MEWAN EXPECTS STANFORD WIN

Oregon Coach Pessimistic of Chances—Vidal Is Hopeful

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 22 (AP)—The Stanford Cardinals swing in to their conference schedule here today in the first conference appearance of the big red team. The Stanford squad of 26 players and Coach Warner, arrived late yesterday for their invasion of the north.

The red skirts of California have never yet failed before the onslaught of Oregon, and though Coach Vidal, webfoot backfield coach, believes his men have a fair chance to win today, John J. Mewan, head coach, is not so optimistic.

"Stanford has a fine team," he said last night. "A powerful and clever team. It uses just the type of plays which will work to best effect against Oregon's weak spots. Though we have done our best to bolster these weak spots, injuries have practically undone that we have accomplished."

Sam Joseph, of the Cardinals, is expected to start today's game at fullback, but aside from that there will be no change in the lineup. Warner has been using in practice all week.

Center Position in Doubt
The position of center on the Oregon eleven was a problem that worried Coach Mewan last night.

He may start any one of three men, Nick Carter, Carl Johnson or Earl Kippel. Kippel occupied the first-string berth up until three or four nights before the Washington game. He is a better block position just before the fray. Johnson, regular center last season, has been in the line from the start and may get the call.

A ray of hope was emitted from the Webfoot camp last night when it was announced that Ted Pope, first-string relief end, recovered from the light touch of influenza sufficiently to permit him to don a suit for today's game.

Chemawa Indians Lose to Frosh 32-7

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 22 (AP)—The Oregon freshman football eleven had little difficulty running over the Chemawa Indians here yesterday, 32 to 7. The Chemawa eleven led 7 to 6 at the end of the first quarter but the frosh took the lead early in the second period and were never headed.

The outstanding feature of the game was a 75-yard run by Robinson who received a punt and wove his way through the entire Chemawa team for a touchdown.

BEAR STORIES ON AIR BEFORE GRID BATTLE

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22 (AP)—Whitman college and Pacific University tangle in the civic stadium here today in what is regarded as the key game of the north-west college conference, with both teams, according to their coaches fit for the hospital.

Borisako, grid tutor of the Walla Walla team, declares that such of his regulars as have not had leg, arm, fingers, jaws or noses broken have been weakened by an epidemic of influenza that has visited the campus. Coach Frank, of Pacific, telegraphed last night that he would bring his squad to Portland this morning or at least all of it that the doctors will let out of the infirmary.

In spite of these statements the lineup indicates that few important changes will be seen when the rival squads line up in the stadium.

USE TEAR GAS TO QUIET MOB AT ANN ARBOR

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 22 (AP)—Tear gas was used by police last night to break up a student demonstration following a "pop" meeting preliminary to today's Michigan-Illinois football game. The gas was used when several scores of the students, after a "snake" dance, up State street attempted to rush a motion picture theatre.

Upon recovering from the effects of the gas the students followed the officers toward police headquarters hurling eggs, cabbage and other soft missiles en route. Finally a brick was heaved through the glass door of police headquarters and the police gave chase. Six students were held to appear in police court today.

May Shine for Hoosiers

In Richard Garrison, Indiana University rosters believe their school has a coming football star. Garrison plays quarterback, is a heady leader, fast and a clever ball carrier. He's expected to shine in Hoosier games this fall. Garrison comes from Indianapolis where many other Western Conference stars have gained prep school reputations.

Union Eleven to Play at Wallowa

UNION, Ore., Oct. 22 (Special)—The Robert football eleven is going to Wallowa today with the expectation of a victory, but it also expects to have to fight for such a result. Wallowa tied with Powder just a week before Powder defeated Union by one point, but the Union team has been strengthened since that time and if the boys play consistently the dope favors a Union victory.

McKenzie Pass Will Be Closed During Winter

BEND, Ore., Oct. 22—King Winter's siege of the mile-high Cascades, on the route of the McKenzie pass highway over the summit, will not be opposed in the coming season by state companies, by the bureau of public roads or by the state highway commission. It was learned here from forest service officials.

It is the plan of the state company to continue operation of its buses over the high summit until the windy pass is well mantled with snow, and automobile traffic will continue to use the pass road until drifts block the highway. Just how long traffic will continue to use the pass road is problematical—not even a long range weather forecaster daring to make a prediction.

The McKenzie pass road may be blocked to traffic in the next week. In fact, it may be blocked before this week is over, in the wake of the storm which was today sweeping in from the Pacific. Several hundred football fans in Bend are offering prayers to the god of storms that the pass will remain free of deep snow until after today when Stanford and Oregon teams will battle on Hayward field at Eugene.

Inactivity Surprise
 Announcement that the stage company would make no attempt to carry passengers over the summit between Central Oregon and Eugene came as a surprise, for it is known that the rotary snow sled used last winter is resting near the highway at the top of Deadhorse hill. This snow going motor did not prove successful last winter because of a lack of snow on the lava beds.
