WHEN WE THINK THE OTHER FELLOW KNOWS

Some people would be far better off if they used their own judgment rather than placing so much confidence in the judgment of the other fellow. The lack of self confidence has cost many a man a considerable sum. If we were able to think as fast as the other fellow can talk, likely our judgment would save us money.

"I Must Tell That To Doris!"

Prrring! "That you, Doris? . . . My dear, what do you think? Muriel's engaged! . . . What? Yes, to Jim. And they're going to be married quite soon—next month, even. Isn't it too thrilling! They're calling round to see me tomorrow afternoon. Will you come along? . . . Right-o! . . . That's how Doris was the first to hear about it—on the telephone. What a wonderful institution the telephone is! Always ringing out news. Always handy for a chat with anyone else who is on the 'phone. Why Aren't You on the 'Phone? Home Independent Telephone Co.

AT THE THEATERS

"Melodious Chaps" Feature Arcade's Sunday Vaudeville

Another vaudeville bit of real merit in a program of speed, grace and a wealth of pleasing novelties will be seen at the Arcade theater on Sunday. Mahoney and Tullert, "The Melodious Chaps," may rightly be called amusement philanthropists, for in a series of songs, they endeavor and succeed to please. The Howard Company will render dozens of songs and popular tunes carefully selected and well presented. Snow and Hall in "Just a couple of kids," are a youthful pair who offer a neat satire on school days. Kay Green, "That Different Entertainer," will make you laugh at him and with him.

"The Night Cry" Features Dog Wonder

"The Night Cry," the Warner Bros. classic of the screen which opened yesterday at the Sherry theater, shows Rin-Tin-Tin, the famous dog star, in his latest and best roles, and the picture itself is thrilling and forceful. Julie Marlowe gives a delightful performance as a plucky little pioneer wife, eager to save Rinty, the shepherd dog
