23 GROUPS TO CAMPAIGN FOR ARMY

which he discussed in detail the cost of the building. If the bill passes one half of the $30,000—the cost of the armory—will be furnished by the state. The American Legion already has $12,000 in its treasury for that purpose, which leaves $18,000 to be raised, one-twentieth of which would be payable by the taxpayers of the city for the next 20 years, or 35 cents for $100 assessed valuation, based on the present assessed valuation, which may mean a decrease during the 20 years time. Any money raised by the national guard equipment or other means and added to the $12,000 already on hand may decrease the maximum of 25 cents on every $100 also.

Others Speak—George T. Cochran discussed the values and costs of the building and other talks were all favorable for the armory. A. J. Stango, Mrs. A. T. Hill, J. J. Williams, James Moss and Miss Ellledge were among those who talked.

Fifteen women were among the 50 persons present. The organizations represented were: the La Grande realty board, Elks today, American Legion, national guard, Union Pacific Athletic club, Ku Klux Klan, Odd Fellows lodge, Hebechahs, American Legion auxiliary, Spanish American War veterans and women's auxiliary, P. E. O. chapter, Central Parents-Teacher council, Rotary club, Order of railway conductors, Jolly pipers, high school student body, Grand Army of the Republic, Hi Dads, Daughters of the American Revolution, Knights of Columbus and Chamber of commerce.

Accused Woman Seeking Speedy Trial by Jury

TILLAMOOK, Ore., Oct. 13. (AP)—Attorneys representing Mrs. Eva N. McGee, charged with first degree murder in connection with the death of her husband Dr. W. O. McGee, today continued efforts to raise $25,000 bail. In the meantime Mrs. McGee who is in the custody of the sheriff here, was in a hazy frame of mind, having recovered from the shock of learning that she had been indicted. Late yesterday she entered a plea of not guilty.

Her good friends began to return after many of her friends called upon her. She admonished them to smile and herself set the example. "The thought of this notoriety upset me," she said. "But now I find my friends all are smiling by me and my loved ones have come here to help me. I don't like to look at me on the front page but I see I am on the front page with the queen of Hinnahua."

Attorney Callahan, one of Mrs. McGee's counsel, said today the defense would demand a speedy trial. "We suppose they have evidence that Mrs. McGee purchased some poison. Well, what if they have? Nearly everybody buys this poison for some purpose or other." The indictment upon which Mrs. McGee was arrested Monday reads: "That Mrs. Eva McGee did on the tenth day of August, 1926, unlawfully and premeditated murder kill one W. O. McGee by administering to him poison whereby the said W. O. McGee died on the seventeenth day of August, 1926."
