Idaho Girl Weds L. A. Webster, of La Grande, Here

A quiet family wedding took place on Wednesday morning at about 10 o'clock in the main of the First Presbyterian church when Miss Goldie Belle Hedman became the bride of Lawson A. Webster. The bride and bridesmaid were attended by Miss Ina Mae Webster, sister of the groom, who acted as maid of honor, and Alfred Ray, as best man. Only members of the immediate families were present for the ceremony which was read by the Rev. William Crosby Ross.

Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Webster left by auto for a honeymoon trip to California and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. They will be at home after Nov. 15 at the Webster ranch west of Alton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hedman, of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Hanna Webster. He is well known in the Grande Ronde valley, where he has always made his home.

IMBLER (Special)—Twenty-four persons gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brooks Sunday for a birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Brooks. The table was decorated with autumn flowers and fruits.

After dinner the time was enjoyed visiting. Several musical numbers were given.

Those present were: Mrs. Prizell, Mrs. Kuhn, Mrs. Garn, Mrs. Buckman, Mrs. C. Buckman, Mrs. Gaskill, Mrs. Halley and son, Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bidwell, of North Powder, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bidwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Huron, Tommy Buckman, of La Grande, Miss Maxine Nossley, Holly Huron, Sam Brooks, Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Funk, of Wallawa, Anna Brooks, Mrs. Stella Huron, and Miss Anna Brooks.

COVE (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cove were hosts at dinner Sunday, honoring the 25th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Cove's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen of Summerville. Covers were laid for 14.

Hallow'en Party At Landis Home

Mrs. Richard P. Landis and Mrs. Harley H. Richardson entertained yesterday afternoon at a bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. Landis.

Covers were laid for enough guests to make nine tables of bridge besides a few who did not stay for the card game.

Appointments for the luncheon tables were in gold and black, conforming with the Hallow'en idea. Favors were little old-fashioned gingerbread men, each holding the place card of a guest. Candles and almonds were in elegant mint baskets, in harmonizing colors.

ARCH PRESERVER FOR MEN

One of the most comfortable shoes on earth. The insole is molded to fit the foot the full length, distributing equally the weight from heel to toe. Built 1/2 of an inch higher on the inside of arch than other shoes. Has a narrow heel seat, two sizes smaller in heel than at the ball of the shoe; does not wear out hose at heel—so it fits snugly. Prevents the arch from sagging or drooping and gives perfect comfort to the foot. Union made.

Flowers in gold and blue with a touch of white were arranged about the rooms. A large basket of chrysanthemums and gold-colored pompons with a few blue daisies in the reception room was included in the bouquets. Another bouquet of the gold pompons and blue daisies was placed on the console table. The centerpiece for the dining table was augmented by pale pink rosebuds.

After luncheon Mrs. Donald Pague won high score at bridge and was given the first prize. Second prize went to Mrs. W. H. Hohenkamp Jr., and the consolation prize to Mrs. H. K. O'Brien.

A Hallow'en party took place Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thompson on N. avenue, when several members of the Ladies' auxiliary to the American Legion post entertained the members of the drum corps and their wives.

The guests were greeted at the door by two spoons, Mrs. Ray Williams and Mrs. George Olson, and ushered into the rooms, which were dimly lighted with jack-o'-lanterns, and decorated in orange and black.

Hallow'en games and jokes were enjoyed, after which luncheon was served by the hostess committee. The members of the committee were Mrs. Ray Williams, Mrs. Chester Thompson, Mrs. George Olson, Mrs. Otis Palmer, Mrs. Walter Palmer and Mrs. Roy Currey.

A party of the past week took place at the Browne home when eight girls met with Miss Ethel Browne, honoring her seventeenth birthday anniversary. Each guest was greeted at the door by the hostess and presented with a large orange crepe bow, which she wore during the remainder of the evening.

The color scheme used was orange and yellow, added to with autumn leaves arranged in different parts of the room. A large birthday cake with lighted candles on a bed of leaves served as a table centerpiece.

Games and music were followed by a two-course luncheon, served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Eran Bickford. Gifts were presented to the hostess, after which each girl departed for her home.

Those present were: Misses Eran Bickford, Jennie Dolbow, Hazel Reector, Ruth Keeney, Edith Randall, Lucan Oliver and Bonnie Oliver.

Bridge Club Meets With Zimmermans

Members of the Tuesday Evening Bridge club were entertained Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman at their home on N. avenue. The affair was in the form of a Hallow'en party, the season's colors—orange and black—being carried out in the decorations and in the two-course luncheon which followed the card games. Yellow chrysanthemums were the flowers used.

Mrs. T. R. Maxwell won high score among the women at cards and Mr. Maxwell received the gentlemen's prize.

The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spaeth.

Church Society In All-Day Meet

Fifteen members of the Home Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church met yesterday for an all-day session at the home of the president, Mrs. Lee Hanford. During the morning the women sewed on contributors and at noon a potluck luncheon was served.

In the afternoon Mrs. Hanford called the business meeting to order and the golden jubilee of the mother society of the Home Missionary society, which will be in 1936, was discussed. Each member of the society will give 50 cents on her birthday which will go toward the golden jubilee. Mrs. D. W. Beck was appointed birthday secretary.

A time was also set for thank offering day, set for Sunday, Nov. 14. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. E. G. Payton, Mrs. Floyd McKennon, and Mrs. G. C. Headley.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Honey dew melon, cereal, thin cream, hashed fish, man haddie, crisp corn bread toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Vegetable soup, croquettes, cheese sandwiches, baked quinces, oatmeal cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Fricassee of rabbit, mashed potatoes, creamed onions, cabbage and tomato salad, baked apple custard, rye bread, milk, coffee.

Quinces are quite as good as apples or pears. Since quinces are a fruit that bruises easily they are seldom without blemishes. These must be carefully cut away before baking, otherwise hard dry spots will develop. Cut large fruit in halves and remove cores, arrange in a shallow pan, half cover with a heavy sirup of sugar and bake, basting frequently until tender, serve with cream.

This vegetable soup is particularly reasonable for October days.

Vegetable Soup
Four tablespoons butter, 1 head celery, 2 leeks, 2 good sized onions, 3 medium carrots (1 pound), 4 medium sized tomatoes, 4 cups chicken broth, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 more tablespoon butter.

Melt 4 tablespoons butter in a sauce pan. Add celery cut in thin slices, leeks and onions thinly sliced and carrots cut in small dice, cook over a low fire for 20 minutes. Cover the pan and shake often to prevent burning. Add tomatoes, pared and cut in slices. Bring to the boiling point and simmer ten minutes. Rub through a fine colander or coarse sieve.

"Good to the last drop"

From the South spread the glad news—a blend of fine coffees with just that added richness everybody wanted! It had long been the first choice of the cities of Dixie. Now the fame of its extra mellowness swept into the West and North. And what a joyous surprise it brought to those who love good living! In just a few brief years, that shade of difference in flavor has made Maxwell House Coffee the favorite coffee of a long list of America's most critical cities. Today, it is the largest selling high grade coffee in the country. Now roasted fresh for the West in our Pacific Coast plant. Here is a new pleasure you cannot afford to miss.

"In the time of trial, Senator Eberhard served his constituents and stood loyally by the interests of his district," said the Pendleton East Oregonian (Ind.), editorially on March 14, 1922. "Senator Eberhard made the amazing and almost unexampled record of missing only two roll calls in 1921, in spite of the fact that he was a very busy senator; not a dodger—a fearless voter," said the Oregon Voter, May 4, 1922. "The Voter also said: 'Senator Eberhard was one of the ablest debaters in the legislature; he always commanded attention, and has a great influence on legislation. His service on the ways and means committee was exceedingly useful.'"
