TURKEY DEMAND GAINS STRENGTH

Fancy Dressed Birds Go Rapidly—Undergrades Not Moving

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 8 (AP).—Demand for country dressed meats on the local market remains steady with the run moderate.

There is an increasing demand for fancy dressed turkeys in the local market but they must be good birds and undergrades are hard to move. Buyers paying 41 to 45c for fancy dressed and 34 to 35c for live turkeys. Other lines of poultry generally steady.

Egg values continue to maintain a firm undertone.

Butter continues steady and unchanged.

Oregon apples brought $1.55 to $1.85 per box in the New York auction market Wednesday, 1054 boxes of Winter Bananas, fancy medium to large going at these figures. The average was $1.69 a box. Oregon shipments up to September 25 totaled 520 cars, according to the department of agriculture, as compared to 362 cars up to the same date last year. Total apple shipments last year were 4,702 cars.

Little hopes are held by local dealers for improvement in the potato market as long as second grade stock from outside the state is thrown on the Portland market. Cars are offered as low as 80 cents here without creating any wild rush of buying. Trade is well supplied.

A slightly firmer undertone is showing in the onion market. Several cars have been purchased in the Lake Labish section recently at $1.10.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO, Oct. 8 (AP, U. S. Department of Agriculture).—Hogs—15,000; generally steady with yesterday's average; top, $13.90 paid for 230 to 240 lb. weights.

Cattle—3,000; no dependable outlet for better grade and yearlings; few sales lower grade steers about steady; bidding sharply lower on finished yearlings; she stock weak; vealers, 50c lower; bulk to packers, $14.00@14.50; few at $15.00.

Sheep—22,000; fair activity fat lambs mostly steady; indication strong on better grades rangers; no westerns sold early; opening sales of natives, $14.25@14.50 to packers; best held above $14.75; few culls steady at $10.00@10.50; sheep steady to strong; bulk fat ewes, $6.00@6.75; feeding lambs about steady at $13.00@13.50; mostly best held above late Thursday top feeding lambs, $13.75.

Remove Turner as Book Board Member

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 8. (AP)—It developed here today that the change announced by Governor Pierce in the state text book commission yesterday was not a voluntary resignation by R. R. Turner, state school superintendent but that instead Turner was removed from the commission by the governor and F. L. Kent, of Corvallis appointed in his place.

The reason given by the governor for the change was that the state constitution inhibits one person from holding more than one lucrative state office at the same time.

GOLF MATCH SCHEDULED

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 8 (AP)—Sixteen golfers of the Eugene Golf and Country club will go to Portland Sunday morning for a match with the Portland Golf club. In addition to the team match, there will be a game between Todd Gardner, Eugene professional, and John Junor, Portland pro, and Northwest open champion. An amateur-pro foursome is to be another feature.

REUNITE OCEAN, LAKES

NEW YORK—The waters of the Great Lakes and the Atlantic are to be remarried after 100 years. Governor Dewitt Clinton, a century ago brought a keg of water from Lake Erie and dumped it into New York harbor. His grandson George Clinton 80, has just seen a similar keg filled here. It will be emptied at Buffalo in the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the opening of the Erie canal.

Perhaps a man's wife is his better half because she always says "Better not do this. Better do that."

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, Oct. 8 (AP).—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

"The wool market has been fully sustained during the past week on the level of values recorded the week before and the tendency of prices is against the buyer. It is more distinctly a seller's market today than at any time for a year. Even the top-makers have at length got into position to demand slightly more for their tops. Dealers who have hitherto been busy selling wool, are now commencing to buy wool once more in the west.

"The foreign markets are distinctly strong. The foreign primary markets are all steady.

"Of chief interest to the local trader, of course, is the admittedly improved position in the goods market. The band to mouth buying of the past two years has had its logical result in reducing stocks to the minimum and even the loudest proponents of 'buy only what you need' have evidently found their needs very considerable.

"Mohair is in a strong position, with prices fully maintained at the advances of a week ago."

The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following quotations tomorrow:

Scoured basis—Oregon northern, $1.08@1.12; fine and F. M. clothing, 90@95c; valley No. 1, 93@95c.

Wheat Drops Cent In Chicago Market

CHICAGO, Oct. 8 (AP).—Starting at ⅛ to ¼c up, wheat ascended a little more and then sagged to below yesterday's finish. Corn, oats and provisions were easy, corn opening unchanged to ⅛c higher and subsequently undergoing an all around decline.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1 to 1⅝c net lower; corn 1⅜ to 1½c down, oats ⅜ to ½c off and provisions showing a drop of 25 to 95c.

COTTON DROPS; WALL STREET PRICES BREAK

NEW YORK, Oct. 8. (By the Associated Press).—Extremely nervous trading characterized today's stock market, which broke sharply just before midday in sympathy with a decline of about $4.00 a bale in cotton, on publication of an increased government crop estimate and a marking up of call money rate to 5 per cent, coincident with the calling of about $20,000,000 in loans. Prices made irregular recovery during the afternoon in response to heavy week-end short covering.

Total sales approximated 1,900,000 shares.

The gutter is a fine place to put plays written by those whose minds are in the gutter.

More about the nail driving contest. We are giving away tomorrow at 3 o'clock $45.00 in yellow gold. We are building 650 lineal feet of heavy planks up two feet high where the married ladies, living with their own husbands, and the girls can drive nails in. These planks will be placed parallel six feet apart so the husbands can get in between and hold a hat full of nails for their poor wives to earn some money to divide with them. Some one asked me this morning how we came to succeed so well in this city. We don't take the credit, as many of the farmers and town people knowing our circumstances placed large orders with us amounting into Hundreds of Dollars and paid us many times two weeks ahead before the material had arrived. We never ask anyone for any favors like that, but it was generally understood and talked around the community fireside "Let us help put Pratt on his feet" and if I was so down right stingy that I would breathe through my nose to keep from wearing my teeth out and wouldn't shake loose from a little of the money that the customers have shoveled into our business then La Grande would not be the proper place for us to live.

Next year we hope to do you better.

The Nail driving contest is now considered an annual affair. We invite merchants, doctors, barbers, railroad men, carpenters, paper hangers, blacksmiths and everyone. In fact, I don't see how you can stay away.

Manager Fails to Pay Off Employes

REDDING, Cal., Oct. 8 (AP)—Criminal action against F. M. Chrisman, manager of the Sims Lumber and Box company, for alleged failure to pay his employes, was taken here yesterday by representatives of the state labor commission. Chrisman is believed to be in San Francisco.

Simultaneously proceedings were started to foreclose loggers' liens on the company's property at Sims in behalf of 73 workers claiming $6,629 due them for wages. The workers' claim that they have not been paid in nearly three months and that their families are in dire need.
