Mrs. Clegg Honors Sister From Utah

Mrs. Elmo Clegg entertained a few friends at her home here Wednesday afternoon complimenting her sister, Mrs. E. T. Wale, who is visiting here from Salt Lake City, Utah. The Clegg home was tastefully decorated for the affair with bouquets of the season's flowers.

W. C. T. U. Meets In Christian Church

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Thursday afternoon at the Central Church of Christ with a good attendance. The devotional service was led by Mrs. N. L. Hardin, vice president of the union.

After a short business period Mrs. Claude Cooper sang a beautiful solo number entitled "I Love a Little Cottage" by Geoffrey O'Hara, and Mrs. Edith Hales gave a pleasing reading, "Woman's Sphere."

The Rev. C. V. Dunn addressed the meeting on the subject of "Christian Citizenship," emphasizing the importance of faithfulness and vigilance of the Christian worker of today.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Della Graham the Union Signal, the official organ of the national W. C. T. U. will be placed in the public library here for one year. The White Ribbon Review, the official publication of the state organization will be found on the reading table of the library also. This was made possible through the courtesy of Mrs. Hardesty.

Those who wish to be better posted on the work of the union will be benefited by reading those periodicals, according to the local officers.

Lodge Members Frolic at Park

About 150 persons—members of the Modern Woodmen of America—and the Royal Neighbors organizations and their families—gathered at Riverside park yesterday afternoon for the third annual joint picnic of the two lodges. People began to arrive at the park at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon and by 6 o'clock everyone was there. Several long tables were arranged in the park pavilion and decorated with bouquets of flowers, where a delicious picnic dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock.

After dinner an interesting program was given. Claude C. Pratt gave two humorous readings, and Mr. Warren gave a reading. H. E. Wilson spoke, after which the two little Cooper girls, Elizabeth and Alice Jeanette played several violin numbers, which were well received. Alice Jeanette also appeared in a solo dance number. Jake Rostock gave two interesting readings, followed by the closing address by Bert Okumun, state deputy of the Modern Woodmen lodge.

Plans were to dance after the program, but because no lights were available this part of the evening's entertainment was postponed.

Mr. Sitter headed the Woodmen's committee in charge of the picnic and Mrs. Herbert W. Thompson was chairman of the committee from the Royal Neighbors. Other members of the two committees were: George Hall, Ed Brown, Mrs. Mamie Johnson, Mrs. Gladys Huff, Mrs. Alta Winburn and Mrs. Ella Coter.

Elgin Woman Hostess To Missionary Society

Mrs. Lester Lanz, a member of the missionary society of the Nazarene church here, opened her home at Elgin to the members of the society yesterday afternoon for an all-day meeting. Several women from here attended. At noon luncheon was served by the hostess.

The women attending from here were: Mrs. R. L. Jordan, Mrs. R. H. Mason, Mrs. G. L. Sims, Mrs. Floyd Moore, Mrs. C. H. Moton, Mrs. Calvin Sommers, Mrs. Walter White, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. J. Flowers and Mrs. Frank Cain. The Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Mergers were also present for the meeting. The Rev. Mr. Mergers is pastor of the Nazarene church here.

KOTEX

THE uncertainty and insecurity of the old-time "sanitary pad" has been ended. Scientific protection now supplants it. Wear sheer gowns, keep up with social and business requirements, at all times... without handicap. "KOTEX" is a new and remarkable way... five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads. You discard it as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment. Absorbs and deodorizes at the same time. Thus ending ALL fear of offending. You get it for a few cents at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." Women ask for it without hesitancy. Try Kotex. Comes 12 in a package. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary) Breakfast—Baked apples, cereal, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, rye muffins, milk, coffee. Luncheon—Salmon chowder, toasted crackers, cucumber fingers, drop ginger cookies, lemonade. Dinner—Smothered veal, baked new potatoes, creamed carrots, peas and cream cheese salad, whole wheat rolls, currant snow, milk, coffee.

If you live inland and must rely on the canned variety of salmon for your chowder you may be interested in the following information taken from a bulletin issued by the United States Department of Fisheries: "The choicest grades of canned salmon are richer than those in body-building material and contain the same amount of fats. Pink salmon, which is a cheaper grade, is better than meats for making fish and bones. There is no waste and nothing is to be thrown away except the can."

Salmon Chowder Three cups milk, 1/2 cup canned salmon freed from skin and bones, 1 slice onion, 4 tablespoons minced celery, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1 an one-half cups dried boiled potatoes, 1 tablespoon minced parsley. Scald milk in double boiler with salmon, onion slice and celery. Melt butter, stir in flour and when perfectly blended slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Add the salmon, celery and onion with the milk and bring to the boiling point.

Change Hat Styles to Defeat Vogue of Bob

PARIS, Aug. 20. (AP)—The hat, simple and unadorned, be it the toque such as Queen Mary wears, the bell or the pot shape, has had its day. So, at least, think the leading intelligences of the Parisian millinery world, who have declared war on the hat as a mere utilitarian head-covering, only made possible by the prevalent custom of bobbing.

The campaign will open in the fall. The first hats are now being prepared. They are elaborate in form and distinctive in style, but the bobbing habit is growing rather than waning, and the average Parisian shows no inclination of returning to long hair.

STYLISH YEST COMB

The hairdressing is not now allowed to peep out of the right hand pocket of a woman's dinner jacket. It has been replaced by a smart little comb, which may be red or green or blue, or tortoiseshell incrustated with rubies, emeralds or other precious stones. Its mission is to repress any rebellious lock of hair that threatens to disturb the harmony of the moment, a coiffure that must not show the slightest suspicion of a wave.

American women, blamed by their British sisters for having started the short skirt style, are now credited with helping put over the new fashion of ankle-length evening dresses. London dances held for the King
