OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

Colleen Moore Coming to Arcade In "It Must Be Love"

Salami, pastrami, hamburger, hamburger, pickles, potato salad and a thousand other articles customarily seen in a delicatessen store waited their spicy fragrance over the set during the screening of Colleen Moore's latest starring vehicle for First National entitled, "It Must Be Love". The new big feature comedy will be shown at the Arcade theatre starting Thursday.

The picture, it is hinted, is extremely spicy—but is not at all censorable, because the spice is of the delicious flavor. Jean Harlow, daughter of Bernard Macfadden, gives a dance similar to that in which she appears in the celebrated Ziegfeld Follies, of which she is a talented member.

Comedy showing, "Hooked at the Altar".

Dorothy Seaton appears as her girl friend, Min, and Arthur Stone plays the role of "Peter Hallowsky," which is Russian for undoubtedly atmosphere.

John McCormick, general manager of production for First National on the West Coast and producers of the Colleen Moore pictures, authored one of the most brilliant casts of the season for "It Must Be Love". The roster includes Jean Harlow, Malcolm McGregor, Clyde Moore and Bodo Rosen.

Lionel Barrymore At Sherrys in "The Wrong-Doers"

A very fine bill of pictures will be presented at the Sherry theatre within the next few weeks and one of the most important to theatre-goers will be "The Wrong-Doers". This is the first Bernard Macfadden True Story film production. Mr. Macfadden owns the True Story magazine and conceived the idea that the true story could well be applied to motion pictures as well as magazines, so he has started the production of a series of eight "true story" films.

"The Wrong-Doers" has as its star the famous Lionel Barrymore. The ingenue role is played by Anne Cornwall, with Henry Hall, Clara Finch and Henry Sedley in the cast.

A feature of "The Wrong-Doers" is a thrilling episode termed "The Million Dollar Jewel Dance". In this scene Helen Macfadden, daughter of Bernard Macfadden, gives a dance similar to that in which she appears in the celebrated Ziegfeld Follies, of which she is a talented member.

Comedy showing, "Hooked at the Altar".

Wild Horse Is Star In Picture Featured Thursday

Rex is perhaps the only star in the film world who has never been in a picture that was less than a masterpiece—that was unworthy of his talents. And the greatest of these is said to be "The Devil Horse," commencing Thursday at the Star theatre, where audience may thrill anew to the intelligence, and personality of Hal Roach's marvelous wild horse actor, and to the story, which has been produced by Mr. Roach on a lavish and spectacular scale.

"The Devil Horse" is the name given by the Indians to a huge black stallion that lives in the hills and makes war on the redman. There is an epic sweep about "The Devil Horse" that promises to make it far more than a vehicle for a horse actor. Mr. Roach, the author of the story, had used as his background the boundless expanses of towering mountains and endless plains. He has given it the lurid coloring of the '70's and early '80's, when this part of the world was new, and, consequently, wild, uncompromising and cruel.

Fred Jackman, the genius who directed "The King of Wild Horses" and "Black Cyclone," is said to surpass his own best efforts in "The Devil Horse". With the equine cast and the human cast.

WHEN WE THINK THE OTHER FELLOW KNOWS

Some people would be far better off if they used their own judgment rather than placing so much confidence in the judgment of the other fellow. This lack of self confidence has cost many a man a considerable sum. If we were able to think as fast as the other fellow can talk, likely our judgment would save us money.

You Wouldn't Keep Her Waiting at Your Door

When the doorbell rings you answer it promptly because you don't like to keep people waiting. It is even more important that your telephone callers are not kept waiting. Calls are often lost because the person at the other end of the line thinks there is no one at home and hangs up.

Answering the telephone promptly helps us to provide you with the best possible service.
