Two Bazaars to Be Attractions Of This Week

With the approach of the holiday season many of the church organizations are planning bazaars where gifts for Christmas may be purchased. The annual bazaar is one of the principal activities of the church women's organizations each year and enthusiastically looked forward to by the members and friends of the societies.

Two bazaars have already been given here this fall and two more are planned for this week. The first one will be given by the Baptist Women's society tomorrow in the Smith building, opposite the Elks' club, and the other will be Friday and Saturday of this week in the basement of the First Presbyterian church, given by the Ladies' Aid society.

The bazaar to be given by the Baptist women closes a contest of several weeks, with Mrs. H. D. Nelson and Mrs. W. L. DeVine as chairmen of the two divisions. The division having the largest number of articles on display will be the winner. Aprons, luncheon sets, boudoir pillows, pillow slips, baby articles and many other hand-made articles will be exhibited.

In connection with the fancy work display there will also be a cooked food and candy sale.

The Presbyterian church basement is being transformed this week and visitors there Friday and Saturday will be pleased with the arrangement of the little built-up booths and the tables for the cafeteria luncheon. It is declared, Mrs. Ray F. Murphy, Mrs. F. L. Ralston and Mrs. L. F. Dunn are in charge of the decorating.

Mrs. Oscar Poirch is chairman of the candy booth where a variety of gift boxes of candy for Christmas or Thanksgiving may be had. Mrs. Eva Wisler will be at the booth where preserves, jellies, marmalades and canned fruits will be exhibited.

Mrs. Murphy will have charge of the pillow booth, Mrs. Ralston the dressing table, bureau and other bedroom sets and Mrs. Dunn the boudoir lamps. A special little nook has been arranged for the articles for the bedroom.

Mrs. Colton R. Eberhard is chairman of the handkerchief booth and many hand-made and hand-embroidered handkerchiefs in both linen and silk have already been turned in to her for that display. Mrs. Harry R. Turner is chairman in charge of the towels, luncheon sets, pillow slips and other miscellaneous articles. Mrs. L. B. Moe is chairman of the apron booth.

Mrs. Evelyn Hearnshaw, Mrs. Clyde Seitz and Mrs. Chas. Bohlenkamp will have charge of the White Elephant for the amusement of the children present. Mrs. J. T. Richardson will sell sanitary soaps.

A cafeteria luncheon will be served Friday during the luncheon hour in the church basement and all afternoon on Saturday. On Friday evening the annual chicken dinner will be the feature. A musical program has been arranged for the dinner hour.

Mrs. C. W. Noyes and Mrs. T. A. McKinstry are in charge of this part of the bazaar.

COVE (Special).—The Women's club will give a bazaar Friday.

Nov. 19, at the I. O. O. F. hall here. Aprons, quilts, luncheon sets and various other articles of needlework will be for sale. There will also be a candy booth, a fish pond and other attractions. Luncheon will be served during the noon hour. A musical program will be a feature of the evening.

COVE (Special).—The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church here are planning a bazaar for Wednesday, Dec. 1. They are now working on several articles to be sold at that time.

IMBUECH (Special).—The bazaar and supper given by the Ladies' Aid society last Friday evening was successful. During the evening a program was given under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Morgan and Miss Ezma Baxter. Mrs. Otis Buchanan was given a quilt.

Class Meets at H. E. Dixon Home

Mrs. Donald M. Pague had charge of the study yesterday afternoon when the Art Research class met at the home of Mrs. H. E. Dixon on Second street. The subject was "The Art of Pergamon."

The next meeting of the class will be Dec. 4, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Mossman.

Between 75 and 80 attended the potluck dinner of St. Peter's Episcopal parish last evening at 5:15 o'clock at Honan hall. The dinner was held early to enable those present to attend the benefit concert at the First Presbyterian church.

The purpose of the dinner and meeting was to discuss next year's church budget. H. A. Zurblick acted as chairman and everyone favored the budget as outlined by the vestry.

A French doll, made by the woman of St. Peter's Episcopal guild, was given to E. Marks.

Pinochle Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Giles Harnden entertained the Pinochle club Saturday evening at her home on V avenue. Five tables were at play and James O'Neal made high score. The consolation prize went to Mrs. W. E. McClure.

Luncheon was served at an appropriate hour. The club was recently organized here and a name has now been chosen. It is "Abiblitum," a Latin word meaning "at pleasure."

Fifteen members of the Riviera Campfire girls and their guardian, Miss Myrtle Hoyt, met at the school house yesterday afternoon. Mrs. George M. Pierce was present and told of her trip to Salem, where she attended the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers.

COVE (Special).—Mrs. Merritt Alexander was honored with a kitchen shower Monday at the home of Mrs. Nellie Marten. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander had the misfortune to lose their farm home, by fire, a few weeks ago, destroying most of their furniture and household goods. About 50 women were present for the shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander will occupy their house at Cove this winter.

your tea and coffee are not. Chicken and macaroni loaf is delicious and can be made of boned canned chicken in an emergency.

Chicken and Macaroni Loaf.
One and one-half cups macaroni broken in 2-inch lengths, 1 cup chopped chicken, two-thirds cup blanched and shredded almonds, 1/2 cup grated cheese, 2 eggs, 1/4 cup cream, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 scrating of nutmeg, dash mustard.

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender, about 20 minutes. Drain and blanch. Combine with chicken, almonds and cheese. Mix thoroughly and add eggs well beaten and combined with cream and seasoning. Mix thoroughly but lightly and turn into a well buttered, smooth mold. Fill mold about three-quarters full. Butter cover of mold and put in place. Steam for two hours. Remove and invert mold over dish in which loaf

BREAKFAST—Stewed figs with lemon, cereal, thin cream, rice griddle cakes, syrup, crisp whole wheat toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Chicken and macaroni loaf, apple and celery salad, rice bread, canned strawberries, plain cake, milk, tea.

DINNER—Noodle soup, New England boiled dinner, elder salad, whole wheat bread, Indian pudding, milk, coffee.

Children under six years of age should not be allowed to eat the corned beef of the "boiled dinner." However, the noodle soup, vegetables, a lettuce salad and small portion of the pudding without the hard sauce furnish an ample diet. Keep in mind that the children's milk is of great food value, while
