Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Cereal cooked with dates, corned beef hash, crisp whole wheat toast, orange marmalade, breakfast puffs, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of spinach soup, croutons, cottage cheese sandwiches, apple ginger bread, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked white fish with egg sauce, boiled Irish potatoes with parsley butter, stewed celery, cabbage and pepper salad, raisin and cranberry pie, whole wheat rolls, milk, coffee.

The breakfast puffs suggested in the breakfast menu are a concession to the men folk. Children under 10 years of age should not be allowed to eat them. These drop cakes are very good with chilled cider for luncheon.

Breakfast Puffs
Mix and sift flour, salt, baking powder, sugar and nutmeg. Stir in milk and add eggs beaten until light. Beat hard and add enough more flour to make a stiff drop batter. Drop from a tablespoon into deep hot fat and fry until a golden brown on all sides. Drain on brown paper and serve warm. The fat should be hot enough to brown an inch cube of bread in 30 seconds. If a thermometer is used, the fat should be at 360 to 370 degrees F. The puffs should fry about five minutes.

Seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars in gold is buried annually in the mouths of dead persons in Austria alone, said the Vice President of the Austrian Dental association. He estimates that $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 are lost to the world each year by similar burials.

SETTING PACE IN BOBS

GENEVA (AP)—Turkish girls are bobbing their hair so fast even the "modern" Turk is perturbed, said Mahmud Esmad Bey, Minister of Justice in the cabinet of Mustafa Kemal, during a recent visit to Geneva.

Yet Mahmud Esmad Bey, who wants the women of his country to go forward in all spheres of activity just like women elsewhere, is not so alarmed over the modern tendencies of Turkish girls as some of the older folk of the former Turkish Empire.

"One thing is certain" he declared "and that is that our girls in Constantinople and Angora are bobbing and shingling their hair even faster than those of New York or London."
