All a young man can do about matrimony is pray that the right woman will pick him out.

First Society Woman—"That's my baby that we just passed."

Second Society Woman—"How could you tell?"

First Society Woman—"I recognized the nurse."

Gladys—"I only necked three times last year."

Jimmie—"Is that all?"

"Yes, spending time, winter time and any time I felt like it."

He kicked about his wife's new hat and said she used poor sense.

The thing that he complained of was the overhead expense.

Isn't it amazing how a married couple can be perfectly happy one moment and madder than tigers the next?

Girl in Theatre Box Office—"Sorry, sir, I have nothing left but two single seats in different parts of the house."

Customer—"Good! I'll take 'em. I'm going to bring my wife."

I loved Gladys, and she had gone away. So I wrote, "Will you marry me?"

And she replied, "I've got about as much use for a husband as a confession magazine has for a girl named Baby."

Dumjohn: "Have you read 'Preelicks'?"

Dumbbelle: "No just the plain old brown ones."

Clarice: Yvonne has won a D. S. C.

Gladys: What? A Distinguished Service?

"Heavens, no!—Drug Store Cowboy."

Mr. Newrich (to board member of his club): "They talk very much of putting me in 'Who's Who.'"

The Board One: "Who's Zoo?"

We heard of the sad case of a Scotchman, who became engaged to a girl who became so fat that he wanted to break off the engagement. But the girl couldn't get the ring off so he had to marry her.

HILGARD PERSONALS

HILGARD, (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. George Hilgard and family were visitors at Hilgard Sunday. They were guests at the home of Mrs. P. Y. Young.

Leonard and Emory Ferguson have gone to Pomeroy, Wash., to take their grandmother home. They will be away several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Williams were Hilgard visitors last week.

Frank Sanford was a La Grande visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Cots and her children arrived from Phoenix last week and will make their home here.

Glen Jones was down from the Mt. Emily Lumber company's camp on business Tuesday.

Eugene Seitz, who lives in La Grande, was a visitor here last Thursday.

Ralph Sullivan shipped a carload of horses to Portland last week.

Amel and Bert Abel have finished hauling their potatoes.

Lots of young men who go to college to get degrees get them—below zero.

Famous last lines: The squirrels are gathering unusually heavy supplies of nuts this year. It looks like a hard one, boys.

ROBBERS GET $1,800

MEDFORD, Ore., Nov. 15 (AP)—Crackmen Sunday morning entered the establishment of Rankin Estes, and robbed the safe of $1,800. Of this amount $500 was in cash the balance in checks. The force of the explosive used in opening the strong box badly wrecked the place. The robbers escaped in an automobile parked in an alley.

Talmadge at Sherrys Tonight In Mystery Film

A new type of production for Richard Talmadge, which contains all the elements which have made this remarkable young star so popular and yet which has more logic and interest than is customary with pictures which feature stunts, appears tonight only when "The Mysterious Stranger" is shown for the first time in this locality. If audiences from Hollywood are any criterion, this production caused something of a furor when previewed before the experts of the film capital. It is an adaptation by James Dell Smith, who has taken such parts of Dr. Samuel Johnson's famous old story, "The History of Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia" and has used them to splendid advantage on the screen. There is much in the work of the one-time dictator of English letters that makes superb screen material, as "The Mysterious Stranger" proves conclusively; and the only surprising thing is that little if any of it has been used before. Director Jack Nelson has developed the really exasperating comedy sequences with fine skill, and the attempt of Dick to break into the insane asylum, under the impression that the wall surrounds the house in which he so long lived away from the world, is one of the funniest bits that could have been conceived. An excellent cast is seen in support.

"Mystery Club," At Arcade, Is Baffling Tale

Take a tip from us. Don't miss "The Mystery Club," the Universal Jewel playing at the Arcade theatre Wednesday only. It is crammed full with action and replete with thrills and humor and is a credit to the mastery of supervision of Herbert Blache who directed it.

The picture tells of the events taking place in and about "The Mystery Club," composed of millionaires who are skeptical of the ability of the police in apprehending criminals. They prepare an agreement in which each member is to commit a crime, the member responsible for its execution is to pay a large sum as a penalty.

This is the basis for a series of enigmatic situations that set the nerves of the members on edge, making them tremble with fear, involve the hero in suspicious escapades and apparently the heroine with a hand of desperadoes.

All in all, "The Mystery Club" is one of those photodramas that justify the important place which the movies occupy in our national existence.

IMBLER PERSONALS
