Baptist Bazaar Closes; Two-Day One Is Opened

The bazaar given by the Women's society of the First Baptist church Wednesday in the L. C. Smith building was successful, a large per centage of the articles of needle work being sold before the close of the bazaar that evening.

The displays were arranged on two tables, Mrs. H. P. Nelson being chairman of one display and Mrs. W. L. Devine the other. The two teams, of which these women were leaders, were chosen early in the summer and have been working for several weeks to make their display the best. The number of articles and the neatness of the work were the points used by those judging the work. Which team is the winner will be announced this afternoon when the society meets at the home of Mrs. Paul Johnson.

In connection with the needlework a cooked food and candy sale was held.

Today the ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church opened its bazaar, which will continue today and tomorrow in the basement of the church. The displays are attracting considerable attention.

The feature this evening will be the annual dinner served by the aid society, and a large attendance is expected. A special musical program will be presented. Cafeteria luncheon will be served during the luncheon hour and afternoon tomorrow afternoon.

The Mother's Self Culture club spent yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otis Palmer with 10 members in attendance. Mrs. F. S. Lyon, president over the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Elmer McManus. Mrs. Dick Lindsay and Mrs. Otis Palmer had charge of the program. Mrs. Lindsay read a paper on "What a Child Means to Its Parents," and Mrs. Palmer's subject was "The Relation of the Lungs, Stomach, Heart and Brain to the Best Body and Mind."

There was also a general dis-discussion on the preparatory reading on the care of the teeth, faulty positions, mind and moral, and spiritual factors in mental growth.

After the meeting a social hour in honor of Mrs. John S. Hodgkin's birthday anniversary, was enjoyed. The club members visited while refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be Dec. 2 at the home of Mrs. Walter Paimee. Mrs. John Stoddard will have the subject at that time, which will be "The Importance of Kindergarten Methods in the Child, the Home and Civic Life."

Bridge Luncheon At Perkins Home

A bridge luncheon took place at the W. C. Perkins home on O avenue yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Perkins was hostess to the Alpha club and several guests. Luncheon was at 1:15 o'clock with covers laid for 28, and seven tables of bridge were at play afterwards.

Yellow and white was the color scheme carried out in the floral decorations, yellow and white pompons and white daisys predominating.

At bridge Mrs. Walter Leisman made high score among the club members and the consolation prize went to Mrs. Ray F. Murphy. Mrs. A. L. Richardson was high scorer among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dutton entertained the evening club last evening at their home on Adams avenue. Eight tables of bridge were at play during the evening with Dr. Margaret Ingels making high score among the women club members. Dr. Lee Bouvy won the men's club prize. Guest prizes went to Mrs. H. E. Westenhaver and W. C. Perkins.

Bouquets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums were effectively arranged about the rooms, forming a setting for the card games and the two-course luncheon which followed.

With the members of the Lucky Thirteen club as her guests, Mrs. H. E. Couledge entertained at a 1:15 o'clock bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue.

Bouquets of chrysanthemums in yellow and mauve colors were used as a centerpiece for the luncheon table and in the living room, where three tables of bridge were at play afterwards.

Mrs. F. L. Lilly received high score and was given the prize.

Gables Entertain At Bridge Party

Members of the Swastika Bridge club were entertained last evening when Mr. and Mrs. Gable were host and hostess at their home on Ninth street.

Three tables of bridge were at play and Mrs. W. J. Nowland scored highest among the women club members. The men's prize went to Walter H. Perry. The guest prize was won by Mrs. Ernest Landry.

The idea of Thanksgiving was carried out in the decorations of the rooms. Chrysanthemums were the flowers used.

After the card games the hostess served a two-course luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Allen will entertain the club at its next meeting two weeks from last night.

Mrs. W. C. Crows was hostess to the Jolly Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue. The rooms were decorated in keeping with the Thanksgiving season.

Three tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. Lester Bramwell made high score among the club members and low score went to Mrs. Nate Zweifel. Mrs. Lee Hanford received the guest prize.

Luncheon, served by the hostess,

Klamath Falls' Court Prosperous

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 18 (AP)—Klamath Falls justice of the peace court before which a majority of local liquor law violators are haled is believed to be the most prosperous in the state. From Dec. 7, 1925, to the close of business last evening a little more than $42,000 in fines was collected according to a compilation by Justice of the Peace R. A. Emmett. In the preceding two years only $39,000 was collected.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, thin cream, soft cooked eggs, crisp whole wheat toast, waffles, brown sugar syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Beef broth, croissants, molded cheese salad, rye bread and butter sandwiches, steamed carrot pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Hungarian goulash, baked squash, endive salad, chocolate rice pudding, graham bread, milk, coffee.

The molded cheese salad is excellent for cold autumn days. The large amount of "fats" supplied by the cream and cheese is heat producing, with the gelatine used in the salad aids in digesting them and increases their food value. Furthermore, just at this time of year fresh green vegetables convenient for salad use are rather scarce, so the cheese salad which relies only on lettuce and parsley for its goodness is particularly welcome.

Hungarian Goulash

One pound lean veal, 1/2 pound lean beef, 1 teaspoon bacon fat, 1 large onion, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1 1/2 teaspoon salt, 6 or 8 small potatoes, 1 cup canned tomatoes rubbed through sieve, 1 teaspoon sugar, 6 peppercorns.

Melt fat in kettle and add onion finely minced. Simmer over a low fire for five minutes. Cut meat into inch cubes and brown on all sides in fat with onion. Cover and simmer over a low fire for 1 1/2 hours. Add tomatoes, sugar, salt, paprika, peppercorns and about one cup of hot water. Simmer for one and one-half hours. Add potatoes and cook 30 minutes longer or until potatoes are done.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Nov. 18 (AP)

—Mrs. George A. Martin, of North Bend, was injured yesterday evening in an automobile wreck near Boswell Springs. Mrs. Martin and Miss Jessie Armstrong, of North Bend, and Miss Ellen Owen, of Marshfield, were occupants of the car which skidded on wet pavements and turned over. Mrs. Martin sustained two broken ribs and was badly bruised about the body. Except for minor injuries the other young ladies were not hurt. Mrs. Martin was taken to the Boswell Springs hotel. They were on their way to Portland to join Mr. Martin.
