OCHS CELEBRATES
 NEW YORK — Fifty years ago Adolph S. Ochs was setting type at Knoxville, Tenn. Now he owns the New York Times, which has an annual gross income of $25,000,000. As a memento of his thirtieth anniversary as publisher, his composing room has just presented him an engraved silver printer's stick.

The worst thing about a bad tooth is it is liable to stop hurting before you go to a dentist.
 Is it rats that have nine lives? Or is it flies?

INSURANCE MAN TELLS ON FRIEND
 "He suffered considerably from gas in stomach and colic attacks, and at times was very yellow. His doctors diagnosed his ailment as gall bladder trouble and that an operation was necessary. Some one persuaded him to try 'Marr's' since taking it one year ago he tells me he has been able to eat anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.

AT THE THEATERS

"Fighting Demon" At Sherrys Today Only

Lured into South America on the promise of a big job as a safes and vault expert, a profession in which he is a pre-eminent, in his amazing new photodrama, "The Fighting Demon," Richard Talmadge runs the gamut of comedy and thrills as only this remarkable stunt star can do. Eventually he finds that the "big job" offered him is the somewhat unethical business of opening other people's safes and vaults, and right there he splits with the game of crooks who have imported him for this purpose. "The Fighting Demon" is a thrilling, action-packed drama that is a real American champion down in Los Alvia, as well as a lot of excellent comedy by play and romance. The cast which has been chosen to support Mr. Talmadge gives evidence of Director Rossen's ability to choose good actors and actresses. The story, and scenarios were written by Charles Metz, and James Bell Smith, respectively. Comedy showing "In the Air."

Gilda Gray Makes Her Movie Bow In "Aloma"

"Aloma of the South Seas," Gilda Gray's first starring production for Paramount which comes to the Arcade theater Thursday for a three-day run, is a warm colorful love-drama of the tropics. Packed with wild dancing, strong dramatic punches, beautiful tropical scenery, and great acting by a fine cast which includes Percy Marmont, Warner Baxter, Julianne

Miracle Dog Featured in Film at the Star

The Star theater has a distinct novelty for its patrons for three days starting Thursday when the first showing will be given here of the latest Gotham Production entitled, "The Sign of the Cross" starring the Miracle Dog of the Movies, "Peter the Great." The story relates how a young detective, aided by his canine pal succeeds in apprehending and punishing to earth a desperate band of bank robbers. The detective's task is rendered more difficult owing to the fact that the brother of his fiancée has become involved with the gang. The leader of the detective is also a rival of the detective for the hand of the girl and he uses the maiden to help cover up his MARRIAGE A GENIUS?

NEW YORK — Gloria Sennott regards her marriage as a genius. He's back from abroad with a fan that he is going to manufacture for cooling hot air and he expects to make a fortune. Gloria heard all about it when she met the Olympic and spent the night abroad because the marquis could not land when the boat arrived.

For Eight Cents A Day

Perhaps you've always regarded the telephone as an expensive luxury—beyond your means?
 Is eight cents a day too much to pay for the luxury of being within a few seconds' talking distance of everyone else who is on the 'phone? After all, nearly everyone is one the 'phone—your friends, your stores, your doctor, your theater, your office. A luxury did we say? Isn't the telephone a practical need of modern life?
 Why aren't you on the 'phone?
