Cochran Ian V. MacKenzie Pleased with Material—Winning Team Seen

"They're a fine lot of fellows—willing, clean-looking and in pretty fair condition, too. I look for a great season." Coach Ian V. MacKenzie declared enthusiastically speaking of the first football try-out Wednesday.

"Seventeen men of last year's squad were among the 50 or more who came out. And seven of them I hear, are letter men.

"Of course, we did nothing but calisthenics. I haven't seen the boys in action, but they look like a promising squad to me," pronounced the coach.

Expect Winning Team And if leadership is all that lacks to furnish the inspiration, a school official remarks La Grande may look forward to a good year in athletics.

Cochran MacKenzie has distinguished himself in every branch of athletic prowess to which high school men can aspire.

He played football four years at the College of Colorado, at Colorado Springs, from where he holds his degree in civil engineering. For two years he was chosen all-Rocky Mountain conference guard, and the other two seasons he placed on the second team.

Recent Available During his four years as coach, he has produced two champion football teams, a brace of champion teams in baseball, and another pair of champion teams in basketball. He was mentor for the Littleton hoopers when they lost to the national champions by only four points in 1923.

MacKenzie has four letters to show for his work on the track. He has held both high school and college state championships in tennis. Seven years of physical education prepared him for his coaching career.

Oregon To Play Seven Games In Coming Season

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Sept. 10. (Special)—In less than two weeks football practice will begin at Oregon, which opens its coast conference schedule unusually early this season, playing Washington in the first encounter at Portland, October 3.

Oregon will play five conference and two practice games besides the Huskies, the locals will face Stanford, Washington, state, California and the Oregon Aggies in order of date. The first practice game will be against Willamette university here September 26, and the second against Pacific university here the week following.

The Oregon-Washington contest will dedicate the new half-million dollar Multnomah Civic stadium. Twenty-two thousand permanent and more than 10,000 temporary seats are to be available for the contest.

Three Home-Coming Games—Of the five conference games three will be home-coming contests with the fourth the dedication of the stadium. The home-coming games are the Stanford-Oregon at Eugene, The Washington State-Oregon at Pullman and the Oregon Aggie-Oregon at Corvallis.

Oregon's schedule follows: Sept. 26—Willamette at Eugene. Oct. 3—Pacific at Eugene. Oct. 10—Washington at Portland. Oct. 17—Stanford at Eugene. Oct. 24—California at Berkeley. Nov. 15—Washington State at Pullman. Nov. 26—Oregon Aggies at Corvallis.

EAST OREGON NET STARS IN BOISE TOURNEY

Eight players from Eastern Oregon attended the Idaho state tennis tournament held at Boise Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week. This representation was one of the largest of the tournament, even including Boise. Those making the trip were: Park Taylor and Sam Cochran of La Grande; Lyle Wilson of Imbler; Fred Fox of Union; Earl Garrison of North Powder; J. W. Withrall of Pendleton; and Jack Ahrens of Milton.

In the single matches Taylor, Cochran, Ahrens and Wilson were defeated in the first round, Withrall was defeated in the second and Garrison lamed until the third. In the doubles Fox and Wilson and Garrison and Taylor were defeated in the second round and Withrall and Ahrens in the third. Two Salt Lake City players, Gallagher and Hovens, Rocky

Dempsey Ready For Intensive Training Pace

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 10. (AP)—His three-day vacation over Jack Dempsey, sunburned and thoroughly rested, intends to get a training pace for his sparring mates from now on. He promises to work within the next ten days as he never has worked before. Weighing around 157, he desires to bring the poundage to about 151. While the titleholder has been loafing around his hangout, his sparring partners have been nursing their bruises for the punching they know is coming to them. Charley Anderson, 212-pound negro from Chicago and the Bill Tate, veteran negro shock absorber, are none too happy over what is ahead.

Dempsey is giving consideration to the selection of the referee and the two judges for his fight with Tunney.

Frank Werner, chairman of the Pennsylvania boxing commission has assured Dempsey that care will be exercised in the selection. Dempsey submitted the names of six licensed referees acceptable to him.

TUNNEY PREPARING STROUBURG, Pa., Sept. 10. (AP)—Restoration of nerve energy by relaxation, which is Gene Tunney's euphemism for loafing, is preparing the challenger up for a week end of hard work. He expects to box tomorrow and Sunday. Today he was satisfied with plans to walk and run between nine and ten miles, enjoy a motor ride along mountain roads and hit a golf ball for a while.

Wilson's Squad To Include Dick Reed

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 10. (AP)—Dick Reed, former University of Oregon football captain and star tackle, will leave today for Excelsior Springs, Mo., to join George Wilson's Western Whitecat's professional football team sponsored and managed by the ex-University of Washington backfield flash.

The Whitecats will train at Excelsior Springs. They are planning an invasion of the east.

Circuit Clout Epidemic Not At 1925 Level

(By Billy Evans) Has home run hitting decreased with the coming of the less lively ball? It has and to a marked degree.

The homer epidemic reached its highest level last season, all modern major league records being smashed. At this time a year ago 591 circuit clouts had been pooled in the two big leagues. Of these the National led with 246.

Over a corresponding period this campaign the total number of four-base blows is but 217, a decrease of almost 275. The American has 263 to its credit and the National 254, showing how even the two organizations have been running.

Going back to 1924 we find a drop to 285 up to the latter part of August, but in 1923 the figures were 318 and the year before that 324. In three of the years the National was out in front in the homer jamboozie.

RUTH BETTERS EFFORTS This time last season Ken Williams of the Browns and Bob Meusel, Yankees, were tied for the American League home run leadership with 25. This year the lone and only Bambino Ruth is leading the procession with 41. Incidentally, Ruth is one of the very few to show a better homer mark this year than last, most of the boys being far below their efforts of a year ago.

In the National in August 1925, Rogers Hornsby was ahead of the gang with 22 four-pipers. This year the Hog has but nine to his credit with Wilson of the Cubs out in front with 12 or 14 less than Hornsby for the same period in 1925.

Ken Williams has smashed out 17, eight under his mark this time last season while Meusel is 15 behind his performance a year ago. Hornsby of Brooklyn, another of the big wallopers last year, is 19 in the rear of his efforts up to this time last campaign.

ANENT GROVER ALEXANDER The St. Louis Cardinals may not cop the National League flag this year, but if they do more than a little credit will be coming to Grover Alexander, veteran hurler, who was picked up by St. Louis after the Cubs decided to let the big fellow go a few months ago.

Alexander, a major league campaigner for 14 years has not only turned in several victories for his new club, but he has saved quite a few games in the role of relief pitcher. This has been especially true during the last few weeks, Grover going to the aid of a faltering mate and pulling the game out of the fire.

Despite his long service in the main show, Alexander has been in but one world series. That was in 1912 when he was a member of the Phillies. He took part in two trials that fall against the Red Sox, winning and losing one. Alexander was on the Cubs' payroll when that team won the pennant in 1918, but didn't participate in the playoffs with the Red Sox. In fact Grover only worked three games that season, which was curtailed due to the World War. Nothing would be more fitting

WINS WOMEN'S WESTERN TITLE

Miss Dorothy Page, 17-year-old golden-haired lass of Madison, Wis., is the new women's western golf champion. She came into the honor the other day by defeating Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City in the 36-hole final at Olympia Fields, Chicago, 3 and 2.

Miss Page proved a sensation from the first day of the tournament and should rank with the topnotchers in national competition within the next few years.

Tourney Will Pick Champion

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 10. (AP)—Plans for a tournament to decide the light-heavyweight boxing championship of the Pacific coast have been announced here by Joe Waterman, nutcracker of the Portland boxing commission. The winner is to receive a gold belt.

Ernie Owens of Los Angeles, who has beaten almost all western boxers of his class and will fight Harry Dillon, of Winnipeg, in a ten-round bout as the feature of a card next Tuesday night, which will signify the opening of the tournament.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10. (AP)—An unusually severe earthquake was recorded by the seismograph at Fordham university today. The shock began at 4:24 a. m., reached its greatest force at 5 o'clock and continued until 10 o'clock. The distance was estimated at 5,000 miles from New York, probably in the southern Pacific.

King of Belgium wrecked his car near Calais where 27 girls were fined for swimming without suits.

She Bared Her Soul!

To the man whose kindly tolerance and sympathy have put thousands back on the road to happiness

AND she was but one of hundreds who have done the same—told secrets she would not tell her mother—or perhaps her husband—but in the confessional of the Judge's chambers she revealed all. Her story and the stories of scores of others—men as well as women—are now being retold for society's good by Judge Ben B. Lindsey in the most candid and startling series of articles ever published in any magazine. Reasoning from the stories of real life told him in court day after day, Judge Lindsey has reached certain conclusions, and now he boldly asks: "Is a new code of sex morals being created?" It is a startling question—but a question that has heretofore existed unasked in the minds of all intelligent men and women; and it is no more startling than the evidence that Judge Lindsey offers in his great series of articles under the title: "The Moral Revolt."

Mrs. Philip Lydig Reveals Secrets of New York Society

ALMOST since girlhood, beautiful Mrs. Philip Lydig has been an unquestioned leader of New York's ultra-smart society. Now for the first time Mrs. Lydig proceeds to turn the spotlight on that society—telling in great detail why she finds it futile, false and corrupt. The statements she makes will astonish you—story after story of tragedies heretofore never publicly disclosed. If chronicles of the real lives of the prominently fashionable—heretofore known only to those on the inside of that group—are of interest to you, then you must read Mrs. Lydig's revealing article, "Marriage Without Love." In these two remarkable series—the one by Mrs. Lydig, the other by Judge Lindsey—the Red Book Magazine for October inaugurates its new plan of adding the drama of fact to the drama of fiction—which latter is expressed by Rupert Hughes in his splendid novel, "We Live But Once," and by these other distinguished novelists and story-writers: Ruth Comfort Mitchell, James Francis Dwyer, Struthers Burt, Samuel Merwin, Leroy Scott, Thyrza Samter Winslow, Robert Benchley, Wm. H. Osborne, Arthur K. Akers and Michael J. Phillips.
