Speed Plentiful In Sills' Film At Arcade

Thrilling battle scenes, Milton Sills and Francis McDonald battling wildly with each other in a burning theater with the flaming scenery falling all about them, Gertrude Olmstead standing by watching two men fight for her while the flames threaten their lives—these are but a few of the thrills that will be seen in "Puppets," which comes to the Arcade theater Friday and Saturday. Sills has the stellar role, with Miss Olmstead as his leading lady.

"Puppets" is laid in the heart of New York's lowest East Side and on the battlefields of the World War, and no pains or expense have been spared to give the motion picture a piece of realism they will long remember. It was produced by Al. Ince, who, with his brother, Ray, produced the great picture, "Abraham Lincoln." It was directed by George Archambault, who learned his war lesson in France as a fighting officer. Heading the great cast are Miss Olmstead, Francis McDonald, Mathilde Comont, William Richardson, Lucien Prival, Nick Thompson and others.

"The Escape" Showing At the Star

An exceedingly unusual situation in which the hero has to turn bandit to save the bank's money, is presented in "The Escape," which is being shown at the Star theater today and Friday.

"Heads Up" Scheduled at Sherrys Today

"Heads Up" a rare combination of burlesque, adventure, romance and melodrama, comes to the Sherry theater for a one day run today with Maurice (Lefty) Flynn in the stellar role and a corking cast in support. Harry Garsen produced and directed this P. R. O. picture, and it is a white of a new, according to all accounts from the coast, where it was accorded a big reception at its opening showings. The story, by A. H. Torriani, was adapted for the screen by Rob Wagner, Author and Secularist have combined to give the popular and athletic Lefty a splendid vehicle in which to display his ability. Mr. Flynn's scenes in which he impersonates the effeminate Commandante of the South American prison are superb comedy! Altogether "Heads Up!" is the sort of a picture in which the former Yale athlete ought always to appear, for he has at his command a talent for burlesque that is not often equalled, as well as the ability to physialize to make his thrilling scenes stand out in bold relief.

Comedy showing "Mummy Love."
