OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

"Golden Cocoon," New Romance, At Sherrys

In the lives of most men and some women, politics plays a very important role. In the lives of most women and some men, romance is of paramount importance and holds the centre of their mental stage. A picture which combines both these interests is "The Golden Cocoon," a Warner Bros. Classic of the screen, which begins a two-day engagement at the Sherry theatre today.

The story is a dramatization of the novel by Ruth Cross, dealing with the problems and adventures of a young girl who comes to a large college from her small country town, where she finds happiness after much suffering and humiliation, only to be faced with the necessity of sacrificing it all for her husband.

Helene Chadwick has the leading role of Mollie Shannon, the ambitious and brilliant young heroine who shows the strength of a woman's devotion to the man she loves. Huntley Gordon plays the husband, a man who seems made to comfort and protect all woman-kind; while Richard Tucker shares villainous honors with Frank Campana.

Others in the cast are Margaret Seddon, Carrie Clark Ward, Charles McHugh and Violet Kane, under the capable direction of Milford Webb. The well-known scenario team of Hope Loring and Louis Lighton prepared the scenario, and Byron Haskins was the photographer.

Comedy showing "Vamping Babies".

"Waning Sex" At Star Is Full of Comedy

"The Waning Sex," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture starring Norma Shearer, from the Broadway stage success of the same name by Frederic and Fanny Hatton, which is playing at the Star theatre today and Thursday is a picture exactly suited to the taste and requirements of the discriminating picture-goer.

It is a comedy with a snap and sparkle, an exhilarating, zealous tempo, and it even has plot, not with an artificial heaviness, but well-balanced and interesting.

Norma Shearer has the role of a successful woman lawyer, while Conrad Nagel, her leading man, is cast as the rising young district attorney who is in love with her. She is really in love with him but she is a modern-day woman whose independence is as precious to her as a man's is to him, and she is a bit wary of matrimonial gestures.

The "other girl," played by Mary McAlister, happens to be a shrewd little schemer, who is determined to snare him as a husband, and her wiles are not easily discounted, when they comprise a cozy cottage, a wonderful meal, cushioned couches shaded lamps, etc., etc.

Side by side with the adult romance of the film marches the puppy love of the young sister and brother of each of the principals.

There isn't a dull second in "The Waning Sex." This film can be safely called one of the brightest and liveliest comedy dramas that have ever reached the screen. Robert Z. Leonard, the director, has advanced his profession another distinct notch.

"The Perils of Petersburg" starring Alice Day will be the fun attraction on the bill. It is Mack Sennett's latest in screen humor, and is heralded as being an unusually good comedy.

Moist or Dry, "Old Soak" Carries Appeal

Prohibitionists and wets alike will enjoy the mellow humor of "The Old Soak," which is at the Arcade theatre today and Thursday with Joan Herdahl in the starring role.

In this screen version of Don Marquis famous play which ran two years in New York no dramatic position on the liquor problem is taken by the director. Not once were we conscious of any attempt to point out glaring evils of drinking. And, on the other hand, we did not see any propaganda of either a wet or a dry nature.

Joan Herdahl, in her first starring role, gives an excellent interpretation of an old man who has been addicted to liquor all his life. Trouble occurs in the family and the old man proves his integrity of character by shouldering the

WHEN WE THINK THE OTHER FELLOW KNOWS

Some people would be far better off if they used their own judgment rather than placing so much confidence in the judgment of the other fellow. The lack of self confidence has cost many a man a considerable sum. If we were able to think as fast as the other fellow can talk, like other fellow would save us money.
