Apples Dominate Luncheon Served N. B. B. Members

Members of the N. B. B. club resumed activities Thursday afternoon when they were entertained at the farm home of Mrs. Bert Hug, near Summerville. A luncheon at 1 o'clock, of which fried chicken was the principal item, was much enjoyed by the 12 women present.

Unique decorations were used about the rooms. Twigs from a crabapple tree, loaded with the little fruit, were arranged in baskets and vases. A large basket of apples served as a centerpiece for the luncheon table, and a little branch of crabapples was found with each place card. Apple pie was served as dessert.

Bridge, at three tables, was the diversion following luncheon. Mrs. Will Paddock won high score and the second prize went to Mrs. C. L. Mackey.

The club will meet next week with Mrs. H. W. Riley as hostess.

Mrs. Dick Lindsay was hostess at a pretty appointed luncheon at 1:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Tiffin for the members of the Junior Bridge club. Covers were laid for 12 around a table decorated with bouquets of nasturtiums in yellow.

The same flowers were used to decorate the rooms of the Lindsay home where three tables of bridge were in play following luncheon. Mrs. Elmer McManus won high score at cards. The guest prize went to Mrs. Stanley Lyons.

Mrs. Letty Knight will be the next hostess to the club two weeks from yesterday.

P-T. Associations Plan Active Season

New officers were installed and committees for this year's work appointed at the Riveria Parent-Teacher association held yesterday afternoon. The association had been called to order by last year's officers, minutes of the last meeting had been read and reports of the old committees heard.

Mrs. G. M. Pierce is president of the organization this year; Mrs. T. M. Kennedy, vice president and Mrs. Maxine, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Myrtle Hoyt was appointed chairman of the publicity committee; Mrs. Neukirchner, chairman of the ways and means committee; Mrs. L. Paus and Miss Sturgill members of the program and entertainment committee; Mrs. Hillard, chairman of the social committee, and Mrs. Clyde Davis, the membership committee.

The Riveria school has five new teachers this year, which were introduced to the association members by the president, Mrs. Pierce. J. T. Longfellow, superintendent of La Grande schools, told of the various changes which have been made in the schools this year in an interesting talk, after which W. W. Nussbaum, music instructor, outlined the program he plans to follow during the school year.

Mrs. Pierce was chosen as a delegate to represent the Riveria association at the state parent-teacher convention to be held at teacher convention to be held at

L. D. S. Women Plan Bridge-Bazaar

The women of the Latter Day Saints church have announced November 3, 4 and 5 as the dates for their annual bridge-bazaar, and the place for the event will be announced soon. A meeting was held Thursday evening of this week and arrangements are being made for an elaborate program to conform with the bazaar of the last four or five years.

Mrs. Evelyn Rosenbaum is general chairman of all committees in charge of the affair.

COVE (Special).—Honoring the seventy-seventh birthday anniversary of George Miller a surprise party was given last Sunday at the Miller home here. 1900 was served at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, a large birthday cake adorned with 77 pink and white lighted candles and tiny pink bouquets serving as a pretty centerpiece. Bouquets of flowers in pink and white were arranged about the other parts of the home. Covers were laid for 50.

Mr. Miller responded graciously to his birthday toast, mentioning many incidents of former birthdays. Those present were his sons and daughters and their families. Mr. and Mrs. William Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Gray and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Chadwick and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clark and family, Frank Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and family, and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Carter.

Announcements

Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. —News editor's note.

The Westminster society will meet at the home of Mrs. George Richardson, 2001 Second street, Monday evening in regular meeting. Dr. Margaret Ingle will have charge of the lesson study and Mrs. Lynn Wright will arrange for the musical program. All members are urged to attend. An invitation is also extended to everyone interested in Westminster work.

The Parkdale club will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Owens. Mrs. Ed Hawley and Mrs. Frank Woods will be assistant hostesses.

Woman States That Fine Was Not $100

In a story appearing in Thursday's issue of The Observer, it was stated that Alta Kenney, of La Grande, and Mick Andrews of Imbler, were fined $100 and costs in Judge Conway's court in Enterprise for charging passengers without having a public service permit. The Observer received the story from J. P. Cassidy, Inspector for the public commission, of Salem.

Mrs. Kenney declares that she and Mr. Andrews were each fined ten dollars and costs and exhibits a receipt for $24.50 signed by Sheriff A. B. Miller as proof of her statement.
