Clio Club Meets At Reuter Home in Bridge Party

Thirty-two persons, members and friends of the Clio club, were entertained last evening when Mrs. and Mrs. Walter H. Reuter were host and hostess at their new home on First street.

Eight tables of bridge were at play during the evening with Mrs. Lee Bouvy winning high score among the women club members and the men's prize going to Chase Bohnenkamp. Mrs. F. B. Appleby received the women's guest prize and the great prize among the men went to Mr. Appleby.

Luncheon was served after the games.

Mrs. C. S. Moore was hostess to the Alpha club yesterday afternoon at her home on Spring street at 1 o'clock luncheon. A bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums served as a centerpiece for the table, where covers were laid for 15.

Four tables of bridge were formed after luncheon, with Mrs. Charles Reynolds winning the club prize. The guest prize went to Mrs. F. L. Baiston.

Mrs. Walter H. Guild entertained at luncheon at 1:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue, with members of the Lucky Thirteen club as her guests. Yellow and black, Halloween colors, were used in the decorations, chrysanthemums serving as a centerpiece.

After luncheon three tables of bridge were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nash and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Shields entertained the Valencia Bridge club at the latter's home on Cedar street last night. The rooms were decorated in accordance with the Halloween season, the same effect being carried out in the two-course luncheon.

Four tables were at play with first honors going to Mrs. Everett Keown and Al Herman and consolation to Mrs. Carl Dallas and Ray Ledbetter.

Mrs. Harold Lyman, at the piano, was accompanied by Mrs. Dallas, on the guitar, in a short musical program.

Club Studying Life of Queen

The Parkdale club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Hughes with Mrs. Ethel Rynearson and Mrs. Minnie Lapher as assistant hostesses. After the business session, presided over by Mrs. Charles Guma, president of the club, the army bill and the county library movement were discussed.

During the program the life of Queen Marie, who is visiting America now, was studied.

Several visitors were present for the meeting besides the 25 club members. The guests included Mrs. Love, Mrs. Tom Williamson, Mrs. Sam Williamson, Mrs. Huffman, Mrs. Will Condit, Mrs. De- Davis and Mrs. Clyde Davis.

The last meeting of the club was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Henning, and the business session was presided over by Mrs. Alma Carroll and Mrs. Alice Standley in the absence of the president and secretary.

Members of the N. B. B. club were entertained at a Halloween party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Boyd Pidecock. Orange and black was the color scheme used about the rooms, pumpkins, black cats and other Halloween symbols being used.

Three tables of bridge were at play with Mrs. R. H. Smith winning high score. Mrs. Clyde Davis received the second prize.

After the card games luncheon was served by the hostess.

The club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Ernest Waldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Mormon entertained the nurses of the Grande Ronde hospital and their escorts at an old-fashioned Halloween party last evening at their home here.

The 20 guests enjoyed childhood games and jokes. Halloween favors also added to the merriment of the evening.

At 11:30 o'clock lunch was served.

Cove Guild to Be Entertained

St. Peter's Episcopal Aid society met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. N. Tarkington with a large attendance. Articles for the bazaar to be held Dec. 4 were worked on during the early part of the afternoon.

Plans were made for a social meeting Nov. 10 at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Barron, when the members of the society will be hostesses to the Cove Ladies' guild. Arrangements are being made for 24 guests. "Five hundred" will be the principal feature.

A committee was also appointed to make arrangements to serve dinner to the Washington club at their November meeting. Mrs. C. C. Hull is chairman of the committee.

A social hour was enjoyed before adjournment, when the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. C. Hull served refreshments.

The La Grande Fraternal Order of Eagles entertained 175 guests, members of the lodge and their families, at dinner at 7 o'clock last evening at Eagles' hall.

After dinner cards were played and later in the evening the time was spent dancing. The Women of Woodcraft put on a short play during the evening and Muriel Webb and Ruth Maguire sang several songs and danced, accompanied by Miss Marian Harris at the piano.

These dinners are given once each month for Eagles and their families.

Members of Oliver P. Morton Relief Corps No. 37 surprised another of the older corps members, who is unable to attend the regular lodge meetings, yesterday afternoon when they called on Mrs. N. E. Bradshaw at her home on Cove avenue.

Social gatherings of this kind have been held at the homes of many of the older members during the past few months and the same form was followed yesterday.

Visiting and fancy work occupied the afternoon, followed by a luncheon served by a few of the 20 women present.

The regular joint meeting of the Maccabee lodge and the Blue Mountain Hiv of Lady Macabees was held last evening in the banquet room of the Eagles' hall. A short business session was held by the women, presided over by Mrs. Daisy Nelson, commander of the hive.

About 20 guests joined a like number of members after the business hour and the remainder of the evening was enjoyed dancing.

Refreshments were served by the committees in charge. The women's committee consisted of Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Anson and Mrs. Williams, and the members of the men's committee were R. B. Hollenbeck, C. E. Stung and Mr. Anson.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, thin cream, corn pudding, cakes, sirup, crisp broiled bacon, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Mock club sandwich, celery, peach cottage pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Ham baked in cider, steam brown rice, stewed okra, endive with French dressing, green tomato pie, bran bread, milk, coffee.

Brown or unpolished rice is preferable to the polished grain we usually meet. Polishing removes most of the mineral matter, leaving the grain mostly starch. Polished rice is white but not shiny. The shine is achieved by a coating of talc and glucose. This coating washes off, of course, when the rice is washed for cooking. If green tomatoes are plentiful in your garden and there's danger of frost before they can ripen, try a green tomato pie. It's amazingly good.

Green Tomato Pie

Three cups sliced green tomatoes, 1 1/2 cups granulated sugar, 1/4 cup butter, 1/4 cup flour, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, plain pastry.

Line a pie pan with pastry. Mix and sift sugar and flour. Sprinkle half the mixture over lower crust. Add tomatoes cut in slices, sprinkle with remaining sugar. Pour over juice and grated rind of lemon. Sprinkle with spices and salt and dot with bits of butter. Put on top crust and bake 40 minutes in a hot oven. The heat should be reduced after the first 10 minutes of baking.

Keep in mind that it takes 1 1/2 cups of flour to make one pie with two crusts.

We should charge a premium for this greater gasoline—but it costs you the same as others

GENERAL MOTO-CRAT GASOLINE

Here's what you get from this greater motor fuel—
A noticeable increase in power and pick-up both winter and summer
Less carbon deposit—No crank-case dilution
A noticeable increase in gas-miles
No fuel knocks—No pitted valves or fouled spark plugs
Lower transportation cost
Here's why you get it—
This new gasoline is highly volatile but perfectly balanced. Gas-miles have not been sacrificed to produce that increase in power. Every drop vaporizes—it burns clean, leaving no deposit to produce carbon. It contains no acids or sulphur to pit valves or foul spark plugs.
Every General Independent Dealer is now pumping General "Moto-crat" Gasoline. It costs no more. Get yours today.

Drain your crank case and fill up with Parabase. It's your insurance for as perfect a motor at the end of the run as at the beginning. For Fords use Para-4rl.
