American Home Department of Club in Session

A program of much interest was given yesterday afternoon when 26 members of the La Grande Neighborhood Club interested in the American Home Department met in the club rooms for the first time since the beginning of the club year.

Mrs. Lloyd Pierce, chairman of the department this year, presided over a short business meeting, with Mrs. F. L. Ralston in the secretary's chair.

Two features of interest to every homemaker in the city were discussed by Mrs. A. T. Hill and Mrs. C. S. Moore, who had charge of the afternoon's program.

Mrs. Hill's subject was "What we can know about interior decorating in our homes." She began with the kitchen of her home, telling of the color scheme used, how to make the cupboards most attractive, and went from there through every room of her house, giving many ideas about interior decorating. She ended her report by singing "Home Sweet Home."

Mrs. Moore told of the history of Oriental rugs, how they are made and where. She also told how to buy the different types of rugs and how to take care of them.

The home department will meet once each month during the fall and winter months and all interested are welcome to attend.

Past Matron's club of Hope chapter, No. 13, Order of the Eastern Star were entertained Wednesday evening at the Masonic parlors by Mrs. C. W. Noyes and Mrs. Anna Bacon. After the business session a social hour was enjoyed around the fireplace. The guests were then invited to the dining room, which was decorated in an orange and black color scheme in keeping with the Halloween season, where a two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. W. S. Harer Is Hostess to Club

With the members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club as her guests Mrs. W. S. Harer was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on Cedar street.

The rooms were decorated for the party in a yellow and black color scheme, a bouquet of yellow pompons serving as a centerpiece for the luncheon table. Covers were laid for 12.

After luncheon three tables of bridge were arranged. Mrs. Walter C. Franzen won high score and was given the prize.

Honoring Mrs. Everett Keown on her birthday anniversary Mrs. Parley Pece catered at a bridge party yesterday afternoon at her home on Adams avenue.

Three tables were at play with Mrs. Ray Albert winning high score. Mrs. Jack Blatt received the second prize and the consolation prize went to Mrs. A. Heriman.

The card games were followed by a two-course luncheon.

W. R. C. Official Welcomed Here

About 60 persons—members and visitors of Oliver P. Morton Relief Corps, No. 37—gathered at the K. P. hall yesterday afternoon for the special meeting called for inspection by Mrs. Minna Slattery, department president, of Eugene, Ore.

Only one officer of the local corps was absent and the state officer complimented the organization on their work. After the inspection she addressed those present, telling of the national convention held at Des Moines, Ia., which she attended. Mrs. Edith Mason Christy was made national president at that time.

Six members of Preston Relief Corps No. 22, of Union, were present for the meeting. They were: Mrs. C. L. Scott, president of the Union corps; Mrs. O. J. Skiff, Mrs. N. Schoonover, Mrs. Fieble, Mrs. Ballard and Mrs. Shaw.

Before the close of the meeting Mrs. Slattery was presented with a silver sandwich plate by the members of the local corps. Mrs. Laura Braden, president, made the presentation and the department president responded, thanking the corps members.

Refreshments were served late in the afternoon.

On Wednesday afternoon five members of Oliver P. Morton post went to Union when Mrs. Slattery met with the relief corps members of that city.

Mrs. Harry Turner, Mrs. Laura Braden, Mrs. S. S. Nye, Mrs. Francis Plank and Mrs. Della Gates were the women who attended the Union meeting. They were accompanied to La Grande by Mrs. Slattery, who was the guest of Mrs. Braden while here.

Local Attorney Weds in Portland

PORTLAND, Ore. (Special).—Of much interest here is news of the marriage Wednesday afternoon of Miss Winifred Crowther and Stanton W. Allison, son of Mrs. J. N. Allison and the late Brigadier General Allison. Both young people are prominent here.

The bride is formerly from England and is a member of a family known for years in musical circles. She is a niece of Carl Denton, Portland musician. Allison is the grandson of the late Judge J. W. Whalley. He is a graduate of the Columbia university and the Columbia school of law and is now a member of the firm of Ivanhoe & Allison in La Grande, with which Colonel F. S. Ivanhoe is associated. Allison is an officer of the reserve corps of the air service.

The wedding was held at the pro-cathedral of St. Stevens, Dean H. M. Hanney officiating. Only members of the family were present. Attendants were Miss Agnes Crowther, the bride's sister, and Stoddard Lawson.

The couple will reside in La Grande.

Members of the Swastika Bridge club were guests last evening when Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perry entertained at their home on O. avenue. Mrs. Herbert Pattison won high score at bridge among the women club members. Will Gable received the men's club prize, and the guest prize went to Mrs. John Colvin.

A yellow and black color scheme conforming with the Halloween season, was used to decorate the home. A two-course luncheon was enjoyed following the card games.

We are awfully glad the good weather keeps up as that means lots of sales in our paint and oil. An order came in yesterday—25 gallons of white paint from some parties in Nampa, Idaho. We make lots of shipments, not only to the neighboring towns but to towns at quite a distance. Just think, the other day we sold a roll of roofing to a party way over in Walla Walla. We shipped 25 paint brushes up the line the other day. When you consider that you can buy a paint brush here as cheap as you can at the mail order houses, then it is no wonder people buy them. We have a few more glass doors for $2.65 each. We put in window glass if you bring your old sash. We have a nice bunch of tamarack fence posts coming next week. The farmer said he sure would bring them in if it didn't rain too hard. You can have them for the apiece.

Mrs. Coughenower Entertains Club

Mrs. E. C. Coughenower was hostess to the members of the N. B. R. club yesterday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue. Autumn flowers and leaves in a variety of colors were arranged about the room.

Bridge at three tables was the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. Mat Coalwell winning high score. Mrs. Kibel Smith received the second prize and a guest prize was given to Mrs. Lester Bramwell.

A two-course luncheon was served after the card games.

Mrs. Boyd Pickcock will be hostess to the club next week.

Autumn leaves and Halloween symbols were used to decorate the home of Mrs. Frank Robinson last evening when she was hostess to the members of the Jolly Bridge club at her home on Washington avenue.

Three tables were at play with Mrs. T. R. Maxwell winning high score. Mrs. Ed Stravens received the consolation prize.

At the close of the evening a two-course luncheon was served.

Pendleton Women To Present Play

The Westminster society is extending a general invitation to its meeting at the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock Monday evening, when a group of Pendleton women will present the play they recently gave for the synodical meeting in Umatilla county.

The play is entitled "The Two Masters" and eight women of the Pendleton society will take part. Mrs. H. E. McIntyre, the director, is also a dramatic reader, and will entertain with a selection of two. Mrs. J. A. Tedford will play piano numbers, and the Westminster quartet will sing.

After the program there will be a reception for the Pendleton visitors in the community room.

Plans were made for an all-day meeting and reception honoring Mrs. Steen Ward, worthy grand vice president, yesterday afternoon when a special meeting of the Ladies' society of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Coleman.

Mrs. Ward is from Sparks, Nev. She will arrive here Monday morning.

About 25 members of the Relief society of the Latter Day-Saints church met last evening in the tabernacle for their regular monthly literary lesson. The poet, Robert Frost, was the subject for the meeting. Mrs. C. J. Black gave the history of his life and told something of his works, after which various members of the society recited some of his poems. Mrs. Clyde Metcalf gave "The Death of the Hired Man," one of Frost's well known poems. Mrs. Wilford Johnson gave "The Hittaway," Mrs. Harry Tractor recited "To Earthward" and Mrs. Emma Stringham gave "The Peaceful Shepherd."

Mrs. Earl Zundel gave a synopsis of his life, after which she recited several of his smaller poems.

Members of the relief society have a meeting of this kind once every month. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Back Again

The showy tuxedo on the dinner jacket is regaining its vogue both in London and New York, observers report.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Grapefruit, cereal, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, creamed rice with eggs, cornmeal waffles, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Macaroni souffle broiled tomatoes, prune whip with hot custard, bean rolls, milk, tea.

DINNER—Roast veal, potatoes baked with meat, brown gravy, creamed onions, head lettuce with chichonade dressing, whole wheat bread, carrot tarts, milk, coffee.

While this luncheon menu is suitable for the home folks of all ages it's also worth keeping in mind for a company menu. So often a friend "drops in" just for an informal noon meal and we want something not a bit elaborate or fussy but just a little different from the usual chop and potatoes-au-gratin.

The dish is most attractive served on a large chop plate surrounded by overlapping slices of broiled tomatoes, garnished with sprigs of parsley.

Macaroni Souffle

One and one-quarter cups macaroni broken in inch pieces, 1 cup hot milk, 1 cup bread crumbs from soft part of loaf, 1 cup grated cheese, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 2 tablespoons minced sweet red peppers, 2 tablespoons minced sweet green pepper, 4 eggs.

Cook macaroni in three quarts rapidly boiling salted water for 20 minutes or until tender. Drain and rinse in cold water.

Mix all the ingredients except the eggs. Beat yolks of eggs until thick and lemon colored and stir into first mixture. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry and fold into mixture. Pour into a well buttered baking dish and place in a large pan of hot water. Bake 50 minutes in a moderately
