. Fred L. Gifford, secretary which was "forged, false and fraudulent letter" purporting to endorse Stewart's opponent, Robert N. Stanford, for the senatorial nomination.

Ascertaining that the Oregon good government league is "commonly believed to be the Ku Klux Klan,"

He left the home of his birth in 1863 and came to Denver, Colorado. Five years later he came by ox team through Montana to Walla Walla, Washington. Soon after he came to the Grande Ronde valley and purchased a farm in High valley where he entered the cattle business.

In October 1876 he was united in marriage to Mary Virginia Lamere and to them three children were born, Mrs. Nora Webb, of Union; Edward, of Vader, Washington; and Mrs. J. H. Blunt, of Bellingham, Washington.

In 1913 Mrs. Wilkinson died and since then he has made his home with Mrs. Webb. He was of a bright and sunny disposition, honest and upright in business dealings. The work of his hands made him acquainted with hardships and privations but he worked with an eye on the future, knowing that the coming generation would reap the seed of his sowing.

The funeral was held from the Methodist Episcopal church here Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. C. A. Quinn conducting the services. Burial was made in the Union cemetery beside the grave of his wife.
