Foster Makes Trip To Aid This State

PORTLAND, Sept. 17.—Personal messages of Oregon will be taken to the farmers of the middle west this week by Arthur Foster, field agent of the land settlement department of the Portland and Oregon state chambers of commerce, according to W. G. Ide, department manager.

Decision to send Mr. Foster on this scouting trip to interest farmers in Oregon, was reached after thoroughly considering the possibilities of inducing many new settlers to come here. The department has hundreds of signed questionnaires returned by prospective settlers of the middlewest saying that they intend making their future homes in this state, settling forth the kind of farms they desire and the amount of money they will have to invest.

NEW PLYMOUTH, Sept. 17.—Shipments of apples from Plymouth commenced Saturday and up to and including Tuesday a total of 21 carloads of the Jonathan variety had rolled. It is reported by Fred Fairman, Union Pacific agent.

Growers declare the shipments will continue in a steady manner until the estimated crop of 2500 carloads of the New Plymouth-Fruitland country has been marketed.

Whoever attracts into the bonds of marriage any male subject of His Majesty by means of rouge or powder, perfume, false teeth, false hair, steel corsets, hooped petticoats, high heels or false hips will be prosecuted for seduction and the marriage will be declared null and void. If the accused is convicted—Old French statute.

AT THE THEATERS

"Fighting Buckaroo" Battling Race For Girl and Gold Mine

Buck Jones in "The Fighting Buckaroo," the latest Fox Films production which will appear at the Star Theatre tonight and Saturday takes full advantage of the wide possibilities in this vivid picture.

From the minute the buckaroo leaves the steamer gangplank on his return to the United States until he arrives at his Arizona ranch he is racing or fighting for a girl and a gold mine.

Sally Long has the role of Betty Gregory, the society girl who owns the ranch where the mine has been located. Frank Butler has the part of Percy Wellington, an English friend of the buckaroo.

"Tin Gods" Wins Praise at The Arcade

"Tin Gods." The title's significant for more than one reason. Principally because it figures as a milestone in Thomas Meighan's career.

The picture had its first showing yesterday at the Arcade theatre, and an immense audience was introduced to a brand new Tom Meighan. It will be shown again tonight and Saturday.

Abiding and abetting him in his efforts, is a huge cast headed by the two featured players, Aileen Pringle and Renee Adoree; William Powell, Hale Hamilton and John Harrington. Allan Dwan directed. William Anthony McGuire is the author of the play from which it was adapted by Paul

Dickey and Howard Emmett Rogers.

Imagine the story of a man who marries a beautiful woman. She loves him but also has a passion for politics. Time passes and soon she has forgotten her first love for the second. A child comes but she continues to spend her time away from home. Then—one day, the little boy passes on. After a terrible argument, the husband packs his bags, and rushes to South America. And soon to a great climax.

Bessie Love Has Unusual Role in "Lovey Mary"

The Celluloid Medal or some equally appropriate symbol should go to Bessie Love. This for her courage in playing the title role in "Lovey Mary," at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture directed by King Baggot, which comes to Sherrys theatre.

For Bessie does an ugly duckling part, pigtails, freckles and all, without the customary transition to beauty.

The latter angle is the unusual

Feature. Lots of other beautiful actresses in the movies have done the ugly duckling stuff, before. Look at Norma Shearer in "His Secretary," or Carmel Myers in "The Devil's Circus," Gertrude Olmsted in "Monte Carlo," Marion Davies in "Beverly of Graustark," or Gloria Swanson in "Stage Struck."

Bessie remains the ugly duckling down to the last fadeout, which is something else again because all the other beauties mentioned had plenty of footage showing them as their exquisite selves. The contrast only served to make them appear more beautiful.

WHEN WE THINK THE OTHER FELLOW KNOWS

Some people would be far better off if they used their own judgment rather than placing so much confidence in the judgment of the other fellow. The lack of self confidence has cost many a man a considerable sum. If we were able to think as fast as the other fellow can talk, likely our judgment would save us money.
