Wedding of June Is Announced in City This Week

To the surprise of her many La Grande and Union county friends the marriage of Miss LaNita Gaskill and Bud Pearson was announced here this week. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson were secretly married the tenth day of last June at Albany, Ore., by the Rev. G. D. Poling of the First Presbyterian church there.

They were University of Oregon students and after Mr. Pearson completed his college course last spring he left for Hartford, Conn., where he spent the summer attending an insurance school, while Mrs. Pearson has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gaskill, at their farm home near Imbler.

Mrs. Pearson completed her sophomore year at the university last spring, and is a member of Pi Beta Phi. She was active in the girls' glee club there and other college affairs. She graduated from the local high school with the class of 1924. He is a member of Kappa Sig.

Mr. Pearson arrived here Saturday night from Hartford, and he and his bride left this morning for Eugene, Ore., where they will make their future home. He will enter the insurance business there.

for scheme used to decorate the rooms, black cats, witches and spoons being much in evidence.

Games and dances were enjoyed during the evening, followed by a buffet luncheon at midnight. Between the dances cider was served from a Jack-o-lantern bowl.

Mrs. Ray Ledbetter was given the prize for the clearest costume among the women. She represented a tin soldier. Everett Keown, dressed as an Indian, won the men's prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Klinghamer, of Enterprise, were out-of-town guests present.

About 50 couples enjoyed the Halloween dance given by the Mutual Improvement association last evening at the M. I. A. hall on Fourth street. Geisler's orchestra furnished music for the dancers.

Autumn leaves were used to decorate the hall in addition to black cat and owl shades for the lights. Refreshments, cider and doughnuts, in keeping with the Halloween idea were served.

A surprise party took place Monday evening at the Lovell home on Madison avenue, when Mrs. Alonzo R. Lovell, assisted by her daughter, Miss Blanche Rice, entertained 20 friends honoring the birthday anniversary of Alonzo Lovell.

The rooms were decorated in black and orange conforming with the Halloween season. The hostess served refreshments late in the evening.

COVE (Special)—Mrs. William Hallmark entertained at dinner Wednesday evening of last week honoring her husband's birthday anniversary. Covers were laid for 12, including Mrs. A. H. Orton, Miss Bess Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Daniel.

Local People at Recital in Baker

Several La Grande musicians and others interested in music went to Baker last evening to attend the recital there presenting Ruth Bradley Keiser, pianist, of Portland, and Jesse A. Hoskins, soprano, of Baker. The recital was at the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parkinson, Leo Cullen Bryant, Mrs. George Pantz, Mrs. R. J. Green and daughter, Mildred, Mrs. George S. Birnie, Mrs. Floyd Sherwood and Mrs. Lynn Wright.

Mrs. Sherwood and Mrs. Wright went to Baker in the morning and Mrs. Sherwood, soprano, sang a group before the Kiwanis club at their noon-day luncheon. Mrs. Wright accompanied her at the piano.

Ten tables of pinocle were at mark and Miss Doris Neptune.

COVE (Special)—Miss Doris Neptune entertained the members of the school faculty at the home of Mrs. A. G. Conklin Friday of last week, the occasion being the hostess' birthday anniversary. The time was spent at "500," followed by a luncheon.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Coad, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Miss Grace Gayette, and Mrs. Beatrice Wardell.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Fresh pears, cereal, thin cream, baked omelet, toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Pan-broiled sausage with candied apples, molded spinach salad, whole wheat bread, baked custard, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked halibut steaks, scalloped potatoes, buttered lima beans, jellied celery salad, corn bread, sliced peaches, spongy cake, milk, coffee.

The luncheon meat is lacking in protein, so the deficiency is taken care of in the dessert.

You will like the "candied apples" for they are unusual and not expensive.

Children under eight years of age should be furnished a baked potato or buttered vegetable of some sort in place of the sausage dish.

Pan-broiled Sausage With Candied Apples

One pound sausage, 4 large apples, 1 cup vinegar, 2 cups brown sugar, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, cracker dust.

Small sausages or link sausage should be used. Dip sausage in boiling water to cover and let simmer for half an hour. Drain and put into a hot frying pan. Prick in several places with a fork and fry for 20 minutes, turning frequently. Drain off fat as necessary. Make a syrup of the vinegar, sugar and spices. Pare apples, remove cores and cut in rounds 1/2 inch thick. Drop into boiling water and simmer until clear. Remove from syrup and roll in cracker dust. Brown quickly in hot sausage fat and serve as border around sausage.

Clubwomen Will Attend Meeting At Baker Oct. 28

La Grande clubwomen will compose a large part of the attendance at the club institute that Mrs. Saldie Orr-Dunbar, of Portland, past president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will conduct at Baker Thursday. Their institute plan was initiated by Mrs. Dunbar during her administration to provide clubwomen with information on the how, why, when and wherefore of organization work.

Mrs. George T. Cochran, first state vice president, Mrs. E. J. Mossman, chairman of the state division of art, and Mrs. Lee Warnick, a past president of the Neighborhood club, will be on the speaking program. Mrs. Warnick is to expound the budget system of financing clubwork.

The La Grande delegation will include Mrs. Robert S. Eakin, president, Mrs. Sherwood Williams, vice president, Mrs. Everett Wallinger, treasurer, and several others of the membership. There are expected to be several automobile loads going from La Grande.

Last year's institute in this region was conducted by Mrs. Dunbar in La Grande.

from loss of charm under trying hygienic conditions secure this way. True protection—discards like tissue

SCORES of women's disorders are largely traced today to old-time "sanitary pads," insecure and unsanitary.

Eight in 10 better-class women today employ "KOTEX."

Wear lightest gowns and frocks without a second thought, any day, anywhere.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads!

Deodorizes. Ends ALL fear of offending.

You get it at any drug or department store simply by saying, "KOTEX." No embarrassment.

Unfairness to yourself; try this new way. Costs only a few cents. Twelve in a package.
