Miller - Wilson Nuptials Announced
To the surprise of their many La Grande friends the marriage of Miss Pearl Wilson to Archie J. Miller was solemnized Saturday evening at about 7:15 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, Tarval Hansen, of Perry.

Both Miss Wilson and Mr. Miller are well known here, having made this city their home for a number of years. She has been employed at the Standard Laundry here for some time and he is pressman at the Evening Observer office.

Beehive Girls Camp at Wallowa Lake
Girls of the Latter Day Saints church here spent part of last week outing at Wallowa lake. The girls and their hostess, Mrs. Emmett Smith, left here Wednesday afternoon and arrived at the Smith cabin, where they stayed while there, in time for dinner. Thursday morning they left the cabin early on horseback and traveled several miles over the Aneroid lake trail. After returning to the lake they enjoyed a swim and in the afternoon they hiked to the falls and over other nearby trails. In the evening they went to the pavilion where they enjoyed music and dancing until bed time. Stories around a camp fire, when marshmallows were toasted, were enjoyed Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Some of the girls went horseback riding again Friday morning and others went on a hike. About 2 o'clock that day they left the lake en route to their homes here.

G. A. R. Host At Luncheon
About 30 persons were present Saturday night when the members of Oliver P. Morton post, No. 37, Grand Army of the Republic, assisted by Col. P. S. Ivanhoe, entertained the women of the relief corps at luncheon.

Members of the La Grande municipal band were special guests of the day and before luncheon they played several numbers. The program consisted of "The Cherokee," "Stars and Stripes Forever," "The Star Spangled Banner," and "The World is Waiting for Sunrise."

The bugle called the guests to the dining room where a delicious chicken dinner was served. Following luncheon Miss Mabel Doty gave two musical readings, "The Lady Who Lives Next Door," and "Tropics!"

Curves Return; Candy Becomes More Popular
Now that silhouette fashions are disappearing and curves returning, London women are eating more candy, pastries and sweet food generally. There is no need to fast, as was so necessary when the slim shadow shape was popular and society dames are feasting on candies and sweets as they have not done in years.

Hotels and restaurants have been quick to note this change and have introduced a color scheme of sweet dishes which is proving highly popular. Most of these dishes have a fattening tendency and "half-starved" society women who have been following the silhouette mode for months are becoming something of gourmands in their efforts to develop the fashionable curve.

Imitation lizard skin shirts are the latest things in mens wear for the fall. The cloth has a very taking appearance and the shirts are made with double cuffs and a three-button front, with collars to match.

RELIGION AND BABE RUTH
PHILADELPHIA — The Rev. John McNeill, Presbyterian, thinks Babe Ruth has made a blunder. "Connie Mack has made a blunder," he said, "in not allowing Babe Ruth to play on Sunday ball, said a Sunday game would not be so bad as a week day one. Mr. McNeill rises to remark that it would be strange indeed, when Babe Ruth made a home run, if the fans should sing 'Hallelujah.'"

Sister Mary Says:
(BY Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Sliced peaches, uncooked cereal, thin cream, creamed dried beef on graham toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Cold sliced veal, sliced tomatoes, whole wheat bread, tapioca cup pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Fruit cup, fried chicken, milk gravy, mashed potatoes, creamed corn, cabbage and celery salad, watermelon sherbet, plain cake, milk, coffee.

Keep in mind that children under 10 years of age should not be allowed to eat "green corn" unless it is grated. The covering on the kernels is hard to digest and in warm weather particularly children's stomachs must not have their digestion overtaxed.

One and one-half cups hot milk, 2 tablespoons minute tapioca, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 2 small bananas, bitter chocolate.

Scald milk in top of double-boiler over hot water. Add tapioca and cook 20 minutes, until tapioca is transparent. Beat yolks of eggs well. Add granulated sugar and salt and beat again. Add hot milk slowly, beating constantly. Return to double boiler and cook until mixture thickens. Cool, add vanilla and pour into individual glass cups. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry, beating in confectioner's sugar. Rub bananas through a sieve and add to egg whites. Pile on the tapioca custard and sprinkle with a few gratings of bitter chocolate.
