First Meeting Held Yesterday

With more than 75 of the 120 members of the Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church in attendance, the first meeting of the society this season was held yesterday afternoon in the community room of the church. Mrs. John Thelen, president, presided, assisted by Mrs. Helen R. Eberhard, vice president; Mrs. Ray Murphy, secretary and Mrs. P. M. Jackson, treasurer.

The calendar committee, Mrs. C. E. Pouch and Mrs. Walter Nowland, distributed this year's calendar, showing the dates of the meetings for the coming year and the hostesses for each meeting, among the members.

Plans for the coming year's work were discussed, among them being the annual bazaar of the society which will be held this year later in November.

The Rev. William Crosby Ross, pastor of the church, who has been studying at the Divinity school at the University of Chicago for the past six weeks, was present and gave an interesting talk.

A social hour was enjoyed before adjournment and refreshments were served by the committee in charge headed by Mrs. Turner Oliver. Other members of the committee were: Mrs. O. Palmer, Mrs. W. H. Safford, Mrs. R. L. Pouch, Mrs. Karl Plesner, Mrs. H. P. Lewis, Mrs. Blufford Brooks, Mrs. J. D. Lynch, Mrs. Ella Ryerson, Mrs. T. A. McKinstry and Mrs. Stella Ingle.

The next meeting of the society will be October 6.

St. Peter's Guild Meets

About 35 members were present yesterday for the first meeting of St. Peter's Episcopal guild this season held at Homan hall with Mrs. L. H. Russell, Mrs. Tinsorian, Mrs. Ernest Gray and Mrs. Frank Cleavinger as hostesses.

Mrs. H. A. Zurbich, president of the guild, presided over the business session, which occupied most of the afternoon. The bazaar to be held sometime in November was the principal item discussed. This will be the first time for four or five years that St. Peter's guild has sponsored a bazaar.

The Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Riley, who arrived home Tuesday from Denver, Colo., where they have been for the past five weeks attending summer school, told of the school, comparing it with the one held at Cove early in the summer. They also told about the work being accomplished in that various parishes they visited while away.

Later in the afternoon those present were seated at a long table, prettily decorated with mixed bouquets of the season's flowers, and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Married at Island City

Miss Gladys Austin and Clarence McGraw, both of this city, were united in marriage Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock by Judge U. G. Couch at his home at Island City, the double ring ceremony being used.

The Couch home was arranged with lovely bouquets of flowers. Mrs. L. A. McAllister played the wedding march as the bride party entered. The bride was pretty in a dress of blue georgette over rose. She carried a bouquet of opheelia roses. Only immediate relatives were present for the ceremony.

Miss Austin has been employed at the Grande Ronde hospital here for the past nine months and has made many friends here. Mr. McGraw is employed with the Bow-man-Hicks company here. They will make this city their home.

Missionary Society Entertained

Mrs. Ida French, Mrs. Chelf and Mrs. R. J. Kitchen entertained the Missionary society of the First Christian church yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kitchen on O avenue. Besides the 25 members in attendance there were seven visitors.

Mrs. Kitchen, who is president of the society, presided over the business session, during which two plans were made for a young people's missionary organization. Mrs. C. V. Dunn and Mrs. Ida French were appointed to assist in the organization of the society and Mrs. Chelf was made superintendent. Work will begin immediately to form the new society.

An interesting program followed the business session arranged by Mrs. J. A. Williams. Mrs. Kennedy gave a paper on "The Missionary Society and the World Task." Miss Dorothy Dunn played two piano numbers, accompanied by Miss Helene Price at the piano, and Mrs. Ida French gave a talk on "The Women in the Kingdom." Mrs. Stanton Lapham and her daughter, Miss Ruth Cullen, sang a beautiful duet number.

The home was attractively decorated in a lavender and white color scheme, which was also carried out in the luncheon served at the close of the meeting.

Campfire Girls Enjoy Swim

Members of the Seagotaha campfire girl group here enjoyed a swimming party at the Cove swimming pool yesterday morning. Miss Helen Williams accompanied the seven members of the campfire organization to Cove.

Honors in swimming were won by several of the girls, some of them passing the pollywog test. There are four degrees in this work, the pollywog, the frog, the fish and flying fish. Miss Dorothy Brown, president of the organization, acted as supervisor. She has already passed the fish test.

Three new members were present for the party. They were: Margaret Banks, Edith Payton, and Mona Gassett.

Social Meeting Held Yesterday

Forty members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge met at the home of Mrs. Henry Yeske, on Washington avenue, yesterday for a social meeting. The time was pleasantly spent sewing and visiting.

At an appropriate hour the hostesses, Mrs. Yeske, Mrs. Hazel Robinson, Mrs. Wallace Cass and Mrs. Shultz, served delicious refreshments.

and egg, tomato sandwiches, lead chocolate.

Dinner — Broiled lamb chops, steamed and buttered rice, creamed carrots, iceberg lettuce with Thousand Island dressing, vanilla ice cream with orange sauce, sponge cake, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

Do you ever have your lamb chops cut quite thick? Two bones in place of the usual one are allowed for each chop. Serve slices of orange with the chops for a delicious change.

Fruit And Nut Rolls

One and one-half cakes yeast, 1/2 cup milk, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 eggs, 1/2 cup shredded citron, 1/2 cup chopped nuts, 1/2 cup seeded and chopped raisins, 1/2 cup chopped dates, flour.

Scald milk and cool to lukewarm temperature. Soften yeast in a little water and add cooled milk, stir in 1 tablespoon sugar and 1/2 cups flour. Cover and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk. Cream butter and remaining sugar and salt. Add eggs well beaten. Combine this mixture with the light sponge and beat hard for five minutes. Add enough flour to make a soft dough. Use as little as possible and handle the dough lightly. Roll out on a floured molding board. Make a sheet about 1/2-inch thick. Spread lightly with melted butter and sprinkle with chopped nuts and fruit. Roll up like a jelly roll and cut in slices 1 inch thick. Put each slice into a greased muffin ring and let rise covered, in a warm place until double in bulk. Bake 25 minutes in a hot oven.

Notice instantly its Fresh Fruit Flavor

"MY HUSBAND always refused to eat similar desserts. When I placed Royal Fruit Gelatin in front of him he said—'This smells like real fruit, I'll try it—I buy it regularly now,'" writes a relieved wife from Washington, D. C.

"My husband would not touch gelatin in any form before, but he passes his plate for more Royal Fruit Gelatin," says another delighted one from Chicago.

"My husband had never cared for gelatin in any form, till I tried Royal—which he declares delicious," writes a real enthusiast from Dayton, Ohio.

As once you realize the wonderful difference in the flavor. No "synthetic" or artificial flavoring could duplicate the lovely natural taste of the fresh fruit.

And the delicate purity of the gelatin that carries them, has not altered or spoiled them in any way. There is no trace of "gummy," "gluey" odor or flavor. Pure gelatin has neither.

Of course you want the very best and purest gelatin possible, for it is such an essential in the diet of your children. You know you can depend on the purity of Royal Fruit Flavored Gelatin—you who have known and trusted Royal Baking Powder for years.

Ask for it by name at your grocer's. You'll recognize the red package, the same color as the Royal Baking Powder can.

"The English language, English literature, and English character have probably been more molded, shaped and inspired by the English Bible than by any other influence, literary or educational. Once this fact is grasped, the absurdity of leaving it out of the national system of education for people of English blood and English tradition becomes obvious."—Sir Harry R. Reichel, President of the University of North Wales.
