FOR REPRESENTATIVE, 25th DISTRICT
Here is a man who, through his invested Union county interests, his extensive experience in orchard culture with 150 acres of bearing trees on his own ranch north of Elgin, together with years of business training in a professional field before he became a dirt farmer, is specially fitted to represent in the Oregon legislature his fellow citizens from the 25th District. He knows their needs. He is familiar with the requirements of the tiller of the soil, the fruit grower, as well as the railroad man. He spent many years of his early life as railroad station agent and cleared an enviable experience in the business world. His father before him was a high official in the State Board of Horticulture and Mr. Weatherspoon, through this same board has gone even further in his stand for legislation beneficial to both farmer and townsmen. For twenty years he has successfully nursed his vast orchard acreage in Union county and so great is his neighbors' faith in him that all apple packing and shipping in his home vicinity is in his charge this year.

tral Committee, J. H. Pearce, Chairman.
