STORM STOPS CHANNEL SWIM

CAPE GIRL NIZZ, Aug. 17. (AP)—Miss Lillian Cannon, of Bathmore, failed this morning in her first effort to swim the English channel. A sudden storm accompanied by thunder and lightning, with the prospects of still worse weather to come, forced her to quit the water after having been swimming for two hours and 35 minutes.

Miss Cannon took to the water here at 12:55 o'clock this morning and at 2 o'clock was swimming fast two miles out in the channel, headed toward Folkestone, England. At that time the clouds indicated the approach of a thunder storm. The sea was calm.

Suddenly around 3:30 o'clock the storm broke, and with it came heavy seas. The experts on the boat following the swimmer ordered her out of the water. She demurred saying she desired to keep at her task. Finally, when told that it would be useless for her to go on, she came out of the water. Miss Cannon plans to make another attempt within a few days.

The American shoe industry makes little more than half the quantity it is equipped to produce.

Hot Sulphur Swimming at Banff

After your game of golf... after your hike through the hills... those are the times that you'll appreciate a refreshing dip in the beautiful swimming pools at Banff and Lake Louise. Warm sulphur water, healthful and invigorating, is a distinctive feature at Banff.

No matter what type of vacation you prefer, you'll find it at these famous resorts in the heart of the Canadian Pacific Rockies. Activity and sports? Yes! Rest and relaxation? Yes! And above all, typical Canadian Pacific service, accommodations and cuisine.

Low Excursion Fares are effective—investigate and plan now!

Billy Evans Says:

WELLS OF DETROIT

Ty Cobb is being repaid this year for the confidence that he has always had in Southpaw Ed Wells. The tall left-hander of the Detroit staff is the first Tiger pitcher to turn in 10 victories. He recently accomplished it by outpitching "Lefty" Grove.

Wells came to the Tigers direct from Bethany college. After a brief trial he was sent to the minors for a year, then brought back to Detroit.

Last season Wells won only six games while losing nine and the opposition earned better than six runs a game off his delivery. Not a very impressive record.

Yet when I looked the Tigers over at Augusta, Ga., this spring, Cobb stressed the point that Wells should be a consistent winner. When I pressed him for the reason he laughingly replied:

"He has the old determination."

The expression, "the old determination," is much used in baseball. It may mean any number of things.

In the first place it means the player takes his work seriously, has the proper courage, also the will-to-win spirit.

One need watch Wells work only a few innings to realize just what the old determination means as expressed by Cobb. His jaw is set on every ball pitched and his deliberate windup makes it apparent that he feels he holds the mastery over the batter.

The Detroit players, half in earnest and half in jest, refer to Wells as the "psychology southpaw."

A college athlete, Wells entertains the belief that the will-to-win is half the battle, that if you think a thing hard and long enough it will come true.

When Wells pitches the thought of winning is uppermost. In addition he holds the opinion that he has something on each and every batter that faces him.

So far the 1926 averages bear out that contention.

SPEAKER AND ROUSH

A Pittsburg fan writes, asking my opinion as to who is generally considered as being, or having been, the best fielding outfielder, Tris Speaker or Eddie Roush.

Comparing two outstanding stars like Roush and Speaker is merely a matter of individual judgment. No doubt a vote on such a question, confined to the major league experts, would bring out a wide difference of opinion.

Roush is unquestionably one of the greatest outfielders in the history of the game, but it is my opinion that Speaker is the greatest of all, fielding alone considered. I have never seen quite his equal although I must admit Roush is a close runner-up.

A marvelous judge of fly balls, possessing the ability to come in or go out with equal ease, having the knack of handling ground balls like an infielder and boasting an arm that throws strikes from the outfield, it would be difficult to find a more perfect outfielder than Tris Speaker.

St. Louis 6-1, Boston 1-7.

DETROIT (AP)—Ted Lyons of the White Sox and Sam Gibson of the Tigers waged a 10-inning pitched battle here Monday that ended scoreless when the game was called to permit the teams to take a train for the east. It was the second consecutive game that the Chicago and Detroit clubs have played without making a run.

The importation of snails from France to the United States increased from ten tons in 1924 to 240 tons in 1925.

Joe Bush and Johnny Tobin for Southpaw Tom Zachary and Win Ballou, a sturdy right-hander. At the time there was much argument as to which team got the better of the trade. St. Louis was given the edge.

With the season more than half over, it is apparent that the trade was all St. Louis' Washington has turned loose both Bush and Tobin, while Zachary and Ballou have done well for the Browns.

As a matter of fact Zachary has been Sisher's best pitcher. With a club that has always been below the .500 mark, Zachary has won 11 out of his first 20 games, while Ballou has five victories to show against two defeats.

The moral: Have a care when trading with Sisher.

Monte Munn Coming Up

One of the latest puzzling sensations is Monte Munn, brother of the former wrestling champion, Wayne "Big" Munn. Monte, who is comparatively new at the ring racket, has been cutting down opponents in reckless fashion, winning most of his battles on knockouts. Some of his critics see him as a contender for Dempsey's laurels. That may be a bit far-fetched, of course, but he must at least be given credit for making a good start, and unless he's rushed too fast should go pretty far.

THE JACK DEMPSEYS ARRIVE IN NEW YORK

K. C. PETITION NOT ACTED ON

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 17. (AP)—While the petition of the Knights of Columbus asking that the U. S. intervene in Mexico to protect Catholic churchmen in their religious disputes with President Calles was not referred to directly, it was reiterated today at the summer executive office in behalf of President Coolidge that the Washington government has no authority under diplomatic usage, in law or treaty rights to interfere in the purely domestic affairs of Mexico.

Whenever the rights of American citizens in person or property have been infringed, it was added, the American government will do what it can to see that these rights are duly respected.

Secretary Kellgren, of the state department, who is a guest at the summer white house, informed President Coolidge that he has knowledge of but one specific complaint concerning the taking of church property in Mexico. This was lodged with James E. Seefeldt, the American ambassador to that country, and the latter, upon making representations to the Mexican City government, has been informed the case would be adjusted.

It is difficult to say, it was stated.

and at other times unsuccessfully, whether American citizens have suffered in Mexico, for this is a broad term. Some have been expelled under article 23 of the Mexican constitution, it was added, but whenever this measure is resorted to without any action on the part of the Americans against whom it is used it has been the practice of the American ambassador to intervene, sometimes successfully.

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 17. (AP)—Residents of Paisley and Wly, in southern Oregon, have petitioned the public service commission for a reduction in rates for livestock from Spreague river to Klamath Falls. The present rates on the Oregon, California and Eastern railroad are excessive and unreasonable they charge.

APPLICATION FILED

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 17. (AP)—The Medford irrigation district has applied to Riva Luper, state engineer, for approval of a resolution adopted by the district for the cancellation of a contract with the Rogue river canal company for the construction of an irrigation district. It is charged by the petitioners that the canal company has failed to comply with the provisions of the contract and authority to complete the district is now sought.

Parrots and monkeys congregated upon telephone wires in Mexico, causing much trouble for the companies.

A Philadelphia Baptist church, seeking a pastor, advertised. Fifty applications were received.

Quaker Oats "stands by" you through the morning

That's why millions start their days in this way

To feel right through the morning, you must have well-balanced, complete food at breakfast. At most other meals—that is, at luncheon and at dinner—you usually get that kind of food.

But at breakfast the great dietary mistake is most often made—a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 38% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning. Food that should start every breakfast in your home.

Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers. Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.
