BUTTERFAT WAR PROSPECTS GOOD

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 1 (AP).—A bomb has been thrown into the local butter market by one of the largest creamery men in the city who went out into the country with offers of 48 cents to cream shippers for butterfat, delivered Portland. It was a direct challenge to the recent 2 cent decline in butterfat when prints were only reduced 1 cent.

Whether or not this is the beginning of another butterfat war remains to be seen. Most of the large creameries are quoting a buying price of 42 to 43 cents a pound in the country and 44 cents delivered Portland.

When the 48 cent card went out into the county it bore the following remarks:

"Stop and think. Why force the Portland butter market down one cent and butterfat two cents? Other coasts markets did not decline. In fact, San Francisco, the largest, has advanced one cent."

Arrest Eight on Gambling Charge

Seven men arrested Thursday and charged with gambling forfeited $10 each Saturday night in the municipal court by failure to appear for trial, the records at the police station show. An eighth man, said to have been card dealer, forfeited $100.

At the request of Chief of Police Haynes the names were withheld because in most instances it was a first offense and also to protect the wives and children of some of the men.

Roman Meal, the "Happy Medium"

—in cereals, neither too light nor too heavy, contributes much to health and palate enjoyment, because:

(1) It is a delicious compound of the body-building whole wheat and rye, with just enough bran to insure complete elimination of waste, and flavose, the nourishing grain lubricant.

(2) It can be served in so many interesting, tempting ways, adding zest to one's meals.

(3) It is a delightful addition to any meal, and will please the most fastidious palate, old or young.

Everyone needs a cereal food—cooked—served hot, in some form; and you will discover through just one package of Roman Meal that you will never again want to be without it.
