Girl Hikers on Trip Around the Foothill Road

About 15 girls—members of the La Grande High Hikers club—left here this morning shortly after 5:30 o'clock on a hike around the foothill road, returning to their homes here after ten o'clock.

All members of the Associated Girl Students of the high school are eligible to membership in the hiking club. Miss Flossie Vedder is chairman and Miss Bertha Bantz is assistant chairman. Miss Eleanor Vernon, one of the high school teachers, is advisor.

This is the third year that the club has functioned in the high school here. Hikes are Friday evening or Saturday morning of each week. Plans now are to begin having a regular business meeting once each month.

players to get home and to bed by 9 o'clock.

This morning they dressed down their impatience by re-marking the lines on the field.

Baker Team Arrives.
Baker's squad and an unannounced number of irreplaceable rosters arrived in La Grande by stage about noon.

The Baker team arrived in La Grande today, in excellent spirits as to their chances of victory. The squad is in pretty fair condition.

Coach Gindeman says. Tom Duff has not fully recovered from his car trouble but may be able to start the game.

The following men will probably get into the game: ends, Tom Duff, Landreth and Whittier; tackles, McKim, Ferguson and Makin; guards, Blankenship and Delby; center, York; quarterback, Adrian; halves and full, Hines, George Duff, Thomas and Carson.

publican candidates whose names appear on the ballot to be voted upon Nov. 2, especially the candidates for United States senator and governor of Oregon, Frederick Steiwer and I. L. Patterson. He told of the attempted split in the republican party and the effect it will probably have on the election returns.

Others Speak.
Before Colonel Ivanhoe's talk several republican candidates were called upon by the chairman for a few remarks. Those responding were Jess Burley, candidate for district attorney in Wallowa county; Ernest Johnson, candidate for county commissioner in that county; and Colonel R. Eberhard, of La Grande, candidate for state senator from Union and Wallowa counties. J. H. Pearce, of La Grande, chairman of the Union county republican committee, also gave a short talk.

The tables were interspersed with music. Mr. Collingsworth and Mrs. Jenison appeared in vocal solos. The high school orchestra played several selections.

G. O. P. Optimistic.
Indications are that Steiwer will carry Wallowa county by a pretty safe majority. Mr. Pearce, said this morning. Patterson will probably carry that county also, but not by as large a majority as Steiwer.

Proctor Commanche Doone Arrives Home

Proctor Commanche Doone, by-and-white pointer owned by J. J. Carr and Dr. W. T. Pfy, arrived by express this morning from Boise, where in the recent field trials he defeated Showers of Gold the day before she won the national championship.

Joe, as the pointer is known in kennel parlance, will finish the pleasant season with a work-out in the neighborhood of Huntington tomorrow. Mr. Carr said this morning. He is an eager worker, and takes his commands like a soldier. His owners bought him three years ago from the Fellows kennels at Springfield, Mo.

DAIRY LINES AT LOWER LEVELS

Week-End Trading Finds More or Less Unsettled Condition

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22 (AP).—Week-end trading found local dairy lines at lower levels with the future trend more or less unsettled. After holding steady for several weeks print butter declined a cent today to the 46c level on prints and 47c on cartons.

At the same time local creameries reduced their bids 2c to cream shippers. Butterfat prices now range from 42 to 43c a pound in the country to 41c delivered Portland.

On the dairy exchange standard and prime first cubes are a fraction lower at 40 and 39c respectively. Receipts Friday from the country amounted to 10,996 pounds, with local creameries reporting a make of 14,152 pounds.

Withdrawals from storage yesterday totaled 16,606 pounds, leaving a balance of 298,791 pounds, a surplus far in excess of cooler holdings a year ago.

Feeling is mixed in the fresh egg market. There is a good call for top grades, and extras are steady at 50c, but firsts, current receipts and underaged eggs are a cent lower. Receipts have improved slightly during the last few days with 1176 cases reported Friday. Outside markets also are now at lower levels than a week ago.

No change is made in raw milk bids to the shipper. Prices for 4 per cent are $2.45 per hundred, Portland.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP).—Evaporated apples: slow; prunes steady; apricots and peaches firm.

Convention Forum Luncheon Topic

La Grande post of the American Legion, next year's host to the Oregon state convention, will have charge of the forum program when the Union county chamber of commerce meets for luncheon at the Sommer hotel Tuesday noon.

J. A. Tedford, vice president, will preside in the absence of Dr. W. T. Pfy, who is to address a meeting of the Kiwanis club at Pendleton.

Three talks will compose the program: Fred Kiddie, past state commander, will expound plans for the 1927 convention; Judge Hugh E. Brady will tell the good to the community that will result from the passage of the army bill; Harley Richardson, commander, will explain the plan by which the convention will be financed.
