

SOCIETY NEWS

Mrs. Kerr to Visit Hope Chapter on Next Wednesday

Mrs. Lenora H. Kerr, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon of the Order of the Eastern Star, will pay her official visit to Hope Chapter, No. 13, of La Grande on Wednesday evening of next week, Oct. 13.

This will be a district meeting, including Eastern Star chapters of Union and Walla Walla counties. All visitors are also welcome.

Mrs. Kerr's home is at Corvallis, Ore. She is the wife of President Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural college.

The first meeting of the art department of the La Grande Neighborhood club since the beginning of the club year was held Thursday afternoon in the library building, when the study of the Flemish and Dutch schools of painting was started.

Although the attendance was not large the meeting was an enthusiastic one. Much interest in being manifested in this department and its members are looking forward to the best season since organization.

Mrs. H. G. Smith and Mrs. H. H. Cleaver had charge of the first program. They gave a comparison of the Flemish painting with the Italian painting, resulting in the opinion of those present in favor of the Flemish works of art.

A short review of Thursday's program will be given at the next meeting of the department, the first Thursday of next month, to introduce the year's work to those who were unable to attend the first meeting. At that time Mrs. H. H. Hanna, president of the department, and Mrs. Phil Thompson will be in charge.

Yesterday's meeting of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church was set aside as Julia Hatch day, in honor of Miss Hatch, who is a missionary in Japan and during the program hour an interesting review of her life was given by Mrs. E. P. Moser, who had charge of the program. Members of the society are planning to send a lantern to Miss Hatch as a Christmas gift, which she will use in her work there.

The meeting of the society was held at the home of Mrs. L. B. Moe, with Mrs. Moe, Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. A. G. Lane and Mrs. L. E. Dunn as hostesses. A short business session during the early part of the afternoon was presided over by Mrs. G. E. Moran, president.

Mrs. Moran was elected delegate to attend the synodical meeting at Pendleton Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Officers for the new year were elected yesterday afternoon when the Imbler Ladies Aid society met at the farm home of Mrs. Chas. Woodell. Mrs. C. C. Welch, president of the society for the past year, was re-elected; Mrs. Woodell was elected vice president; Mrs. Albert Keeter, secretary, and Mrs. J. A. Gaskill, treasurer.

Minerva Says—

TWEEDIE SHOES

By express this morning. Several new styles today. See window. More to come in few days. Latest patterns in fall footwear. Prices to suit your purse. A feel your foot will like. Patterns you cannot resist.

The BOOTERY

Pay Cash and Pay Less. You know the place.

Heating Stoves

I have all sizes and kinds — Combination wood and coal, wood and circulation.

Call and see them.

F. L. LILLY HARDWARE

Phone Main 85

Carnation Club in Hallowe'en Party

The first costume party of the Hallowe'en season, when masquerade parties are a principal part of the social activities, took place last evening when Mrs. Robert Carey and Mrs. Earl Bickland were hostesses to the members of the Carnation club at the Carey home on Adams avenue.

The prize for the best costume was won by Mrs. Harold Lyman, who represented a Hawaiian dancer. Her outfit had been sent to her from the islands.

Four tables of bridge were at play with Mrs. Jack Blatt winning high scores. Mrs. B. M. Keown received second honors and Mrs. D. H. Mosby the consolation prize. Mrs. Eugene Millering was given a guest prize.

The rooms of the Carey home were decorated for the occasion in conformance with Hallowe'en. Black and orange was the color scheme used and black cats, witches, jack-o'-lanterns and other Hallowe'en motifs played an important part in the arrangements.

The club will meet again the second Friday of next month when Mrs. Al Herman and Mrs. E. F. Hessler will be hostesses.

Mrs. Le Roy Knight entertained the members of the Junior Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on First street. Three tables were at play with Miss Carolyn Rosenthal winning high scores among the club members. Mrs. Charles Blinger was given the guest prize.

A color scheme of lavender and white was carried out in the floral decorations, which were bouquets of asters. A two-course luncheon was enjoyed after the card games.

Mrs. Andrew J. Loney Jr., will be hostess to the club at the next meeting two weeks from yesterday.

Members of the Lucky Thirteen Bridge club will open its season Thursday afternoon of next week, Oct. 14, at the home of Mrs. E. T. Andrews at 587 Pennsylvania avenue. This club is one of the last of the social clubs in the city to resume activities after a vacation during the summer months.

Luncheon will be served at 1:15 o'clock.

W.R.C. Women Honor Mrs. Susan Falk

Several members of Oliver P. Morton Relief Corps, No. 27, gathered at the home of Mrs. Susan Falk on B avenue yesterday afternoon for a surprise party in her honor. Mrs. Falk has been a member of the corps for many years but is now unable to attend many meetings.

Twenty women were present for the party. They brought their fancy work and enjoyed the afternoon visiting and working.

Refreshments, which the guests furnished, were served at 4 o'clock just before they departed for their homes.

Ruckmans Entertain Friends at Dinner

With a number of friends from La Grande as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ruckman entertained at dinner Thursday evening at their farm home about two and a half miles from Alieel. A chicken dinner with home made ice cream and cake as dessert was served to 15 guests. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Fay Ward, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Zim-

Clover Lapel

A distinctive note in new fall suits is the notch notch lapel.

Large Earrings

Very new and very smart earrings are made of flat pieces of metal in the modern manner. Gold and copper is attractively combined in an acorn design which reaches large proportions in the third pendant.

mermen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank George, Walter Phillips and the host and hostess.

After dinner the remainder of the evening was enjoyed visiting. Several musical numbers were given. Mr. Ruckman playing several piano numbers and Mrs. Maxwell playing a number of selections.

A birthday surprise party honoring Mrs. Frieda Byer and Mrs. Josie Day was held at the home of Mrs. E. D. Byer Thursday evening. The evening was enjoyed visiting, after which refreshments were served. Both of the honorees received many gifts in memory of their birthday anniversaries.

Those present for the party were: Mrs. Jennie Byer and son, Milton, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Byer, Mr. and Mrs. William Byer, and baby daughter, Audrey Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Byer and little daughter, Mary Jane, Mr. and Mrs. John Traverso and son, Donald, of Alieel, Howard Bishop, of Idaho, Mrs. Josie Day and three children, Lloyd, Francis and Norma and Virgil Traverso, of Alieel.

Members of the N. B. B. club spent a delightful afternoon Thursday when Mrs. Mat Coalcut was hostess at her home on North Fourth street. Flowers were used to decorate the Coalcut home where three tables of bridge were at play.

Mrs. Ernest Walden won high score and was given first prize and the second prize went to Mrs. Edith Williams.

After a two-course luncheon was served the club members held a surprise shower for the hostess. The next meeting of the club will be Thursday, Oct. 14, at the home of Mrs. Nellie Spencer.

Auxiliary Program Enjoyed by Members

On last Tuesday evening the Young Women's Educational auxiliary met in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church. The room was decorated in circus style, with multicolored balloons and streamers. The program topic was "From the Spice Box" and each member number was announced by little Margaret Dixon, who popped out of an enormous spice box with a sign announcing the numbers.

A short business meeting, presided over by the president, Miss Mima Cooper, preceded the program, which was opened by a hymn led by Mrs. Sherwood Williams. This was followed by a vocal duet by Miss Cooper and Mrs. Claude Cooper, a violin solo by Mrs. Ruth Linnam, accompanied by Mrs. H. N. Ashby, a piano solo by Miss Dorothy Pleasants and a fancy dance by Mrs. Hazel Landry and Miss Arta Varsity.

An intermission followed, during which refreshments appropriate to the "circus" theme were served, and Mrs. Tom Walstinger announced the "aftershow." Following this the orchestra, in a variety of costumes and more than a variety of instruments, filled in and took their places. The orchestra was directed by Miss Bertha Walstinger and their musical efforts met with applause.

The closing number of the program was a tableau offering of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," between each scene of which another orchestral number was rendered. The first scene presented Topsy, who was given a lively characterization by Mrs. Rose Curry. The second act showed Eliza, Mrs. Eugene Millering, pursued across blocks of ice by Legree, Mrs. Sherwood Williams. The third scene was at the deathbed of little Eva, Annetta Johnson, where Topsy and Uncle Tom, Mrs. Lola Hutchens, were convincingly grief-stricken.

Each member present at the meeting was presented with a program which gave the various acts, musical and musical selections, and was illustrated with pictures of the characters. Miss Mabel Dohy, as the "chorus" read the story of the play in verse.

After the program, pink lemonade was served from a decorated booth. The auxiliary for the first time used the new stage which they have purchased and installed in the basement of the church and which promises to be a very welcome addition.

The committee in charge of the meeting was headed by Miss Mae Stearns. Her assistants were Miss Lola Gaskill, Mrs. H. E. Richey, Mrs. E. F. Heasler, Mrs. Albert Hermann, Mrs. Lola Hutchens, Miss Lulu McNeese, Mrs. A. W. Nelson and Mrs. Rose Curry. The committee, with Miss Edith Salder, Mima Cooper and Mrs. Claude Cooper, composed the orchestra.

Members of the Soangetaha chapter of Campfire girls met at the home of their assistant guardian, Mrs. George S. Birle Thursday afternoon and discussed the organization of several new campfire girl groups in the city. Plans were for the girls to go to Cove, but because the day was quite cold they remained in the city and held their meeting at the Birle home instead.

The idea of admitting several new members to Soangetaha chapter was also discussed.

Members of the chapter held a candy bar sale at the high school last Wednesday, which was successful. Plans are to have another sale next Friday. Mildred Bradshaw and Margaret Banks are members of the committee in charge.

The campfire girls will meet next Thursday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock in the domestic science department of the high school.

Arrangements are being made for the organization of several campfire girl groups of Riveria school girls. Miss Myrtle Hoyt, a teacher in that school, will probably be guardian for one group. Others have not yet been chosen.

Pastor and Wife Welcomed to City

About 60 members and friends of the Lutheran church, including several pastors from other churches, gathered in the parlors of the Lutheran church last evening for a reception welcoming the Rev. Laif H. Aves and his family to La Grande. The Rev. Mr. Aves came here from Portland three weeks ago as pastor of the English Lutheran church here.

The following program was given during the evening: Vocal solo by Miss Lina Lottes, "In the Garden of Tomorrow" and as an encore song "A Voice That Calls at Evening." Short talks were given by the Rev. George Albert Polard, the Rev. Hail K. Wallis, of Island City, the Rev. William Crosby Ross and the Rev. C. V. Dunn. Mrs. Dunn also spoke a few words of welcome in behalf of the ministers' wives. Both the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Aves responded. The program closed with a vocal number by Miss Anna Lottes, "To Live and Love Again," and as an encore sang "The End of a Perfect Day." Mrs. L. J. Elbert announced the program numbers.

Light refreshments were served by a committee from the Ladies Aid society, headed by Mrs. Frank Hanson, following the program. Everyone present brought something in the way of canned fruit or jelly and at the end of the evening these were presented as a surprise to the Aves family, for which they expressed their hearty thanks.

Announcements

Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any function such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. —News editor's note.

Thanks. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Aves arrived here after the concluding season was over.

Mrs. H. E. Coolidge will be hostess to the members of the Monday Bridge club Monday afternoon with a luncheon at 1:15 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church will meet Thursday, Oct. 14, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Oscar Thompson, 2907 Seventh street.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST — Grapes, cereal, thin cream, soft cooked eggs, bran and raisin muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Cream of celery soup, toasted crackers, spinach and egg salad, toasted rice muffins, baked apples with rice pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER — Boiled lamb chops, baked potatoes, creamed lima beans, stuffed tomato salad, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

These are simple, nourishing menus for the entire family. No extra dishes need be prepared for small persons, nor must they be denied any particular dish.

The luncheon dessert is quite hearty and more suitable for luncheon than dinner.

Baked Apples with Rice Pudding — Five tart apples, 1/2 cup rice, 2 cups milk, 3 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup seedless raisins, 4 tablespoons tiny red cinnamon candies, 2 tablespoons powdered sugar.

Wash rice through many waters and cook in slightly salted boiling water for 20 minutes. Let water cook away. Beat 2 whole eggs and 1 yolk until light. Add sugar, milk and vanilla and continue beating. Add to rice with raisins and stir well. Pare apples and remove cores. Arrange in a buttered baking dish and fill cavities with cinnamon candies. Pour rice custard around apples and bake in a moderate oven until apples are tender and custard is firm to the touch. Remove from oven and cover with remaining white of egg beaten until stiff and dry with powdered sugar. Put into a slow oven for eight minutes to puff and brown the meringue. Serve warm or cold with or without whipped cream.

PUTMAN'S

—La Grande's Exclusive—
Ready to Wear and Millinery

out whipped cream. (Copyright, 1926, N.E.A. Service Inc.) Rubber heels for horsehoes are The lion's mane and ruff serve a recent innovation to protect to protect its neck when it is at horses from rattaplanes.

For Credit

CARR'S

No Interest

Don't Wash At Home

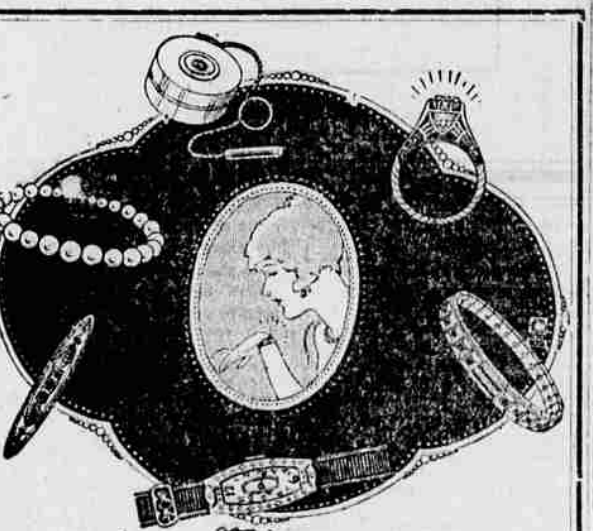

We can save you the work and drudgery of doing your own washing and the cost is very small.

TRY OUR ECONOMICAL FAMILY WASH

next week. You will be more than pleased.

Standard Laundry Co.

QUALITY CLEANERS
Phone Main 56

What If It Were Brass Underneath?

It's natural that you Should adore pretty Jewelry—should love to Possess the stunning new Things—but of course You're not a jewelry Expert—so the safe As well as the stylish Thing is to be sure The box carries the Name of "Siegrist & Co." Which is always the Recognized guarantee Of utmost quality.

SIEGRIST & CO.

"Largest Jewelry Store in Eastern Oregon"

The Cheer of Your Porch Light

The brilliant PORCH LIGHT at night is the messenger of cheer.

Help radiate that cheer in your block. Burn your porch light at night.

The cost is insignificant; for under our regular rate it costs you only 1/4¢ per hour to burn a 25-watt lamp.

A Light All Night For Two Cents.

Always at your Service

Eastern Oregon Light & Power Co.