

SOCIETY NEWS

Miss Ash Honor Guest at Party At O'Connell's

Complimenting Miss Mina Ash, who will leave La Grande tonight for Portland where she will make her home, Misses Irene and Louise O'Connell entertained last night at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Connell.

Guests enough to make three tables of bridge were invited. Mrs. Carolyn Rosenthal won high score at bridge and Mrs. W. E. Johnson, of Jerome, Ida., who is visiting here at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. H. Allen, received the consolation prize. A guest prize was presented to Miss Ash.

Bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums were arranged about the room. A two-course luncheon followed the card games.

Mrs. J. F. O'Connell was hostess to the members of the Monday Bridge club yesterday afternoon at luncheon at 1:15 o'clock. Chrysanthemums served as a centerpiece for the luncheon table where covers were laid for 12. The bridge was at play following luncheon with Mrs. Charles Playle making high score among the club members. The guest prize went to Mrs. William Ash.

The club will be next entertained at the home of Mrs. Donald M. Pague.

Mrs. Ernest Walden was hostess to the members of the N. B. B. club Thursday afternoon at her home on Cedar street. Three tables of bridge were the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. Nellie Spencer winning high. The second prize went to Mrs. Jack McGowan and Mrs. Will Phelps, of Oakridge, Ore., who has been visiting here with her sister, Mrs. W. D. Warner, received the guest prize.

The hostess served luncheon after the card games.

UNION (Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook were host and hostess Wednesday evening at their home in North Union to the members of the T. R. club. Four tables of bridge were at play during the evening with Mrs. Walter Stevens winning high among the women. The men's prize went to Fred Fox and Mrs. Leonard Davis received consolation.

After the card games a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Guests besides the club members were Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis and C. L. Cadwell.

UNION (Special).—Mrs. George Baird was hostess to the members of the Lucky Thirteen club at luncheon Friday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at the Union hotel. Baskets of fall flowers were used to decorate the luncheon table where covers were laid for 14 guests.

Four tables of bridge were at play in the living room after luncheon. Mrs. James Hutchinson won high and Mrs. Leonard Davis received the consolation prize.

Enterprise, Union Clubwomen Meet

ENTERPRISE (Special).—The Woman's club met Thursday afternoon in the library basement at 2:30 o'clock with 35 members and visitors present. A business meeting was held during the early part of the afternoon, presided over by Mrs. G. I. Ratcliff. Club publicity was discussed during the business session and a publicity agent was appointed to report all meetings to the newspapers.

Because Mrs. Ricker, who was a delegate to the state federation in La Grande last spring, was absent, the report was read by Mrs. Jordan.

The following program was given: group singing, led by Mr. A. B. Conaway, and accompanied by Mrs. Conklin at the piano; two vocal solos by Mrs. Langron, accompanied by Mrs. Conklin; flower dance, Misses Christensen and Ricker.

Refreshments were served by the officers of the club.

UNION (Special).—"Indian Legends" was the subject for Thursday afternoon's meeting of the Woman's club and it was presided over by Mrs. Belle M. Wright. Mrs. Viola Parker, Mrs. Edith Play, Mrs. J. L. McKenney and Mrs. Louisa Burwell.

Mrs. Wright read the paper on "Loyalty" which she read at the Woman's club institute held at Baker two weeks ago and Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Play each read a paper on "Indian Legends."

Mrs. Burwell exhibited and gave the history of several relics, which were presented to her son, Adrian, by Indians. Among the relics was a stone 1,000 years old. Mrs. Burwell exhibited a wooden basket made by the Chemawa tribe and a blanket made by the Mojave tribe.

Regular club business was transacted before the program with Mrs. Frank Sturgill, president, in the chair.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Pitts, with Mrs. Pitts, Mrs. Leonard Davis, and Mrs. Titus as hostesses. Lunch was served after the program.

Catholic Hall Is Scene of Party

The girl of Sacred Heart academy entertained a number of their friends at a dancing party Friday evening at the Catholic hall, near the school.

Forty-five young people were present and enjoyed the evening dancing. Refreshments were served by several of the girls.

UNION (Special).—Twenty-eight persons, members and friends of the Altar society of the Catholic church, were entertained by Mrs. Fred Mayette at her home in North Union Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. B. Johnson, president, presided over the business meeting after which a short program was given, consisting of several readings by Mrs. Agnes Paddock. At 4:30 o'clock a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Parent.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Pat Sullivan, of Yakima, Wash., Mrs. Lincoln, Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Comstock of Cove.

Parties Compliment Mrs. Clyde Lynch

Mrs. Clyde Lynch, who with her husband is leaving La Grande this week for Santa Barbara, Cal. where they will make their home, has been the inspiration for several affairs during the past few days.

Last evening Mrs. Harold G. Dow entertained at three tables of bridge in her honor with Mrs. J. F. O'Connell winning high. A guest prize was presented to the honor guest.

Red and green was the color scheme, bouquets of red carnations being used. The guests were followed by a two-course luncheon.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Charles Beddingfield entertained at a party for Mrs. Lynch. Guests enough to make five tables of bridge were invited and Mrs. Lyle Kiddle won first prize. Mrs. G. H. Fogle received the second prize and the guest prize went to Mrs. Lynch.

The rooms of the Beddingfield home were decorated with bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. Luncheon was enjoyed by those present late in the afternoon.

Union (Special).—A surprise party was given Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. B. F. Lathrop and her granddaughter, Fay Bundy, at the country home of Mrs. Ed Miles. Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Ed Finkle were the hostesses. A social time was followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Lathrop and Miss Bundy leave soon to join Mr. Lathrop in Sutherlin, Ore., where they will make their home.

Imbler (Special).—Miss Maxine Nesley celebrated her seventeenth birthday anniversary by entertaining several of her schoolmates Thursday afternoon at the home of her parents.

The children enjoyed games for some time, after which they were served refreshments.

The little hostess received many gifts.

Miss Aldrich Is Guest of Society

A talk by Miss Maude M. Aldrich on "The Sanctity of the

OUT OUR WAY

AND SO

Home", was enjoyed last evening by the Westminster society of the First Presbyterian church when they met at the home of Mrs. Ron C. Harrie. Miss Aldrich is director of juvenile welfare of the board of Christian education of the Presbyterian church. Her talk to the members of the Westminster society followed one at the Presbyterian church to which the public was invited.

The Barrie home was decorated with bouquets of yellow poinsettias. Mrs. George Richardson, president, presided over the business meeting, when $11 was reported in the treasury for Miss Julia Hatch, Missionary working in Sam. The money is to buy a Christmas gift for Miss Hatch.

Mrs. L. C. Bowser led in the devotional, after which Mrs. A. V. Lindgren had charge of the mission study. She reviewed several chapters of the study book "The Mountain Faces of the Future."

Miss Mabel Doty gave a musical reading "My Mother's Wedding Gown," accompanied by Miss Gladys Miller, pianist, and Miss Mabel Stearns, violinist. Miss Doty wore the wedding dress of her mother, now 51 years old, in which there is 22 yards of material.

The hostess served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

UNION (Special).—The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the parsonage with Mrs. Robert C. Lee as hostess last week.

After the regular business meeting a short program was given, followed by refreshments served by the hostess.

UNION (Special).—On Saturday evening George Schird was host to a few men friends at his home in North Union at a 6:30 o'clock dinner, served by Mrs. Schird.

After dinner three tables were arranged for bridge with Sam Benson making high score. Irwin Hess received the consolation prize.

Those present were A. B. Davis, George Baird, R. H. Rohrig, Tony Smith, Irwin Hess, Sam Benson, Dr. Gilmore, J. H. Jones, Walter Cook, Floyd Churchill, Robert Withycombe and George Schird.

Ladies' Guild Is Entertained Here

Mrs. Ray Goodnough and her mother, Mrs. J. J. Conley, entertained the members of the Ladies'

Guild of Cove Saturday afternoon at the Conley home on Adams avenue.

Five hundred was played at four tables during the afternoon with Miss Boss Kelly winning the first prize and Mrs. F. R. Conklin the second prize. Luncheon was served after the card games.

The guests list included Mrs. Gilbert Barron and Mrs. C. C. Hull, of La Grande, Mrs. C. E. Lawson, Mrs. T. C. Hefty, Mrs. R. I. Barker, Mrs. G. E. Barker, Mrs. William Hallmark, Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Miss Boss Kelly, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Clarence Heryford, Mrs. Chris Bertach and Mrs. Lloyd Carter.

IMBLER (Special).—The Ladies' Aid society had an interesting meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otis Hutchinson. During the short business session plans for the bazaar and supper to be held at the K. P. hall next Friday night were discussed.

A guessing contest was a part of the afternoon's entertainment with Mrs. Frank McKinnis winning first prize and the consolation prize going to Mrs. George Crouser.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Morgan and Mrs. Fred Nodine served refreshments.

The Riverside Ladies' Aid society met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lane with 12 members present. In the absence

By Williams

Charming Winter Millinery
Inspired By Paris Designers
$3.85 to $18.75

A NEW assemblage of Winter millinery—hats in subtle shades of color so imitatively French. Modes highly individual even among distinguished hats. Expertly designed by noted couturiers, each model is expressive of the unique art which created it.

Satin, Velvet, Velour, Felt, Panne, Silk

LADIES READY-TO-WEAR

PUTMAN'S
AND MILLINERY

of the president, Mrs. Albert Neukirchner, Mrs. G. E. Lapher, vice president, presided over the business session.

A social hour followed the business meeting during which time the hostess served refreshments.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the K. P. hall. The election of officers will take place. All members are urged to be there. The juveniles will meet Saturday afternoon and new officers will be installed.

The Parkdale club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Alexander on Island Avenue. Mrs. C. M. Riddle and Mrs. Lloyd Pierce will be assistant hostesses.

All members of the Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Russell Davy on Oak street Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This will be a social meeting and all women are asked to bring fancy work.

An article in yesterday's Observer announced the bazaar to be given by the Baptist Women's society for Nov. 14. It should have been Wednesday, Nov. 17. Final arrangements for the bazaar were made last Friday when the society met at the home of Mrs. Jones at the corner of Second street and Washington avenue.

The Episcopal Aid society will entertain the members of the Cove Ladies' Guild and the officers of St. Peter's Episcopal Guild tomorrow afternoon at the home of the aid president, Mrs. Gilbert Barron.

Down south they pluck the cotton and down east they pluck the pluckers.

Announcements

The meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution scheduled for tomorrow afternoon has been postponed until next Wednesday, Nov. 17. It will be at the home of Mrs. Lynn Hohnenkamp.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. G. C. Headley, 1503 1/2 M avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30

Minerva Says—

The above cut is one of our best sellers in Tweedle Slippers—an all-patent lace shank skin trim with full spike heel for the ones who want dressy shoes.

The college girls' square toe in patent, calf and alligator is proving very popular. This is something very much different from ordinary shoes. Priced from $5.95 to $8.95. Some cheaper.

Hose to match at $1.00 and $1.50.

The BOOTERY

Anybody can wear nice shoes at these prices and they do.

Glass Oven Ware Pie Plates in Frames $1.25

Special On ALARM CLOCK 98c

Also higher priced Clocks

F. L. LILLY HARDWARE

Phone Main 85

A large audience listened attentively to the Rev. Nelson Knight's second lecture on the Book of Revelation at the Church of God Chapel last evening. The nature of the symbols used in the Revelation and laws for their interpretation were explained.

A rare treat is offered to the people of the Grande Ronde valley in these lectures. The deep mysteries of The Revelation are clearly explained and made so intensely interesting that the interest in the lectures increases each evening.

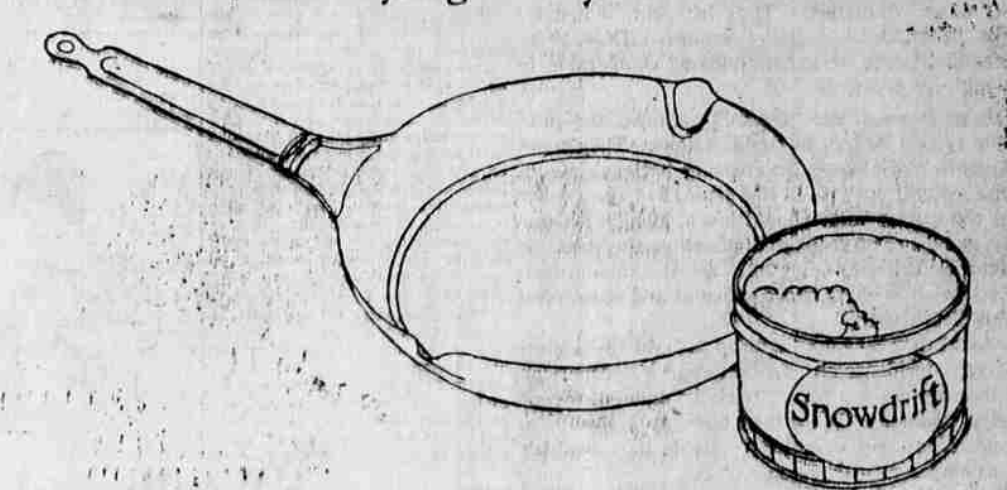

A cordial invitation is extended to all Christian people and to the public in general to attend these lectures at 7:30 each evening except Saturday.

SPECIAL RELEASE

Jack Smith's latest record "Baby Face" and "I'm On My Way Home"

CARR'S

The goodness of fried food depends upon the frying fat you use.

Snowdrift is made by the Wesson Oil people out of oil as good as a fine salad oil. That's why food fried in it tastes so good and is so wholesome.

Snowdrift does not burn when heated hot enough to fry anything, and it has no taste of its own.

Food fried in Snowdrift is crisp, brown and tasty. Lots of folks who ordinarily don't eat fried food pass their plates for more when Snowdrift is the fat the food is fried in.

Snowdrift
an excellent shortening and a wholesome frying fat.