Bridge Luncheon Held at Sanford Home on Friday

Mrs. A. V. Sanford was hostess at a bridge luncheon Friday afternoon at her home on M avenue. Rosebuds in delicate shades of pink and yellow were arranged about the room, and the same colors were carried out in the table decorations.

Four tables of bridge were at play following luncheon, with Mrs. H. G. Avery winning high score. The second prize went to Mrs. W. H. Sanford and the consolation prize to Mrs. R. J. Kitchin.

Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp was hostess to the members of the club Saturday afternoon at a luncheon at 1215 o'clock at her home on Spring avenue. Bouquets of rosebuds were arranged on the four luncheon tables, where bridge was afterwards enjoyed.

Mrs. Earl Stoddard won high score among the club members at cards and the guest prize went to Mrs. Charles Reynolds.

Miss Deborah Sanborn, of Bales River, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Clayton Turner, of Salt Lake City, Utah, were out-of-town guests for the afternoon. Miss Sanborn is visiting her sister, Mrs. Leslie Kinzel, and Mrs. Turner has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl Stoddard, this summer.

Miss Webber Weds Harry C. Munsey

A wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, Oct. 2, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Webber, at 807 Division street, in the presence of 19 invited guests when their only daughter, Miss Ethel Webber, was united in marriage to Harry C. Munsey, of Bales River, Tenn. The Rev. J. A. Hall, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church south, performed the ceremony.

The bride and groom were attended by Arthur and Lillian Lund.

After the ceremony, which took place at 6 o'clock, dinner was served at the Webber home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Munsey are students of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, where they will return soon to resume their study.

Hazel C. Meurer and Albert L. Miller, of Pendleton, were married at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. H. W. Parker, pastor of the church. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gentry and Mrs. Meurer, mother of the bride, all of Pendleton.

The young couple returned to that city to make their home.

Miss Margaret Glickson and Carl D. Jones, both of Union county, were united in marriage by Justice Hugh E. Brady Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his office here. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones.

M. E. Aid Convention Will Be Wednesday

On Wednesday of this week the second annual convention of the Methodist Episcopal Ladies' Aid society of Union county will be held at Cove, and preparations are being made by the hostess society for a large attendance.

The first convention of the aid societies was held last year at Union, when a county society was organized and plans were made for a meeting each year.

Wednesday's program will begin in the morning at 11 o'clock when Mrs. Sherwood Williams, of La Grande, president, will call the meeting to order. The Cove women will furnish music and Mrs. R. C. Lee, wife of Union's new pastor, will lead in prayer. Mrs. A. A. Antles, of Cove, will give the address of welcome and Mrs. Lixie Dalton, of North Powder, will respond.

At noon a pot-luck luncheon will be served with each one attending furnishing a covered dish of sandwiches.

The afternoon program will begin at 2 o'clock, presided over by the president, Mrs. Edith Phyllis of Union, will sing a solo, after which the business meeting of the convention will be held. After the business session there will be music by Mrs. Ray Fuller, soprano, Mrs. Ed Jasper and Mrs. W. E. Adler, violin and piano.

Mrs. George M. Pierce will give the convention address, which will be followed by the reports of the presidents of the different aid societies in the county. Mrs. Everett Wallinger is president of the Allied society; Mrs. Backwith, of Cove; Mrs. J. A. Gaskill, of Union; Mrs. Wayne Wade, of North City; Mrs. Lynn Hill, of Elgin; Mrs. Lixie Dalton, of North Powder; Mrs. E. P. Reuter, of Union, and Mrs. Sherwood Williams, La Grande.

Mrs. Hall K. Wallis, of Island City, will give the closing prayer.

In conformance with the autumn season a "nutty" social was held Friday evening by the members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church in the church basement. Appropriate games were played, each one of the 22 members present being given the name of a nut, by which the teams in the contest games were designated.

The room where the party was held was decorated for the occasion in a red and white color scheme, the C. E. colors. Strips of crepe paper and the society's monograms were used.

After the games refreshments were served by the committee in charge, headed by Miss Grace Gohel. Assisting her were Miss Joan Wright, Mrs. L. C. Bowser, Billy Miller, the Rev. W. C. Ross and Miss Kathryn Moran.

Songs and an address of farewell by Miss Billa Anderson, who left Saturday night for Seattle, Wash., where she will attend the University of Washington, closed the party.

Watch Your Frail Fungy Child Grow Strong Take on Weight

In just a few days—quicker than you ever dreamed of—these wonderful flesh making tablets called McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets will start to help any weak, thin, under-nourished little one.

After sickness and where rickets are suspected, they are especially valuable. No need to give them any more nasty Cod Liver Oil—these tablets are made to take the place of that good but evil smelling, stomach-upsetting medicine and they surely do it. They do put on flesh.

Ask Red Cross Drug Store—or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—as easy to take as candy and not at all expensive—60 tablets 60 cents. Insist on McCoy's, the original and genuine, and give the child a chance for 30 days. If you aren't delighted with results just get your money back.—Adv.

Pay your body a living wage

The cheerful functioning of all parts of the body never results when the tissue is starved and the vitality depleted—which follow irregular or incomplete elimination.

The only method which will insure a successful, smoothly operating body machine is: Full absorption of necessary food elements—complete and regular elimination of waste.

Roman Meal, the perfect grain food, is the "Happy Medium" between the too-finely refined cereals and white flour foods, and the necessary, but coarse bran which contains very little nutriment, and which should not be used except when "relieved" by a grain product such as flaxseed which dilutes the harshness of the bran and gently lubricates the "tract."

Serve Roman Meal—you worried mothers of under-nourished children, each way some day, in any one of the twenty-five different ways, and see your proud little ones improve! See, too, how tired husbands enjoy it and improve, too!
