Neighborhood Club To Honor Teachers

Invitations have been received by the La Grande women teachers and wives of men on the faculty for a complimentary tea that will be given at Honan hall at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon by the members of the Neighborhood Club.

Mrs. Robert S. Eakin, hostess, president, will voice a welcome when the 25 guests have been received by the tea committee, which are: Mrs. Oscar Pearce, chairman, and Mesdames Henry Hill, W. Nowland, Leo Reynolds, Myrtle O'Neil, Grace Miller, W. P. McAdory, W. H. Perry, H. E. Dixon, Oliver Riley, R. P. Tyler, H. P. Landis, Thomas Waldinger, E. P. Mossman, and Misses Fannie Sommer and Gladys Miller.

Bridge will be played by those who care for cards. Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Nowland, Mrs. Miller and Miss Sommer arranging the tables. For others who prefer to pass the time with needlework, a Kensington will be provided by Mrs. Tyler and Mrs. Seltz.

Following Mrs. Eakin's welcoming address, the guests will be entertained with the following numbers: dancing, Jane Stang, and Gilda Ashley; readings, Miss Zella Pearl and Miss Ruth Johnson, and vocal selections, Mrs. A. L. Richardson.

The club colors, yellow and white, are to be carried out in bouquets for decoration. Tea will be served in the dining room, with all 16 members of the committee caring for the pleasure of their guests.

The teachers' tea committee has worked under chairmanship of Mrs. Colon B. Eberhard until this week, when she was called to Joseph by the illness and death of her father.

The Parkdale club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred G. Henning, on Adams avenue with Mrs. Kate Hanley and Mrs. Homer Wilson as assistant hostesses. Because Mrs. Charles Gump, president of the club, was away and the secretary, Mrs. Lloyd Pierce, was unable to be there no business session was held.

An impromptu program was given, after which the afternoon was devoted to visiting. The hostesses served a two-course luncheon.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Ed Hughes, with Mrs. George Hymanson and Mrs. Lupton assisting her.

Lucky Thirteen Club Entertained

With Mrs. E. T. Andrews as hostess at her home on Pennsylvania avenue, members of the Lucky Thirteen club met yesterday afternoon for the first time this season. A luncheon at 1:15 o'clock was followed by bridge with Mrs. Walter H. Guild winning high score.

Bouquets of asters in rose and white served as a centerpiece for each of the three small luncheon tables, where the card games were afterwards at play.

Mrs. Arthur Bowen still is hostess to the club at the next meeting.

ing which will be Oct. 28.

The Alpha club, scheduled to meet yesterday at the home of Mrs. C. S. Moore, instead convened at the home of Mrs. William Sigelst, Mrs. Moore being unable to entertain.

Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. Adolph Sigelst winning high score. Bouquets of the season's flowers were arranged about the rooms, forming a background for the card games and two-course luncheon which followed.

Society Meets With Mrs. Graham

With Mrs. H. A. Fox as leader, the Women's society of the First Baptist church enjoyed a missionary program yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lucy Graham. The study was the fourth chapter of "Our Templed Hills" by Ralph Fulton.

Miss Louise Handrup, elementary director of the Oregon Baptist convention, was the guest of the society and during the afternoon explained the standard of excellence chart, which the women are using in their work. Miss Handrup has been meeting with the various organizations of the local church this week, having been here since Monday. She left this morning for Baker.

Preceding the afternoon's program Mrs. William Shado, president of the society, presided over a short business meeting. A special-missionary offering was taken, and a dish shower for the church was generously responded to.

Plans were made for the regular monthly dinner given by the Women's society which will be held in the church basement Friday evening, Oct. 22, from 5:20 until 7:30 o'clock.

The hostess served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed before adjournment.

Twenty women attended the meeting of the Lutheran Ladies' aid yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oscar Thompson. A short business meeting, presided over by Mrs. N. Nelson, president, preceded the program. The Rev. L. H. Aves, new pastor of the church, sang a solo and Mrs. Frank Hansen and Mrs. Ambrose Wright sang a duet number.

During the social hour after the program the hostess served refreshments.

Eighteen members of the Altar society of the Catholic church attended the regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. L. Munhall on First street. Mrs. E. L. Meyers, president of the society, presided over the business meeting. A rummage sale to be given Oct. 23 was discussed.

Refreshments were served by the hostess before adjournment.

UNION (Special).—Mrs. Raymond Little entertained the members of the Presbyterian Ladies' society Saturday afternoon at her home in North Union. A social hour and refreshments followed the regular routine of business.

UNION (Special).—Mrs. Louis Bender was hostess Tuesday afternoon at her home here, to the special guild. The regular business meeting was followed by several tables of bridge. Refreshments were served by the hostess before adjournment.

Party Compliments Natal Anniversary

Honoring the birthday anniversary of their sons, Knoll Geist and Carl Heidel, both 13, Mrs. Myrtle Geist and Mrs. E. Heidel entertained nine boys at a theater party last evening.

The boys attended the Arcade, where "Three Bad Men" was showing, after which they were taken to the Mrs. Geist apartment in the Foley building, where games, music and refreshments were enjoyed.

Autumn flowers served as a centerpiece for the table. Many Halloween ideas were carried out in the other decorations, which were in black and orange. At each place a favor, giving the fortune of each one present and a Halloween gift on the inside, was found.

Father's night will be observed this evening when the Greenwood Parent-Teacher association will meet at 7:30 o'clock at the school. Once each year a night meeting of the association is held, when a special invitation is extended to the fathers of the school children to attend.

A sponsor favoring the Eastern Oregon normal school bill will be on the program, besides a report from representatives of the citizens' armory committee. Other questions of importance will also be discussed.

The room having the most parents present will be awarded the picture for this month.

Members of the newly organized social club to the Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen met for the first time since their organization Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. D. Warner, on Washington avenue, with Mrs. Warner and Mrs. E. C. Coughenour as hostesses.

The rooms were decorated in the Halloween colors. In addition to these symbols bouquets of autumn flowers were used.

Contest games, appropriate for this season of the year, were enjoyed with Mrs. Ralph Bidcock, Mrs. Jack Hiatt, Miss Gladys Waldorf and Mrs. Mary Waldorf winning prizes.

The hostesses served refreshments before the guests departed at midnight.

Announcements
Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any function such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock.—News editor's note.

Oliver P. Morton Relief Corps No. 27 will serve dinner to the G. A. R. veterans tomorrow at noon at the K. P. hall. The regular business meeting of the corps will follow.

Because of Judge Ben Lindsay's appearance here on Tuesday night of next week the regular meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen scheduled for that evening has been postponed until Wednesday night. The meeting will be at Eagles' hall at the regular time, 7:30 o'clock.

Sister Mary Says:
BREAKFAST—Grapefruit juice, bacon and potato omelet, bran muffins, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Scalloped mushrooms, carrot, celery and cabbage salad, peanut butter bread, apple snow, milk, tea.
DINNER—Pot roast of beef, browned potatoes, baked squash, tomato and cross salad, graham bread, vanilla ice cream with fresh fruit, milk, coffee.

The following recipe for scalloped mushrooms is so very much worth while that even if it isn't quite ideal for small children you will want to use it. All the mushroom flavor is found in the dish, a few mushrooms can be "stretched" to serve several persons and the sauce adds much caloric value.

Scalloped Mushrooms
Two cups mushrooms, 2 cups coarse scale bread crumbs, 1/2 cup melted butter, 1/2 teaspoon tobacco sauce, 2 eggs, 2 hard cooked eggs, 1 cup rich milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

Remove stems from mushrooms and peel. Peel caps. Sprinkle gills of each mushroom lightly with salt and pepper and let stand while making sauce. Spread crumbs in a dripping pan and heat in a hot oven. Add tobacco sauce to butter and mix crumbs and butter being sure each crumb is thoroughly coated. Sprinkle a layer of crumbs in a well buttered baking dish. Add a layer of mushrooms cut in thin slices and the sliced white of hard cooked eggs. Continue layer for layer of crumbs and mushrooms until all the mushrooms are used, reserving enough crumbs for the top of the dish. Mash yolks of hard cooked eggs and stir in yolks of raw eggs. Slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper and pour this mixture over the combination in the baking dish. Distribute sauce as evenly as possible while pouring and then shake the dish to be sure the sauce is all through the mixture. Sprinkle top with remaining crumbs, cover dish and bake twenty minutes in a moderately hot oven. Remove cover for five minutes and brown top.

This is the prettiest farm girl in all Kansas, where pretty farm girls are as common as wheat fields. She's Miss Sylvia Glenn, of Van Arsdale, Kas., and with the exception of four years in college she has lived on a farm all her life.

BEAUTY OPERATOR FINED
NEW YORK—A beauty parlor is a barber shop in Brooklyn. A state law makes barber shops close Sundays. The owner of a public-house bazaar, up for violating the law, argued he never cut a man's hair nor shaved a face. "Guilty," said Magistrate Rayfield. "Let the girls do as their mothers did and curl their own hair."

If there's anything in the way of food more distasteful than a cold fried egg we haven't yet tasted it.

NEW LAMP BURNS 91% AIR
Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, V. M. Johnson, 151 North Union ave., Portland, Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.
