OXFORD (AP)—Women students threaten to crowd the men out of Oxford University. In the opinion of Dr. Joseph Wells, retiring vice-chancellor who has recommended that the number be restricted. There are just over 700 women students at Oxford which accounts for one-fifth of the students. The vice-chancellor confessed that some years ago when he advocated the admission of women he never for a moment foresaw such a possibility.

Merchant: "What can I do for you young man?"
Boy: "I want to get a ladder."
"What kind of a ladder do you want?"
"It's for my step-mother, so give me a step-ladder."

"What could be more sad," said the history teacher, "than a man without a country?"
"A country without a man," said a flapper-to-be.

"Scrambled eggs," ordered a customer in a city market restaurant.
"Milk toast," murmured his companion, who was not feeling well.

"Scrambled two and a graveyard steak," sang the waitress with the titian hair.

"Here," corrected the second man, "I want milk toast."

"You'll get it, buddy," replied the girl. "That's what they call milk toast in Pittsburgh, where I worked."

The two customers held a conference and decided to "put one over" on the "fresh young thing" from Pittsburgh. The first one wanted a glass of milk and the second one a cup of black coffee.

When the girl appeared to put a "set up" of the restaurant artillery in front of the men, the second man gave the following order:

"A bottle of lactated fluid for my friend and a scuttle of Java with no sea foam for me."

"Chalk one up a dinner of ink," shouted the girl. She didn't even smile.

Our idea of a good salesman is the barber who charged a Scotchman 75 cents for a hair cut and sold him a bottle of hair grower at the same time.

Irate La Grande man: "Say, your radio kept me awake until one o'clock this morning."

His neighbor: "You should have stayed awake about half an hour longer. I got some great stuff from Chicago then."

When the cold wind howls And the snow blows in And you're out of coal
In your old coal bin
If you have the dough
Just let it snow
As dough will bring Most anything
Toll central one long ring
It will get us sure Don't have to wait Remember our number is Main

AT THE THEATERS

Buck Jones
In Western
At Star

"A Man Four-Square" which came to the Star theatre Thursday for a three day engagement is one of the best western films Buck Jones popular Fox Films star, has ever made. Buck has plenty of opportunities for the sort of thing that made him popular and he is supported by a very capable cast.
Marion Harlan and Florence Gilbert, Jay Hunt and Frank Reed are in the cast. R. William Nell directed.

Big Department Store Set in
"Take It From Me"

One of the largest interior sets ever built at Universal City, representing the whole of a metropolitan department store, appears in "Take It From Me," the Universal-Jewel starring Reginald Denny which comes to the Arcade theatre Thursday for a three-day run.

Virtually the entire action of the picture takes place within the store, and as it was impossible to make the scenes in an actual store, a set which occupied all of one of the biggest stages at the studio was constructed.

Rows upon rows of counters, various departments, elevators, a display room where beautiful and modish mannequins paraded before possible purchasers were some of the features of the make-believe store.

It was stocked, too, with actual merchandise, rented from the surplus stock of a downtown Los Angeles store, and guarded carefully by a crew of private detectives and watchmen during the making of the scenes where several hundred extras played the roles of customers and employees of the store.

Not content with this realistic imitation of a big city department store, an additional, though smaller, floor was built on another stage where Reginald Denny as the green but enthusiastic manager of the establishment staged a lavish fashion show and bathing girl revue.

Denny as the store's manager, and Lee Moran and Ben Hendricks Jr., as the equally green but equally enthusiastic floorwalkers who were roller-skates as they could cover more territory, add a great deal of fun to the light and frivolous farce.
