WOMEN ON GRAND JURY IN MELLETT MURDER CASE

After a month of investigation by county officials and special detectives, a grand jury has been sworn in at Canton, Ohio, to investigate the murder by underworld leaders of Don R. Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST.—Grapes, cereal cooked with raisins, thin cream French toast, sirup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON.—Peppers stuffed with corn, bacon, sandwiches, apple sauce, milk, tea.

DINNER.—Baked ham, scalloped sweet potatoes and pineapple, celery salad, cantaloupe ice cream, crisp vanilla cookies, bean rolls, milk, coffee.

Lengths of crisp toast a little larger than the slices of bacon, crisp broiled bacon, crisp lettuce and a little mayonnaise or not make the sandwiches. They should not stand a minute after making, for the heat of the toast and bacon will wilt the lettuce and the crispness of the sandwich is half its charm.

Cantaloupe Ice Cream.—Three small melons, 1 cup sugar, juice 1 orange, 3 cups whipping cream, 15 teaspoon salt.

Cut melons in halves, remove seeds and scoop out pulp. Press pulp through a sieve. Add sugar, salt and orange juice. Whip cream until firm and fold into fruit mixture. Turn into mold, pack in four parts ice to one part salt and let stand three or four hours. Scrape the mixture from the sides of the freezer three or four times while freezing. Serve in halves of chilled melons or on glass plates as preferred.

Mrs. Corson Arrives In New York Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (AP).—A mother of two little children, almost unknown to the world a few weeks ago, returned to the city of her adoption today and received a conqueror's welcome from New York's millions.

She was Mrs. Clemington Corson, born in Denmark as Mille Gade, who will go down in history as the first mother to swim the treacherous waters of the English channel.

New York, which roared itself hoarse a fortnight ago to greet Trudie Eberle, first woman to swim the channel, shows its impartiality by doing the same thing again today.

Soldiers in the Revolutionary Army were paid $6.67 a month. Congress later voted them free land.
