BOXING CARD PROGRAM OUT

Although it was at first announced that Jack Hood, heavyweight, would be one of the headliners on a boxing card here the evening of Labor Day, it was impossible to secure him.

Headliner for the show, to be staged in Eagles hall, will be Harry Harris, ex-Pendleton, and Jack Lewis, of Seattle, two 125-pounders. The bout will go ten three-minute rounds.

Pirpe Ford and Ed Stearns, of Baker, will meet in a special four-round event and Carl Hickey and Halgo Wright, of Baker, will mix in the semi-main event, scheduled for six rounds. Hickey and Wright have met twice before, both matches ending even.

Preliminaries, four rounds, include:

Norman Davis vs. Bud Woodfin; Bill Plughoff vs. Kid Murchison and Vern Coleman vs. Gerek.

WHEN WE THINK THE OTHER FELLOW KNOWS
 Some people would be far better off if they used their own judgment rather than placing so much confidence in the judgment of the other fellow. The lack of self-confidence has cost many a man a considerable sum. If we were able to think as fast as the other fellow can talk, they our judgment would save us money.

Another Title for Bill?

Bill Tilden, national tennis champion, and one of the greatest players in the history of the game, is here shown about to return a hard drive in the vicinity of the baseline. Tilden, despite earlier reports to the contrary, seems to be in championship form and is expected to win the crown for the seventh successive time this season.

JACK DEMPSEY IN TRAINING

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 28 (AP)—A fight is a fight with Jack Dempsey. He trains for them all alike.

If you know how the world's heavyweight champion got into shape for his 11th winning bout with Jess Willard at Toledo, George Carpenter at Jersey City, Tommy Gibbons at Shelby, Montana, Luis Firpo at New York, then you know just how he is to train for his contest with Gene Tunney at Philadelphia in the semi-centennial stadium on September 22.

"I couldn't train any different for Tunney than I did for all the rest," Dempsey said.

We still have some bankrupt plant for $1.95 per gallon; No. 2 cedar shingles, $1.95 per M. You ought to know that price by this time as well as your own name.

Some of the shapemen have begun to figure on some large roofs. There is a party out at Cove that needs a big roof. He had better get busy before the price on shingles raises. That will be good.
