Army and Navy Meet Nov. 27 in Annual Classic

CHICAGO, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Army Mule and Navy Goat buck each other tomorrow on a mid-western gridiron for the first time in the history of their gridiron classics. The series, begun in 1899, has had an eastern setting, varying principally between Philadelphia and New York.

The Army's ascendency in the past few years has given the Cadets a narrow lead in the series. They have won 14 of the 28 games played so far, losing 12 and tying two. Their margin in points is even greater, 290 to 183 for the Midshipmen.

The past records follow:

Year	Winner		Loser
1901	Army	32	Navy	16

Provo Wrestler Retains His Belt

GRANTS PASS, Ore., Nov. 26 (AP) — In the hardest fought wrestling match ever seen in Southern Oregon, Henry Jones, of Provo, Utah, claimant of western welterweight championship Wednesday night by taking two out of three falls from Ted Brown, of Seattle. Brown took the first fall in 21 minutes with a succession of headlocks. Jones, groggy in the second fall, used an airplane spin and knocked Brown unconscious. He dumped Brown in somewhat the same manner for the third fall in a little over a minute. Cal Herman, of Portland, and Cecil Barrick, of Grants Pass, wrestled to a draw, each taking one fall.

The Duchess of York has completed selection of her winter wardrobe. All the new colors—dahlia, prune, grotto green—are included. She had her favorite turban shaped hat copied for her in velvet with a little brush at the side.

FAITH IN U. S.

PARIS—"The right of any nation to keep any other nation under bond for two generations," is questioned by the Rev. Joseph Wilson Cochran, pastor of the American church. Saying this at a Thanksgiving service which Ambassador Herrick attended, he continued: "If I dreamed that any such tragedy could occur, I would be ashamed to sing 'America, sweet land of liberty,' but I believe America won't allow the stars on her flag to change to dollar marks."

PEA SOUP FOG

LONDON—There's regular pea soup fog now here. So thick that it hid Ambassador Houghton from the view of some other Americans at a Thanksgiving dinner. It moistened the Americans, too, though perhaps something else helped.

Baker Bulldogs Hold Pendleton Team Scoreless

BAKER, Ore., Nov. 26—Ironing out differences before the game, once called off, Baker high school defeated Pendleton, 9 to 0, here yesterday afternoon. Baker scored a touchdown on a 35-yard run through the line by Adrian in the second period and worked the ball inside Pendleton's 15-yard line two more times before the end of the period.

Baker kept the ball in Pendleton's territory throughout almost the entire first half. In the third period Pendleton started with a rush and kept Baker on the defensive through the quarter. Pendleton's big threat was made in the last quarter, when she was twice held for downs inside the five-yard line. Her second drive was halted three inches short of a touchdown.

Baker punted beyond midfield and soon worked the ball to the Buckaroos' 10-yard line, where Duff booted over a place kick.

POEMS IN DRESSES

English dressmakers in search of catch-names for their new creations, have seized upon the poems of Alfred de Musset and Jean Cocteau for names. "Odile Reve au bord de L'Ile," is an exquisite tea gown, while "Apres les Derniers Gestes", is not unnaturally a rather funeral looking gown.

FAR WEST WINS THREE VICTORIES

Aggies Trim Marquette—Idaho Whips Creighton—Huskies Beat Neb.

The far west decisively demonstrated its football supremacy over teams farther east Thanksgiving day when three Pacific coast elevens smashed through opposition to victory.

At Milwaukee Marquette's light football team was no match for the Oregon Aggies and lost 29 to 0 to Paul Schissler's squad. From the start the Aggies jumped into the lead, a blocked punt giving them a chance to kick a field goal. Two long passes scored touchdowns in the second quarter and, after a scoreless third period, the Aggies counted twice more when two of Marquette's passes were intercepted deep in Marquette territory as the Hilltoppers tried recklessly to score.

Huskies Whip Nebraska

After a 6 to 6 tie last year, the University of Washington entertained the strong Nebraska eleven 19 to 6 in Seattle yesterday. The Huskies prevented the Cornhuskers from putting over a winning touchdown in the final minute of play by four yards, with a stonewall defense.

Idaho received revenge for a 1925 defeat by defeating Creighton university in Omaha 12 to 0 before a crowd of 10,000. Touchdowns scored by Jacoby and Owings in the first and second quarters were responsible for the victory, although the Vandals were masters throughout.

W. S. C. Champions

Up in Washington Gonzaga lost to the Cougars in a game that determined the state championship. Washington State college, by winning 7 to 0, avenged two defeats and two tie games. Rohwer made the lone touchdown in the third period on two hard line bucks.

The Southern California eleven splintered Montana university's weak line and the Trojans won easily 61 to 0. Bill Kelly, Grizzly star, failed to function in his usual style.

Over at Boise Anse Cornell's College of Idaho Coyotes defeated a fighting bunch of Bobcats from Montana State college 7 to 6 in four quarters of thrilling and spectacular football.

In the annual little classic Whitman university wound up a not-so-successful season by defeating Willamette 19 to 0.

Alabama Wins Title

Turning to the south, Alabama's Crimson Tide became champions of the southern conference for the third successive year by whipping the Georgia Bulldogs 33 to 6. Only the sanction of conference officials—a mere formality—is needed before the Tide goes to Pasadena to play Stanford, Pacific coast champion, on New Year's day in the annual Tournament of Roses game.

In the east Penn State lost to the University of Pittsburg 6 to 24 and Colgate and Brown played a tie game.

3 Big Games Coming

Chief interest now turns to the coming Army-Navy clash Saturday in Chicago, still later the University of Southern California tangle with Notre Dame and on New Year's day the annual east-west game in Pasadena.

Linfield Defeats Albany, 31 to 0

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Nov. 26 (AP)—The Linfield Wildcats took the Willamette Valley conference title in the annual game between the Wildcats and the Albany Pirates 31 to 0, in a game that was played on a slippery field and included many fumbles yesterday.

The British government's wine cellar contains among other treasures 1820 brandy, Cliequot champagne 1911, and 1820 Madeira as well as rare brands of port.

All-America Calibre

Howard Jones, who during years of service at Yale, Iowa and Southern California, has developed 14 All-American stars, feels confident he has another in the making to Morton Kaer, who answers to the name of "Devil May" Kaer, rather than Morton. He is a backfield star, one of the country's leading point scorers.
