

FOR FALL McGregor Imported Sportswear

Whether motoring, on the golf green or any other of our many outdoor sports, the man who is attired for the occasion in "McGregor" sports wear stands as a distinctive individual among the men. His sweater of the finest virgin wool from bonnie Scotland - the unusual and harmonious blending of colors - his sport hose as distinctive - his suit of a rich tweed in a striking pattern.

He is indeed a "man among men" whose keen judgment of correct apparel is readily recognized. We invite your inspection of this exclusive line. The price is moderate.

J.C. Penney Co. A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION DEPARTMENT STORES 108 Depot St., La Grande, Ore.

Providing Adequate Service of the Needs of the Public

In speaking of the continued growth of the J. C. Penney Company thruout the United States, the National Business Review for October, 1926, said that "the phenomenal development is due primarily to intelligent and level-headed executive administration which insures the cooperation of every employee and store manager in the vast organization."

"The J. C. Penney Company has always made it a fundamental policy to take promising men into their personnel and make them managers of individual stores, giving them a distinct financial interest in the unit, and as a consequence insuring both the individual employee and the Company of the best possible results and the most adequate service of the needs and requirements of the public."

"The result is today that . . . both employers and employees are assured the mutual benefits of cooperative efforts in a common cause of making available to the consuming public throughout the United States quality merchandise at reasonable prices in the most efficient and courteous manner, for which J. C. Penney Company has become famous."

Our aim is to help you and others to better quality goods at prices that are in keeping with progressive storekeeping.
