Mothers Guests Of Daughters at Campfire Dinner

The campfire girls of La Grande were hostesses to their mothers at a banquet Saturday evening at every detail—from the elaborate menu to the original Halloween decorations—was planned and executed by the girls without parental supervision or advice.

The guests, a little curious, assembled at the Brownson home on O avenue, and were promptly ushered into the dining room to a table perfectly appointed. There a flawless dinner was served, each girl serving the course which she had prepared. The grace which introduced the meal was a serious little melody prescribed for campfire girls.

The president, Miss Dorothy Brownson, acting as toastmistress, called on Miss Jean Williams to toast "Our Mothers." Mrs. Sherwood Williams answered, expressing deep appreciation of the influence of campfire upon the daughters. Miss Margaret Danis gave a toast to the guardian to which Mrs. George Birnie responded.

After having narrowly escaped the ministrations of a wandering witch, the guests retired to the living room to listen to a short program arranged by Miss Lenora Ely and consisting of a pianolo by Miss Jean Williams, a song by Miss Luella Motcalf and a piano solo by Miss Dorothy Brownson.

The mothers turned homeward with a conviction that campfire activities are by no means frivolous.

Pendleton Women Present Drama

The Westminster society of the First Presbyterian church was hostess to 14 Pendleton people, including Dr. and Mrs. Bruce, pastor of the Presbyterian church, at dinner last evening at 6:15 o'clock in the dining room of the church, preceding the presentation of the play "The Two Masters" by the Pendleton women.

The table was decorated with bouquets of orchid pompoms and long taper candles in the same color. Dr. Margaret Ingie was in charge.

Before the play Mrs. H. E. McIntyre, director, who is also a dramatic reader, gave a reading which was much enjoyed. Dr. Bruce read the devotional and the Westminster quartet, consisting of Mrs. Earl Reynolds, Mrs. Lynn Wright, Mrs. Leo Miller and Miss Dorothy Pleasant, sang. Mrs. J. A. Tedford was piano accompanist and also played a pipe organ solo.

The church was filled with interested spectators and the audience play, the story of a woman trying to obey two masters, was well received. There were eight characters in the play.

Those taking part were Mrs. L. M. Nichols, Mrs. James Akey, Adelyn McIntyre, Allegra McCormack, Ellen Thompson, Jessie Thompson, Mrs. T. C. Hampton and Mrs. W. W. Green.

The women from the neighboring county were invited to give the play here after several local women saw their first presentation at the state synodical meeting at Pendleton a fortnight ago.

After the Rev. William Crosby Ross, pastor of the local church, had given the benediction, a reception for the visitors was held in the community room. Mrs. Oscar Pooreh served punch and wafers.

An all-day session of the Ladies' society to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers was held yesterday at the K. P. hall with the grand vice president, Mrs. Stena Ward, of South Nevada, in attendance. Regular lodge work occupied the lodge from 10:30 o'clock until noon, when

In the afternoon a school of instructions of which Mrs. Ward had charge, was held, besides issuance of a questionnaire which all of the members were required to answer.

At 6 o'clock a dinner and reception was held for the grand officer. Bouquets of yellow pompoms served as table decorations. Mrs. Ward was called upon for a short talk during the dinner.

A social time followed. Mrs. Ward left on train No. 25 for Portland to visit lodges there.

Animals' Heads on Buckles New Fad

(By the Associated Press) Squirrel and marmoset heads are being used as "buckles" on fur-topped boudoir shoes being shown in fashionable London shops. The heads of the little animals catch the ankle flaps together, and in the case of the marmoset, its long, silky tail has been used as trimming, and comes up each side of the boot and trims it around the top.

them daily. There are so many ways of using them in salads that they should never become tiresome. The raw tomato is considered more healthful than the cooked vegetable. Some authorities claim that intense heat destroys the vitamins. However, it's pretty hard to spoil a tomato since heat does not affect the mineral salts.

Stuffed Peppers Two or three large sweet red peppers, 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 cup cooked rice, 1/2 cup cream, 4 tablespoons dried bread crumbs, salt and pepper.

Cut peppers in halves lengthwise and remove seeds and white pith. Drop into boiling water and parboil for five minutes. Moisten rice with cream and add mushrooms and butter. Fill peppers with mixture and place in a well buttered shallow pan. Cover with crumbs, dot with bits of butter and bake in a hot oven until brown.

These peppers are particularly good with a planked steak or fish.

Pie crust made with Snowdrift is rich, tender and flaky.

Good pie crust should be put together quickly and should not be overworked. That is one reason why Snowdrift makes such good pastry. It is so creamy that it is quickly and easily worked into the other ingredients.

Another reason is that Snowdrift is so good itself.

COLON R. EBERHARD
FORMER STATE SENATOR
Republican Nominee
For Joint Senator, Union and Wallowa Counties.
ELECTION NOVEMBER 2, 1926

PERSONAL. Born in Oregon and lived here all his life. Owns home and pays taxes both in Union and Wallowa counties.

LEGISLATIVE EXPERIENCE. Served as State Senator in two regular and two special sessions of the Oregon Legislature, immediately following the war. Served upon such important committees as Ways and Means (finance), Judiciary, Education, Steering Committee and others.

AGAINST SCUTTILING THE PRIMARY LAW. "I will, during my term of office, oppose modifying the direct primary or substituting or permitting convention nominations." Extract from Mr. Eberhard's official platform.

AGAINST ADDITIONAL BOARDS, COMMISSIONS AND OFFICES. "I will, during my term of office, oppose creation of additional boards and commissions, with consequent inspectors and snoopers." Extract from Mr. Eberhard's official platform.

AGAINST ADDITIONAL STATE BOND ISSUES. "I will, during my term of office, oppose more bond issues." Extract from Mr. Eberhard's official platform.

AGAINST NUISANCE REGULATIONS AND TAXES ON PRIVATE AUTOMOBILES. Mr. Eberhard opposes additional taxes or regulations upon private automobiles, and feels that we have too many already. He will make careful investigation to ascertain which, if any, of the present nuisance laws can be repealed or modified.

STATE INCOME TAX, TAXES ON STAGES AND BUSES, OTHER INITIATIVE MEASURES. Members of the Legislature will have nothing to do with these. "Proposals for a state income tax, taxes on auto buses operating on the public highways, together with several other measures will be voted upon by the people in November. If any of these shall be adopted, I will co-operate in passing such necessary and supplemental legislation as may be needed effectually to carry out the will of the people." Extract from Mr. Eberhard's official platform.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT. The Workmen's Compensation Act, covering accidental injuries, should not be repealed. The minimum amount allowed to single men accidentally injured is slightly inadequate.

VOTERS' PAMPHLET. I favor and will vote for retention of voters' pamphlet.

STATE MARKET DEPARTMENT. I favor its retention substantially as it now stands.

PROPERTY TAX ON PRIVATE AUTOMOBILES, WITH CORRESPONDING REDUCTION IN THE LICENSE TAG. I am opposed to this suggestion. The present system is the only one to my knowledge which insures payment of taxes on every automobile.
