Buck Jones in "Gentle Cyclone" Coming to Star

Theatre patrons who admired Buck Jones in "Laxbyones" and enjoyed his quiet conception of the indolent, irresponsible but lovable "Laxbyones," will find many traces of the same fine character sketching in his newest picture, "The Gentle Cyclone," which comes to the Star theatre on Friday for a two-day run.

Buck, of course, is the "cyclone" and despite the suggestion of gentleness in the title of the picture, Mr. Jones at times is as vigorous and tornado as his fondest fan could wish. In fact, in many of the scenes of "The Gentle Cyclone" Buck swings a pair of very tough and decisive fists.

The role presents Mr. Jones in fine contrast, for at times he is gentle and apparently harmless as the title suggests. Again, he is the wild-riding, fear-defying Buck Jones of many a valiant western picture.

"The Gentle Cyclone" has been made under the direction of W. S. Van Dyke, who has plotted Mr. Jones through many of his best western stories. The cast has been selected with unusual care, and a picture with fine entertainment value has been produced.

One of the new-angled comedies featuring Snookums will also be shown.

Irene Rich Stars in Murder Mystery Picture

"The Pleasure Buyers," the Warner Bros. picture which opened yesterday at the Sherry theatre for a run of two days, proved to be about as exciting a mystery picture as the screen has given us. Adapted from Arthur Sommers Roche's Cosmopolitan Magazine story, it preserves the suspense of the original, while adding to it an unexpected denouement that will surprise those who have read the story.

As it unfolds upon the screen, the picture is enough to baffle the detective abilities of the most expert in the unravelling of mystery plots. It is one of those thrillers in which everybody concerned is under suspicion, so that if you are pretty clever you are likely to pick the least suspicious person as the criminal in the case.

The case concerns the murder of Gene Casseman, a gay society favorite, who is shot while sitting in his luxurious home at a smart resort. The bullet has come through the window from the dark outside.

Back of Casseman lies a career that has afforded justification for half a dozen murders, and suspicion finally concentrates upon half a dozen people. But we are not going to tell you who the guilty one was. The solution of the mystery calls for a visit to the Sherry theatre.

Comedy showing "Eight Night."

"Unknown Soldier" Is Coming To Sherrys

Tears and laughter abound in "The Unknown Soldier," a war picture produced and directed by Renaud Hoffman for Producers Distributing Corp., which comes to the Sherry theatre next Sunday and Monday. Charles Emmett Mack plays the title role of "The Unknown Soldier," with Marguerite De La Motte as the war bride, and Ethel Wales in the sympathetic

Daredevil Dix Featured in "The Quarterback"

The trickiest, funniest, fastest football game ever played. That's what you'll see in Paramount's latest Richard Dix comedy, "The Quarterback," which arrives at the Arcade theatre today for a three-day run.

Richard and his pal, David Butler, are working their way through Colton by means of a milk delivery route. To speed matters up, they utilize their football knowledge and send their battles whizzing through the air. Then—when they actually get in the game—acting starts and never stops till the final whistle blows.

But there's much more to "The Quarterback" than just a football game. W. O. McDouhan and William Slavens McNutt have provided Director Fred Newmeyer with a real story. And in his transfer to the screen, nary a thing has been lost.

"The Quarterback" opens with an 1890 prologue. The star quarterback of Colton College, Harry Hersford, has proposed to Mona Palma. She accepts with the proviso that he remain at school until Colton beats her ancient rival.

State. Some twenty-seven years later, he is still "one of the boys." Mona has died and his son now plays dad's old position.

Richard is infatuated with Esther Rabston, a State co-ed. Their romance flourishes until the day of the big game. Then—comes a series of startling surprises. Things start to go wrong and—well, why try to describe it?

Havana, Cuba has the ideal police force in the world, according to August Vollmer, American police expert.

Our fourth car load of roofing is coming in. We sell lots of roofing into Baker, North Powder, Union, Enterprise, Wallowa, Elgin, Imbler and then up the line toward Kamela and Sunset Inn.

After people have found out they can do just as well here as at the mud order houses, it saves them the bother of making out an order. Besides, they can see what they get. We had a big line yesterday on red-burn shingles. We unloaded two cars and from the way it looks we will have to order another car right away. We have three trucks running all the time and four trucks part of the time. I never will get tired of blowing my own horn, because if a man doesn't blow his own horn who shall then? (That man's name? The No. 2 cedar shingles are still $1.05 per M and we have a lot of good 2x12s for barn floors that you can get reasonable. We sold 26 gallons of red-burn paint yesterday besides a big order of Zinc-O-Lith and some Lipin enamel and high grade floor varnish. Also two gallons of the extra heavy white shellac.

WHEN WE THINK THE OTHER FELLOW KNOWS
Some people would be far better off if they used their own judgment rather than placing so much confidence in the judgment of the other fellow. The lack of self-confidence has cost many a man a considerable sum. If we were able to think as fast as the other fellow can talk, likely our judgment would save us money.
