Clubwomen Will Discuss Pilgrim Influence in Art

The Pilgrim influence in art, with its background and its results, inspired the program that is to be presented under direction of Miss Blanche Clark at the meeting of the Neighborhood club Tuesday afternoon in the clubrooms at the library building.

Ten in honor of the new members of the organization will be served by Mrs. T. A. McKinstry and her assistants in Pilgrim gowns at the close of the program.

Music for the afternoon will be supplied by the club quartet, after which Mrs. Harriet Macdonald will read the poem, "The Landing of the Pilgrims," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. George S. Hinkle, her daughter.

Mrs. Ed Kiddle will give a short talk on the religious life of the Pilgrims. Their industrial arts will be described by Mrs. E. A. Eppling.

The art talk will be by Mrs. John S. Hodgkin, who will exhibit and discuss pictures that have to do with Pilgrim life and subjects. Miss Clark has planned decorations in keeping with the spirit of the program.

With Mrs. R. A. Maguire, musician for the Neighborhood of Woodcraft lodge, officiating as installing officer, officers of the Juvenile Neighbors of Woodcraft were installed Saturday afternoon, when a meeting was held at the Knights of Pythias hall. Twenty-seven juveniles and eight members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge were there.

Margaret Berge was installed as guardian neighbor; Connie Bailey, past guardian neighbor; Margaret Milne, advisor; Orval Anderson, banker; Edith Burnett, clerk; Frank Anderson, attendant; Benjie Thayer, magician; Doris Duncan, outer sentinel; Marie Keegan, inner sentinel; Gerald Burnett, captain of the guard; Francis Richards, musician, and Jennie May Sullivan and Gertrude Kinn, flag bearers.

The remainder of the evening was spent socially during which time refreshments were served.

The following program will be given by the W. C. T. U. at its evening session Tuesday at 7:30 o'clock at the Central Church of Christ:

Opening hymn—"Onward, Christian Soldiers" by congregation.
Prayer—The Rev. H. W. Parker.
Scripture—By visiting members.
Piano solo—By Leta May Huff.
Address on "Narcotics"—Dr. J. L. Ingles.
Reading—Miss Mable Doty.
Song—"It's in the Constitution" by quartet.
Violin solo—Winifred Dunn.
Address—"Enforcing the Prohibition Law"—John S. Hodgkin.

Women Like

The easy-disposal feature of this new hygienic help—no laundry, just discard

IN a new way, women now are freed of the disadvantages of old-time "sanitary pads." Protection is greater. The old embarrassment of disposal and laundry is avoided.

Get Kotex—8 in 10 better-class women have adopted it.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

It's five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads!

You dine, dance, motor for hours in sheerest frocks without a second's doubt or fear.

It deodorizes, too. And thus ends ALL danger of offending.

You ask for it at any drug or department store, without hesitation, simply by saying "KOTEX."

Do as millions are doing. End old, insecure ways. Enjoy life every day. Package of twelve costs only a few cents.

Mrs. Frees Hostess At Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. Norman W. Frees was hostess to the members of the Club at a luncheon at 1:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue. Bridge was enjoyed afterwards.

Bouquets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and poinsettias were used to decorate the rooms.

Mrs. Elmer Stoddard received high score among the club members and the guest prize went to Mrs. Leslie K. Kinsel.

Members of the F. S. club were entertained Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Jack Hatt was hostess at her home on Washington avenue.

The rooms were decorated in keeping with the Thanksgiving season. Small turkeys served as a centerpiece for the three card tables, where a two-course luncheon was served after the bridge games. Score cards were also like the turkeys.

Mrs. G. R. Williams received a high score among the club members and the second prize was won by Mrs. C. E. Wahl. A guest prize was presented to Mrs. A. V. Sanford.

The club will be entertained two weeks from Saturday afternoon, Nov. 27, at the home of Mrs. Everett Keown.

UNION (Special)—The women of the Carnation club entertained their husbands Thursday evening at a surprise dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook in North Union.

Campfire Girls Admit New Members

The Soongshu Campfire group gathered around a cheerful fire at the home of Mrs. George S. Hinkle and held their monthly ceremonial meeting Friday night. Two new members, Grace Gabel and Mildred Spencer, were admitted according to the ritual. The other members were given colored beads for the honors they have won since the organization of the group, each color representing the different crafts.

After the ceremonial the girls gathered around the fire. Cider, home-made doughnuts and butter-scotch candy was served.

The next meeting, for which plans were made, will be at the home of Mrs. Jean Williams next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting will be to work on account books and head bands.

The principal feature of Friday afternoon's meeting of the parent-teacher association of Willow school was a talk by Judge Hugh E. Brady on the future program of the American Legion in bringing about world peace. The talk was part of an Armistice day program. The second grade pupils of Mrs. Evelyn Bennett's room sang three appropriate songs.

Mrs. Robert Alexander, president of the Willow Parent-Teacher association, gave a report of the Oregon congress of parents and teachers at Salem, Ore., which she attended.

During the business hour, which was presided over by Mrs. Alexander, the association voted to frame the pictures won by the school during art week.

Mrs. Young and Miss Williams' rooms tied for the picture, which is given to the room having the largest number of parents in attendance at the meeting.

Each class will keep the picture two weeks preceding the next meeting of the association.

Christian Church Night Observed

Seventy members of the congregation of the Central church of Christ were present Friday evening, when church night was observed with a dinner at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Harry Sandoz and Mrs. W. S. Gallagher were members of the committee in charge of the dinner and the Rev. C. V. Dunn, pastor of the church, had charge of the program.

Mrs. J. P. Caldwell gave a talk on the Missionary society and its goals. Max Cullen, who is secretary of the Men's Bible class, also spoke. Mrs. Frank Hardesty's son is superintendent of the Christian junior church. H. J. Voruz told of the men's class and Miss Winifred Dunn gave two readings. There was also singing, led by J. P. Caldwell.

A committee was appointed to have charge of the church night meetings for the next six months, consisting of O. C. Flesman, Max Cullen, Frank Hardesty, Mrs. Harry Sandoz, Mrs. John Runberg and Mrs. Edward Ebel. The regular time for the meeting is the second Friday in each month.

Good Health

—Is the first requisite for Success—but is impossible to acquire and maintain if you are constantly menaced by mal-nutrition and irregular elimination.

Increased brain power, increased vitality will follow the complete rout of irregularity of habit.

Of course you may check irregularity through drugs for a day—a week—or a month, but you will simultaneously break down your digestive apparatus—and with it, your health.

The only intelligent and safe way to regulate the processes of your body is through a perfectly balanced diet.

Roman Meal, the perfect compound of two wonderful grains, wheat and rye, the whole berries, cut into little granules—easily penetrated by the digestive fluids, and is completely nourishing. With these is just enough bran to form the necessary bulk for roughage.
