Visitors Guests At Dinner Held In Union Hotel

Honoring their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt Connell and Mrs. J. M. Berry, of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. A. L. Richardson, entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at the Union hotel.

Two long tables had been arranged in the dining room and decorated with baskets of pumpkins and other seasonal flowers. Forty guests were seated at 7 o'clock and served a six-course dinner.

After dinner the guests were brought to the Richardson home on O avenue where nine tables of bridge were enjoyed during the remainder of the evening. Dr. Margaret Ingle received high scores among the women players and H. E. Westonbauer received the gentlemen's prize. Guest prizes were presented Mrs. Connell and Mrs. Richardson.

Bouquets of fluffy yellow chrysanthemums were arranged about the living room near the card tables. In the dining room there was a centerpiece of pumpkins of the same color.

Mrs. W. H. Bohmentamp, Jr., assisted the hostess at the home.

Dr. and Mrs. Connell left Thursday morning for Idaho, where they have a large ranch, and will remain there until early in November when they will return to their Portland home. They will probably stop for a short visit here on their way home.

Mrs. Berry is visiting relatives and friends here, of which she has many. She visits La Grande about once every year.

Missionary Tea to Be Held on Oct. 29

An interesting social affair of the autumn season which is looked forward to from year to year by members and friends of the First Presbyterian church is the annual missionary tea, which has been set for Friday afternoon of next week.

The Halloween tea will this year be at the home of Mrs. A. T. Hill, 1408 First street. The hours are from 2:30 o'clock until 5. Assisting Mrs. Hill on the hostess committee are Mrs. W. H. Bohmentamp Jr., Mrs. Robert Eakin, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. W. P. Moor and Mrs. Albert Hunter.

A special program is being arranged for this day. The committee in charge is extending a general invitation to members and friends to attend.

The Ladies of Modestheart Legion met this week at the home of Mrs. Don Shanks. Nine members and two visitors, Miss Beulah Shanks and Miss Bernice Cass, were present.

Mrs. Clara Berger assisted the hostess in serving refreshments before adjournment.

Church Women Are Dinner Hostesses

The mothers and other members of the Island City Community church of Island City entertained the daughters and the teachers in the school there at a luncheon recently.

Mrs. Wilbur Zurbick headed the committee in charge of the party and her assistants were Mrs. Everett Walsinger and Mrs. Lee Smith.

Covers were laid for 35 persons around the long banquet tables, decorated with bouquets of autumn flowers.

Miss Sarah Williamson, one of the teachers, provided an toastmaster and gave a toast. "What are we here for if not to make life less difficult for others?" Mrs. Hall K. Wattle gave a toast to "Girlhood" and Miss Hilda Bookland responded.

Two musical numbers were a part of the program also. Miss Ruth Irwin sang a solo and Miss Vera Case played a piano selection.

Entertains at Hallowe'en Party

Mrs. Richard C. Thomas entertained 10 children at a Hallowe'en party at her home.

Members of the Associated Girl students of the high school enjoyed a Hallowe'en matinee dance Thursday afternoon after school hours in the high school gymnasium.

Crispe paper streamers in the Hallowe'en colors were used to decorate the room, where 125 girls danced and played games for two hours.

Miss Ruth Irwin sang, accompanied by Miss Edna Gekler at the piano; Miss Effie Blanchard played a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Wilecek, and Miss Lois Nelson also played a piano solo.

Hallowe'en refreshments—cider, doughnuts and orange and black mints—were served.

The party was in charge of Miss Trillian Ashby, chairman of the entertainment committee, and her committee members.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Baked apples, rolled oats, thin cream, bacon and potato omelet, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Tomato cups, olive and cream cheese sandwiches, molasses cookies, sliced bananas, milk, tea.

DINNER—Cream of celery soup, toasted crackers, pan-broiled pork chops, mashed and baked sweet potatoes, buttered spinach, stuffed fresh pear salad, whole wheat rolls, dresden pickle, milk, coffee.

The pliancy of the home-made pickle suggested in the dinner menu will be most welcome with the pork chops. The peas are stuffed with a mixture of cream cheese and peanut butter made moist with mayonnaise.

Mince the olives for the luncheon sandwiches and make the mixture of olives and cheese quite moist with mayonnaise. Use with crisp leaves of lettuce between whole wheat bread.

TOMATO CUPS
Two large tomatoes, 4 rounds buttered bread, 1/2 cup minced fresh mushrooms, 1 tablespoon butter, 3 thin slices bacon, buttered crumbs, salt and pepper.
Wash tomatoes and cut in halves crosswise. Scoop out centers and put the pulp in a bowl. Make a slight depression in each slice of bread and place a tomato half cut side up, in the hollow. Melt butter, add minced mushrooms and simmer five minutes. Add with the butter to the tomato pulp. Season lightly with salt and pepper and fill tomatoes with the mixture. Sprinkle with butter crumbs and put into a hot oven for 10 minutes. Then put two slices of bacon over the top of each tomato and bake until the bacon is crisp and the bread toasted. Serve at once.

For anyone that wants this, we have a good supply of Coast fir finished lumber. Floorboards, back boards, picture moulds, vertical grained flooring and such like. We sell many truckloads of lumber into Union, Cove, Alced, Sunnerville, Kamela, and the Sunset Inn also buys building material and paint from us. There are some mighty good folks over at Union and the people around Inhaber are just as friendly as magpies. The Cove folks have some mighty good singers and that probably accounts for their prosperity and happiness. Island City is noted for log raising and boiler bees. About the best thing we can say about La Grande is that Claude C. Pratt opened up a retail lumber yard and knocked the high prices to the time before the war.

The Value of a Watch Guarantee
Is worth Much or Little
In exact proportion to the Quality of the Watch sold.

There is probably no other word in the English language that carries such a burden of misconception to the buying public as the word "Guarantee" from the lips of unscrupulous dealers in all sorts of merchandise. Too frequently it is used to impress the shopper with the desirability of many watches that are entirely lacking in merit.

As every watch buyer, however, expects a guarantee, every jeweler is prepared to give one of some sort. If the watch offered is worthy, the guarantee is backed by sincerity; but if unworthy it often conforms to the exaggerated expectations of the buyer, and is out an expediency to hasten the sale.

A guarantee must be backed by the right kind of a watch or it will be in repair most of the time. A guarantee on the average commonplace watch must be based largely on hope and the law of averages.

Not so with a Gruen guarantee. This watch we guarantee for a lifetime of service, even under the most trying conditions.
