The picnic marked the close of a contest between the two Sunday schools in attendance, offering and Bible study, the pupils from the Nazarene church winning. The picnic had been scheduled for earlier in the month, but because several of the Salvation Army members were away at

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Grapes, cereal, thin cream, creamed potatoes, broiled ham, crisp bran toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Baked squash, cheese sandwiches, apple sauce, ginger nuts, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked haddock with oyster sauce, baked potatoes, lima beans in cream, pear salad, nut tapioca pudding, graham bread, milk, coffee.

The cheese sandwiches suggested in the luncheon menu are toasted in the oven while the squash is baking. Sandwiches toasted this way are delightfully crisp and the cheese is melted to a perfect creaminess that makes it easy to digest.

Nut Tapioca Pudding

One-third cup quick cooking tapioca, 3 cups hot water, 1 1/2 cups light brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup broken nut meats, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Put hot water, salt and sugar in top of double-boiler. Bring to the boiling point and put over hot water. Stir in tapioca and cook until transparent, stirring frequently. It will take about half an hour. Remove from heat and cool. Stir in nuts and vanilla and turn into individual molds. Chill thoroughly and serve with plain cream.

Vests for Women Popular in London

By the Associated Press
London's autumn fashions for women include the real, ultra-masculine vest. Designers have flirted with the idea for many years but there is no pretense about the feminine waistcoat offered for this season. It is exactly like the best men's products of Saville-row. It has the orthodox number of pockets, the very correct button and buckle at the back by which most men (unless they've reached the safety pin stage) adjust their vests to a perfect fit.

Ruffle to Replace Scarf?

The ruffle is making a strong bid to replace the scarf in the English woman's affections. Already it is deemed a successful rival. It is not the all-the-way-around ruffle, or even the adaptation of the Medici contribution to costume, but an essentially modern design inspired apparently by the electric fan.

It is worn at the back of the neck, where its fluttering "fans" of diaphanous tulle project a foot or more. One such ruffle seen in Mayfair was attached to a thick, twisted row of forget-me-not blue glass beads. The ruffles fill a much needed gap in the attire of women with shingled heads since they soften the outline when evening dress is worn.

GRAFTON, W. Va., Sept. 21. (AP)—Thirty-six passengers were injured, several seriously when the Charleston to Grafton passenger train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad was wrecked near Orlando, W. Va., today.

The wreck was caused by sagging rails on a culvert, which had been affected by recent heavy rains.

BLUE MOUNTAIN GRANGERS MEET

GRANGE HALL, Sept. 21. (Special)—Several important issues now before congress, among them being the prohibition fight, were discussed Saturday when Blue Mountain grange met at Grange hall. After the round table discussion W. R. Gekeler spoke briefly on the irrigation plan that has been proposed for Grande Ronde valley.

Mrs. Mabel Anson gave a reading followed by an instructive talk by Mrs. Grace Grout on the habits of guests of the largest hotel in the world.

The following resolution was written by W. R. Gekeler and passed by the grange: Whereas, Dr. W. P. Pfy has set aside a fund for the benefit of boys' and girls' club work known as the Marvin Daniel Memorial fund and whereas we observe this a splendid move for the benefit of future agriculturists; therefore be it resolved by Blue Mountain grange that we congratulate Dr. Pfy for this work and his time and efforts spent to improve agriculture in the county. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Grace Grout for her successful work with the liberty girls sewing club.

Section one of the grange served dinner at noon.
