HELP WANTED—MALE

HAVE YOU talent and a well developed desire to fill a real position in the drafting line, later opening into an unlimited field in Engineering work?

Applicants must have had an eighth grade schooling, must be over twenty-one years old, and must now be employed in some regular work which need not necessarily be drafting. These openings are primarily for men with talent who have not had the opportunity to earn a living and develop their talent at the same time.

We require two character references from the men we accept. These men will be given a very thorough and complete training at home by a new and modern method and will retain their present positions until they are qualified to drop all other work and enter the drafting room at decent salaries. They will be given an absolute guarantee in writing both as to position and salary within a specified time or at the expiration of that time an immediate refund for their education. They will be furnished with instruments, drawing table, and projectograph. They will be expected to devote at least nine hours each week at home to preparation for their positions.

Your application must state age, married or single, kind of work at which you are now employed, schooling, and any other information which you think we should have.

Address Box 15, La Grande Observer.

Persons in waiters' attire being served by waitresses was an odd sight at lunch time in the Paramount cafe at the Long Island studio during the filming of a recent picture. Some of the cast had the role of waiters in the play.

In the secret rooms of a Lincoln house dive set planned ingeniously of many successive lighting and camera angles, long "shots", semi-closups and closeups were made of six different characters without stopping the camera, which is believed to be a record. By means of special equipment and camera "tricks" of 220 feet is unbroken. If made by the ordinary methods, it would have been cut in from eleven to thirty parts.

Irene Rich has just completed her second Russian picture, but under vastly different circumstances than her first. In Warner production of "My Official Wife," Miss Rich appears as the daughter of a Russian robber. Her first Russian picture was the "Battalion of Death", made nine years ago, when the only experience she could boast was three days' work in a mob scene. She appeared as one of the women soldiers for ten days.

Gloria Swanson has obtained pictures of the Paris Opera Comique for use in reproducing scenes in "Sunya".

Rene Hubert, Miss Swanson's designer, used a still camera and through time exposures completed a series of 100 photographs. The art director will utilize them in making his sets.

Motion pictures of the Opera are not permitted.

The fairy, "Tinker Bell," in "Peter Pan" was a tiny bit then, but she comes to the screen again in a grown-up role. She is impersonated by Anita Baker, millionaire sportsman, in a picture featuring Thunder, the police dog star.

Thunder, the police dog movie star, does not understand English. Frank Foster Davis, owner and trainer of Thunder, directs in German to avoid confusion when the director of a production is instructing the actors. The dogs work according to words, not by the trainers' gestures.

Hollywood has added to its roster a former Chief of Police of Baghdad, Victor McLaglen, who plays Captain Flagg in the film version of "What Price Glory." He bossed the city of the Califfs with its 170,000 inhabitants while it was held by British troops during the world war. McLaglen also is a veteran of the Boer war.

Movie Sidelights

The life of movie performers has its disagreeable features. One of them is the junk waits they sometimes must endure before they are called into action. Some read magazines, but most of the cast either talk in groups or sit idly by while awaiting their turn in the scenes that are being shot.

One noted star had three days of it, waiting to be momentarily called.

AT THE THEATERS

Popular Cast in "Stella Dallas" At Arcade

"Stella Dallas," Samuel Goldwyn's first photoplay production for United Artists Corporation, might well be called "the great American photodrama." This picture of Olive Higgins Prouty's celebrated novel was produced under the direction of Henry King, who has given the world an endless succession of masterful cinematic offerings, including "The White Sister," "Tolable David," and other plays which will live for years.

In "Stella Dallas," which comes to the Arcade Theatre Monday for a limited engagement, Mr. King has put forth his best efforts, and surrounded his principals with minor players of unusual ability, until the story, read by millions, is said to live before one's eyes.

Hello Bennett well-known actress of stage and screen, was chosen for the title role and Ronald Colman, as Stephen Dallas, seems also to fit the part perfectly. Alice Joyce as Helen Morrison, completes the interesting triangle.

The supporting players are all adequate. "Stella Dallas" is one of the best cast pictures yet released.

Red Grange Is Coming to Sherrys Sunday

One of the sensations of the year in the signing of Red Grange for the stellar role in "One Minute to Play," a Greater P. B. O. production to be shown at the Sherry Theatre next Sunday when it will begin a three day run. The story, of course, centers around the spectacular playing of a college boy and shows Red at his best on the football field. Some genuine college spirit is injected into the picture, which is made doubly realistic by the fact that one of the players on the opposing team is George Wilson, the famous all-American halfback. Secondary to the football interest is the comedy element which is consistently delightful throughout the entire picture. There is also a charming romance, and the part of the girl who is the cause of it all is delightfully played by Mary McAllister. Others in the cast are Ben Hendricks Jr., Lincoln Steadman, Lee Shumway, Charles Dale, Jay Hunt and Edie Chapman. The story is an original by Byron Morgan, and Sam Wood is responsible for the splendid direction.

Frank Borzage Scores With New Picture

"Marriage License" Fox Film great picture of the international stage triumph, "The Pelican" will be the feature attraction at the Star Theatre, Sunday and Monday. This film was directed by Frank Borzage. Borzage has scored nothing short of a triumph with his latest effort.

"Marriage License" is the love story of a beautiful woman, Wanda Heriot, a Canadian, portrayed by Alma Rubens. The performance of Miss Rubens is exquisitely beautiful at all times. She has brought to her part a brand of acting rarely witnessed on the silver sheet. Miss Rubens by this performance, proves herself a really great actress.

In the picture, Wanda Ross marries Marcus Heriot, the son of a wealthy and aristocratic English family. Lady Heriot, the mother

Under-Water Scenes Featured in "Venus"

In this under-sea drama water scene of surpassing beauty have been pictured with rare skill. One watches in astonishment the tense dramatic episodes enacted at the bottom of the deep as racing waters swirl about the contestants.

Annette Kellerman is a miracle of grace and skill, frolic, fighting, dancing in the watery depths, surrounded by coral, sea-growth and dangerous swimming creatures.

Leading additional color to this unusual production are delightful views of the tropical South Sea Islands and their picturesque natives, and against this fascinating background is depicted a gripping

WHEN WE THINK THE OTHER FELLOW KNOWS
Some people would be far better off if they used their own judgment rather than placing so much confidence in the judgment of the other fellow. The lack of self confidence has cost many a man a considerable sum. If we were able to think as fast as the other fellow can talk, likely our judgment would save us money.
