AT THE THEATERS

Snappy Vaudeville Bill Promised For Sunday

A company of versatile players are offering something new in vaudeville. A fantasy of dance-land, eccentric comedians, comedy novelty jugglers, singing, dancing, and music are dovetailed at the Arcade theatre on Sunday.

Marie Martel & Roy Friends are the leading attraction in "A Fantasy of Dance-land," offering a diversified entertainment. Lynn & Una Wesley in "The Village Vamp" offer eccentric hick comedy full of laughable situations, singing, and a little dancing. Childs & Day in "Home from School" present another comedy offering that will amuse. Tom & Jerry Stern, the two old favorites with a kick of mirth and melody, are twins and it will keep you guessing to tell which is Tom and which is Jerry. Arthur & Partner in "The Downfall of China" is a comedy juggling act.

Bob Custer In "Ridin' Streak" At Sherrys

A splendidly filmed pony express race, with the riders relaying from one horse to another just as they did it in the lurid days of two thousand mile jumps across the burning, Indian-infested plains, is one of the vivid features that makes "The Ridin' Streak" a great western picture. William Oliver wrote the story, and Del Andrews directed it. The young Texas ranger gives his usual fine performance, and he is ably supported by a splendid cast. The comedy side of the picture has been well developed in the characters of Holloper and Plaster. Part two ludicrous "cult" folk of big pretensions and real humorous aspect. In addition to the pony express race, for a purpose of $5,000, which is won by Custer, there is a lot of suspense in "The Ridin' Streak" and some excellent characterization. The production made for and released by F. B. O. comes to the Sherry theatre tonight only. Comedy showing, "Pool's Luck."

Doris Kenyon Registers Hit In "Mismates"

"Mismates," a First National picture of unusual merit, is the feature Sunday and Monday at the Star theatre, with Doris Kenyon and Warner Baxter in the featured roles. This is an unusual picture in many ways. First the story is a gripping one and has a wide appeal. It is beautifully photographed, well directed, and the acting is beyond criticism.

First National officials who cast this picture knew their business. Then there is some of the most gorgeous spectacle in it that one could see on the screen. There is a dancing jewel parade. There is a banquet hall scene that is simply amazing in its brilliance.

Doris Kenyon does the best work of her screen career in this picture. Warner Baxter is splendid in his role. Philo McCullough as the heavy has what we consider the finest role of his career. Mae Allison is, as always, delightfully charming. Charles Murray is as funny as ever. Little Nancy Kelley who plays the part of a three-year-old boy, seems to be another child find for the screen. She is a finished actress. John Kolb, Maude

Turner Gordon, Cyril Ring, Charles Hoyer and others are all good. But Doris Kenyon stands out in this picture as one of the finest actresses of the screen. Her emotional acting is superb. A comedy is also being shown.

PN-9 Shown in Picture Coming To Sherrys

The magnificent drama and epochal triumph of the famous P. N. 9 in its hop to Hawaii, has been immortalized by Emory Johnson in his latest and most spectacular melodrama, "The Non-Stop Flight," which comes to Sherry's Sunday. Nothing which the genius of this great young producer-director has ever touched has proved such a rich source of entertainment as this. Emory Johnson, who wrote the story, has woven around the exploits of the gallant navy crew a remarkable tale of glorious adventure. A lovely romance, and some of the best comedy seen in a long time, have been injected into the story, and the P. N. 9 itself is seen in the picture. Furthermore, Director Johnson has received the support of the whole Pacific battle fleet of the U. S. navy, and he has made the most of this tremendous material in the biggest picture he has ever turned out for F. B. O. "The Third Alarm," "In the Name of the Law," "The Last Edition" and all his previous successes take second place after this production, in the opinion of qualified critics who have seen the picture.

Comedy showing, "Going Crazy." The practice of racing the engine and then letting in the clutch will result in serious damage to the rear end and force the clutch plates to slip and burn. Coasting down a steep hill and suddenly letting in the clutch, in order to permit the engine to slow down the car, is just as harmful. The thing to do after coasting is to speed up the engine before clutching.

What's in a name? Well, Abe Hazzard was arrested the other day in Pennsylvania with a wagon load of purloined poultry.

CHAMPION ON MARKET

Phymere King Fobes, famed herd sire of the Hot Lake Sanatorium registered Holstein Freisian purebreds, is on the market. We will either sell him or trade for sheep, hogs or beef cattle.

"King" has repeatedly been declared one of the outstanding animals on the coast. He was champion at the 1924 Pacific International, and is a proven sire. He is now in prime condition, tipping the scales at 2500 pounds. Our policy of line-breeding is our only reason for offering him for sale.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Grape juice, ready to serve cereal, thin cream, codfish hash, corn bread, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Baked, succotash, graham bread, peach bavarian cream, milk tea.

DINNER—Fried chicken country style, mashed potatoes, creamed cauliflower, stuffed pimiento salad, whole wheat bread, pumpkin pie, milk, coffee.

The ideal weight for a chicken to fry is about three pounds dressed. A lighter bird is better broiled in quarters while a heavier one must be cooked so long there's danger of dryness and hardness from frying. Disjoint, roll in flour seasoned with salt and pepper and brown each piece quickly on all sides in hot butter and lard. Reduce heat, cover and cook slowly for fifty minutes.

Baked Succotash
One cup cooked green beans, 1 cup cooked lima beans, 1 cup cooked corn cut from the cob, 1 tablespoon minced sweet pepper, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 cup milk, 1 egg, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vinegar.

Combine vegetables. Beat egg well with milk, butter, salt, pepper and sugar. Add to vegetables, mix well and turn into a well buttered baking dish. Bake thirty minutes in a moderate oven.

This is an unusually good way to use up left-over vegetables. All green beans or all limas can be used. Leftover corn on the cob can be cut off and used. And during the winter months canned vegetables may take the place of the fresh ones.

Regardless of the type, kind or make of brakes used on the car, it is well to oil all operating parts regularly, even if it is just a matter of putting a few drops of oil on the threads of the adjusting nuts or on the anchor pins. This will greatly simplify the work of adjusting the brakes or of removing the bands for relining.
