Fight Champions In "Hogan's Alley" At Sherrys

"Hogan's Alley" the Warner Bros. production starring Monte Blue at Sherrys, has in its cast the largest number of former world champions ever assembled in one picture. Although this is not primarily a "fight" picture, still the prize-ring scenes in which Monte Blue is featured in the role of contender for heavyweight championship honors were admirably important enough to secure the services of James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion of the world; Tommy Ryan, former lightweight world champion; Ted "Kid" Lewis, former welterweight world champion; "Spike" Robinson, former featherweight champion of Great Britain; Joe Rivers, former lightweight champion of his day and contender for the championship; and Jack Herrick, former heavyweight champ of Panama.

"Hogan's Alley," in addition to Monte Blue, has a brilliant supporting cast that includes Patsy Ruth Miller, Willard Louis, Louise Fazenda, Max Davidson, Nigel Barrie, Frank Hagney, Frank Board, Roy Carr and Ben Turpin. It is based on the Gregory Rogers story, and adapted to the screen by Darryl Francis Zanuck. Comedy showing "Itain Cain."

"Puppets" at Arcade, Is Action Picture

Admirers of Milton Sills should not fail to see his latest First National starring picture, "Puppets," which is the attraction at the Arcade theater today and Saturday. This is one of Mr. Sills' best screen efforts in many moons. It is an excellent picture, admirably directed by George Archambaud, and has unusual settings, a fine story

Rich in flavor... that's why Quaker Oats entices youngsters

THE way to make children like oatmeal is to give them the kind they like.

Thus millions of mothers insist on the Quaker brand. Children who ordinarily don't like oats, take readily to this rich and tasty kind.

Quaker flavor is due to exclusive milling processes which took some 50 years to perfect. Processes, too, which retain much of the "bulk" of oats, which makes laxatives less often needed.

This protein, carbohydrates, vitamins and "bulk" are combined in making Quaker Oats an excellent food balance.

Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. This makes the richest breakfast the quickest.

The price is the same as for ordinary oats. When a substitute is accepted, you alone are the loser.

Quaker Oats

of the story is worth waiting to see. Miss Olinsted plays her part with understanding and sympathy, and McDonald makes a perfect villain. William Riceford, Mathilde Comart, Luellen Prival and Nick Thompson all deserve praise for their work.

Art Acord Takes Dangerous Movie Falls in Safety

Being thrown by bucking broncos until he couldn't move proved good training for a movie career in the case of Art Acord star of "The Set Up," the Blue Streak Western which is coming to the Star theater on Saturday only. Although he is a horseman of merit Acord had to go through the trying period when almost any beast could throw him. Having broken scores of horses and having been thrown violently at times, Acord became hardened to falls until he is no longer jarred by a rough contact with Mother Earth. Wagon wheels are called for frequently as in "The Set Up," in

"I Must Tell That To Doris!"

PRIT-ting! "That you, Doris? . . . My dear, what do you think? Muriel's engaged! . . . What? Yes, to Jim. And they're going to be married quite soon—next month, even. Isn't it too thrilling! They're calling round to see me tomorrow afternoon. Will you come along? . . . Right-o! . . ."

That's how Doris was the first to hear about it—on the telephone. What a wonderful institution the telephone is! Always ringing out news. Always handy for a chat with anyone else who is on the 'phone.
