Dixons Entertain At Dinner Party

A dinner party last evening was given at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. H. E. Dixon, when they were host and hostess to a number of friends. Covers were laid for 12 and dinner was served at 6 o'clock.

Ted, white and blue flowers served as a centerpiece for the dinner table, in keeping with Armistice day. Place cards were in the same colors, also the score cards used at the three tables of bridge following dinner.

Mrs. F. L. Ralston received high scores among the women at bridge and Dr. Ralston won the men's prize.

After the card games a happy hour was spent visiting before the guests departed for their homes.

ENTERTAINERS (Special).—The Eastern Star chapter here entertained several visitors from other chapters Tuesday evening.

After the business session a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

UNION (Special).—The Union Chapter of the Women's Christian Temperance union met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Esther Durell. Besides the usual order of business there was a report by Mrs. Hattie Malton, who was a delegate from Union to the state convention held at Gresham.

The society went on record as favoring the selection of Union as the location of the Eastern Oregon normal school and instructed its secretary to write the governor concerning it.

Refreshments were served by the two hostesses, Mrs. H. H. Grouter and Mrs. Chasley Cross.

Neighbors Elect Officers for 1927

Officers for the ensuing year were elected last night when the Neighbors of Woodcraft met at the Knights of Pythias hall, Mrs. Fred Yeske was elected guardian neighbor to take the place of Mrs. W. H. Alstott, past guardian neighbor.

Mrs. R. A. Maguire was elected magician; Mrs. J. Hilary, advisor; Mrs. Ed Fields, outer sentinel; Mrs. L. Lewis, inner sentinel; Mrs. Ray Buell, attendant; Mrs. J. D. Sullivan, captain of the guard; Mrs. Hoyer, flag bearer; Mrs. C. Osborne, correspondent; Mrs. Hazel Robben, banker; Mrs. Christine Duncan, clerk; Mrs. Pearl Rosen, Mrs. Frøberg and Mrs. Wilhelm, managers; Mrs. W. Cass, musician and Mrs. Ray Buell, senior guardian in charge of the juveniles.

The officers will be installed at the first meeting in January, when a grand officer will be here to officiate.

A social hour followed the election last night, when the committee in charge, headed by Mrs. Burnett, served refreshments.

Tomorrow afternoon the juveniles of the organization will meet at the K. P. hall.

Members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran church and the men of the church met yesterday afternoon at the parsonage for a work meeting. The men cleaned the yards of the church and parsonage and the women worked on the inside of the building.

The basement room of the church was papered and equipped for a pastor's study and class room. This work was in charge of Mrs. Fred Polheim.

In the evening at 6 o'clock a benefit dinner was served by the members of the aid society, with covers laid for about 30. Mrs. Ferdinand Jensen was chairman.

Is Your Skin Too Oily?

Nothing is so unsightly as a skin that always shines or looks greasy. There is a preparation called MELLO-GLO Skin-Tone (part of a new wonderful French Beauty Treatment) which removes excess oil, strengthens the muscles, cleans and reduces pores, and beautifies the skin. ## Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Apple sauce, cereal cooked with raisins, thin cream, crisp graham toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Creamed oysters on toast, head lettuce with French Russian dressing, ginger bread with whipped cream, milk, tea.

DINNER—Veal cutlets, creamed potatoes, squash, croquettes, pineapple and cabbage salad, graham rolls, chocolate cream cake, milk, coffee.

If you are sure to serve some of the catsup or chili sauce you made this fall with your veal cutlets, you will find the dish greatly improved. Veal is a more or less tasteless meat and needs the sharpness of a piquant sauce to make it interesting. Falling catsup makes a simple tomato sauce and serves with, not over, the cutlets.

Such croquettes are a hearty vegetable dish suitable to serve with a light meat course such as veal or pork chops.

Squash Croquettes
Two cups cooked and sifted

SCOTCH WOMAN TELLS OF RUMOR

Reveals Names of Friends Who Gossiped About Pastor, Woman

SOMERVILLE, N. J. Nov. 12 (AP)—Barbara Tough, Scotch and with a conscience, was sorely troubled when she was recalled today as a witness in the Hall-Mills case. The former maid in the Hall home was made to "feel mean" when she was asked to give the names of "girls of the guild" who gossiped about "the friendliness" between the Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills several years before they were slain together.

Instructed by the court to give the names of the gossippers after she had protested, she declared with manifest emotion that she felt "like a meek." At that the Scotch lassie's revelations of gossiping girls did not hurt their reputations as of today to any extent for she knew few of their married names, she declared, after adding that most of them "have married well."

Names Given in Brogue
Their maiden names were given in a degenerated tone and with so much of the "bonnie brogue" of old Scotland, that only the fellow countrymen of the witness present, could identify them. The description "friendliness" used by defense counsel on cross-examination, referring to Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills, drew a protest from the state's representative, that the word did not fit the case. It remained in the record when previous testimony showed that the witness had used it.

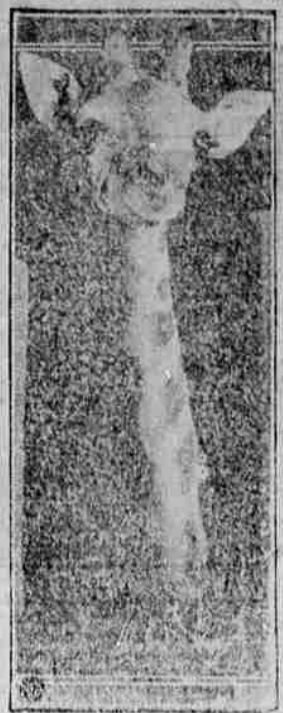

The Scotch woman said that while she was not a member of the church of which Mr. Hall was pastor, she was a member of the guild. She heard the guild members, "mostly girls," gossiping of the "friendliness." She could remember, 1 cup chopped nuts, 2 tablespoons butter, cream, salt and pepper, 1 egg, dried bread crumbs.

Bake a good-sized squash, scrape from shell and rub pulp through a colander. Add nuts, butter, salt and pepper and cream to moist enough to handle. Form into small balls and let stand until cold and firm. Roll in crumbs, dip in egg, slightly beaten with 1 teaspoon milk and roll in crumbs. Fry in deep hot fat and drain on crumpled paper. The fat should be hot enough to brown an inch cube of bread in 40 seconds.

The baking and mixing and crumbing and egging can all be done early in the day. This makes a quick and delicious vegetable to serve when the cook has spent the afternoon "out."

WHAT SAY?

Inclusive "IRE" was one of the two griffins whose mottled elongation brightened darkest Africa before their capture by the Smithsonian-Christy expedition. Here we have "IRE" peering forth from his stateroom on the ship brought him into Boston harbor. "IRE's" fellow captive is, of course, "MIRE."

call some of them she said, but "would rather not." Counsel and the court kindly told her that she must comply.

Tells of "Draffling"
"I can't," she said. "I don't mean to be mean to these girls, they wouldn't be mean to me."

Between names of the girls who "draffled" she said to herself: "I feel very bad about this" and "I hate this Ike anything."

JERSEY CITY, N. J. Nov. 12 (AP)—A blood transfusion will be made later today on Mrs. Jane Gibson, who is seriously ill with psychosis and is treated by Dr. Charles H. Stinson to testify in the Hall-Mills trial.

The official announcement was made by Dr. Charles B. Kelly, staff gynecologist, after he had examined Mrs. Gibson.

It was said that the transfusion did not indicate Mrs. Gibson's condition was grave.

ADMITS DIVORCE
PARIS, Nov. 12 (AP)—The attorney for Mrs. Richard Washburn Child today admitted that a divorce had been granted her from the former American ambassador to Italy yesterday. The decree was given on the grounds of desertion.

Child gave his address as Paris. Mrs. Child started suit against Child in October shortly after he had withdrawn his suit against her for a divorce in Pennsylvania.

PLANE FORCED DOWN
BARTOW, Cal. Nov. 12 (AP)—An airplane identified as a mail plane of the Pacific Air Transport which carries the mail between Los Angeles and Seattle made a forced landing today near Oro Grande, 25 miles from here. A wheel was broken when the plane descended because of shortage of fuel. The pilot was Dick Bowman.

Motor buses now carry passengers over the Arabian Desert.

In the Revelation a book of sealed mysteries which can't be deciphered? Are its symbols incomprehensible? or, is it what the title implies, a revelation of the conflicts and the triumphs of the church which is intended to be understood by Christian people?

If the Revelation is mysterious to you, come and hear it explained by Rev. Knight in his lectures at the Church of God Chapel, corner of N and Spruce streets, each evening except Saturdays.

The lecture this evening will be on the ninth chapter—The Bottomless Pit Opened. Don't you know what great Pain Proprietor is symbolized by the fallen star who opened the bottomless pit from which came the great swarm of locusts? Come this evening and hear this chapter explained.

The men are getting wiser up that Arch Preserver shoes give more comfort and better wear than just any old shoes. The bridge on arch is what gently supports the foot from heel to the ball of the foot and prevents the sagging of arch and keeps the foot from lengthening each step. That's what hurets—the constant sagging of the arch. No callouses on the ball of your feet when you wear Arch Preservers.
