LA GRANDE 13TH IN CONSTRUCTION

Building Records for October Finds This City High on List

La Grande ranked high among northwestern cities in building during October and also in total building for this year.

Are yours young in years, old in looks?

J & D PAINT

defeats depreciation, defies decay!

DEPRECIATION burns up your buildings just as surely as fire would take them! The wear and tear of wind, rain, sun and snow, cannot depreciate the surface protected with J & D Paint—a pure White Lead, Zinc and Linseed Oil paint.

For 36 years a guarantee of service. Let us show you how to save your buildings from costly depreciation by using this paint.

A J & D Color Scheme Booklet is here for you.

A FRAME COLONIAL

By W. W. PURDY

This frame colonial home is one with a rather unique floor plan arrangement. The living-room while perhaps somewhat smaller than in houses of this size, is supplemented by a very large sunroom, with a screened-in porch at the front end. This extra large room is to provide for a garage in the basement underneath.

Note the combination fireplace in the living and dining-room. A fireplace in the dining-room is very cheery, and in some of our southern States provides for sufficient heat.

The bedroom accommodations will meet the demands of a good sized family, with three good bedrooms, a large sleeping porch, where three single beds could be located, a sewing-room or a child's bedroom. The large owner's bedroom is provided with a wardrobe, there is a full-bath, with the garage in addition to the laundry, furnace and storage room. Toilet convenient to the garage.

The floors throughout are in oak, with ivory enamel woodwork, and birch mahogany doors, tile in bath. The floor of sunroom is of concrete, making the garage fireproof.

The exterior walls are sided, painted a cream, green shutters, blinds and shingles. The cost of this complete home, exclusive of heating and plumbing, is placed at $7,500 to $8,000.

chee, Billings, Roseburg, Marshfield, Bremerton, Butte, Grants Pass, Bozeman, Astoria and Moscow, Ida.

In total building this year La Grande, with $329,982, ranked twenty-second among thirty-two cities. Baker, Ore., was several steps higher with $382,456. Pendleton was not listed in the report, furnished by the Pacific Builder and Engineer.

CHLOQUIN — $75,000, in new buildings already assured, to replace burned section.

NEWBERG — Gymnasium of Pacific college to be built largely by student labor and student funds.

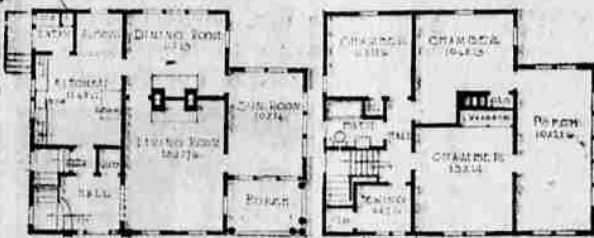

I wonder if you folks ever heard of Burl Red, the master painter. At present he is working over on one of the two-room houses on Washington street that Mrs. Zuber built. You want to call around that way and see the beautiful stiple work he is doing. He has one brush alone that is worth $25, and he tells us that he guarantees all of his work. We sell stiple material but that doesn't make any difference. If a man had an old rooster to sell and wanted us to mention him in our ad we would like to accommodate him.

Mr. Kalright just told me that he would bring in a couple of roosters Monday. We wouldn't give his initials but it's a big "alright"—not the Willys but the one that used to sell milk.

Zine-O-Lith, the leading white paint—the paint that is all paint and white that stays white—$3.30 per gallon.

Work Progressing On Brick Building

Work is progressing rapidly on the brick building on Adams between the Roesch and Melville buildings which George H. Curry is erecting. Contractor Heasler has charge.

The building, to be completed this season, will house store rooms. The Melville building, just east of the Curry place, is also nearing completion.

Act now --and laugh at winter's blasts

Don't shiver through another winter. Don't delay another day. Come in and see the handsomest parlor furnace, and the heatingest, ever built. Built for your comfort and your purse. The new Allen's Parlor Furnace heats every room in the house. Circulates warm, moist air—the cellar-furnace way, without the expense of a cellar. Burns hard or soft coal, coke or wood. Can be put into any room in a very few minutes. No radiators or fixtures. No fuss. Just think of this—$15 puts it in your home. Come in and see it today. You'll want it as soon as you see how handsome and efficient it is. Then say good-bye to winter shivering for good!

puts this new Allen's Parlor Furnace in your home—balance in easy monthly payments.
