AT THE THEATERS

Film Version of Stage Hit Is Big Success

Do you like to laugh? Do you want a change from heavy screen drama to a picture that has a chuckle in every scene? Then arrange at once to go to the Arcade theater where the William Fox screen version of Charles Hoyt's play, "A Trip to Chinatown," is on view today only.

It's a widow, what starts all the trouble. She's in love with a millionaire who believes he has one foot in the grave and the other well on the way. She knows that all he needs is a little diversion so she invites him on a trip to Chinatown. His frisky old uncle, whom he is visiting, gets the message and believing it is for himself decides that he will marry the widow in the picturesque setting of Chinatown. Furthermore, he decides to kill two birds with one stone by fixing up a match between his nephew and his ward and making the wedding a double celebration.

When the widow discovers how much trouble the bungled telephone conversation has dragged her into, she proceeds to extricate herself as best she can.

The cast of "A Trip to Chinatown" includes Margaret Livingston, Earle Foxe, J. Farrell MacDonald, Anna May Wong, Harry Woods, Marie Astaire and other favorites.

"The Barrier" Showing at Sherrys Today and Tuesday

A stirring, virile drama of the Alaskan frontier, rational in treatment and with an undercurrent of delicious comedy, has been brought to the screen in "The Barrier," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer photoplay from Rex Beach's widely read novel of a decade ago of the same name.

The director of this picture, George Hill, and the players whose names are notable ones in the films, deserve equal praise for the successful photodrama.

One thing about this picture most deserving of praise is that it contains none of the overdrawn heroics customarily associated with pictures woven around the lives of men and women in primitive conditions, but is an accurate, faithful portrayal of man's struggle against the wilds and the elements.

The name of almost any one of the principals would generally constitute a box office attraction in itself.

Comedy showing "Creeps."

"Silver Treasure," Thrilling Film, At Star Theater

A thrilling picture in which the action moves swiftly to an unexpected climax, such is "The Silver Treasure," a William Fox production with George O'Brien in the leading role which opened at the Star theater yesterday and will be shown again today. It is from the novel "Nostromo" by Joseph Conrad.

George O'Brien plays the role of Nostromo, a boastful Central American captain of a gang of longshoremen, who is beloved by his workmen for his bravery. His ability to fight and his readiness to go into action. There is a powerful love story running parallel with the greed and lust caused by a fortune in silver. There are plots and counter-plots, honesty and thievery and, best of all, action.

In the supporting cast are Joan Renee, Lou Tellegen, Helena D'Algy, Evelyn Selbie, Stewart Rome, Hedda Hopper, Otto Matieson, Harvey Clark and Sidney de Grey.

Beans Yield Second Crop in Twin Falls

TWIN FALLS, Ida., Sept. 13.—Arthur Jarman, of Twin Falls joins the few growers at Filer last week exhibited green beans grown in his garden from the roots of a crop of 17 days after the first beans had been cut down. The first crop, Mr. Jarman stated, was an abundant one and the plants were thrifty. A Chicago man has sued his wife for divorce because she has imperfect sight. But maybe if her sight had been good she wouldn't have married him in the first place.

A woman may occasionally be a man-hater, but she never does as good a job of it as she does as a woman-hater.

There was a young man from the sticks
Who was in a terrible fix.
He said, "I can't see
Why the girls should hate me
When they fall for the rest of the hicks."

The first marriage had many advantages. Adam and Eve had no in-laws.

Victim: "Well, it doesn't seem likely."

"It must be three years since I saw you last. I hardly knew you—you have aged so!"
"Really! Well, I wouldn't have known you except for that dress."

Mrs. Peck: "We have been married 20 years today, John."
John (with a sigh): "Yes, for 20 years we've fought"—
Mrs. Peck (scowling): "What?"

WHEN WE THINK THE OTHER FELLOW KNOWS

Some people would be far better off if they had faith in their own judgment rather than placing so much confidence in the judgment of the other fellow. The lack of self confidence has cost many a man a considerable sum. If we were able to think as fast as the other fellow can talk, likely our judgment would save us money.

AN EXTENSION TELEPHONE SAVES STEPS

An extension telephone saves traveling about the home or office, hurrying to answer a call or to make one. Its service is two-fold: It saves your time and the time of those who call you. These are important business and social considerations.
