Society Quiet On Thanksgiving In La Grande

La Grande society was quiet over Thanksgiving except for the sumptuous Thanksgiving dinners, at which families and friends gathered to celebrate the day. Several people of the city were away to spend Thanksgiving with relatives in other cities, while many college students and other former residents here came to La Grande for the day.

At the W. H. Bohnenkamp home the entire family of 24 persons gathered for dinner, which was served to most of the party at 3 o'clock. At 7 o'clock, when Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bannenkamp and Dr. and Mrs. Margaret Ingie were from Milton-Freewater, where they attended the football game, they were served.

Several couples whose families were not at home for the day gathered at the Elvite home for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crews and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fowler made up the number. As a surprise to Mrs. Elvite, her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rosenbaum and their little daughter, Helen May, of Baker, arrived in time for dinner also.

The A. W. Nelson and H. M. Bay families had dinner together and at the G. R. Claycomb home Mr. and Mrs. Arch Bacon and Mr. Bacon's mother, Mrs. Anna Bacon, Grover C. Hodgen, Mrs. Anna Leslie and Miss Hazel Scott were the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Koyle were host and hostess to 20 relatives and friends.

Besides the many family dinners at all of the hotels and cafes served a special Thanksgiving dinner.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. S. C. Smith Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Leslie Duane presiding over the business meeting.

Mrs. Ella Doty and Mrs. T. E. Ferguson led in the devotional, and the program was given by Mrs. J. F. Tyler and Mrs. D. W. Beck. Mrs. Tyler's subject was "The New Rural Life," and Mrs. Beck discussed "The Church Program for the New Rural Life."

During the social hour following the program the hostesses served refreshments.

Mrs. Rae Bales, of Elgin, grandchild of the Pythian Sisters, today went to Pendleton Wednesday, where she was a guest of the Pythian Sister temple there that evening, at a meeting at the K.P. hall.

Initiation was the principal feature.

Farewell Party To Be Tomorrow

A farewell reception honoring the Rev. and Mrs. William Crosby Ross will be given tomorrow evening by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church in the community room at 8 o'clock.

Wives of the elders are in charge of the affair and Mrs. A. L. Richardson is arranging the musical program. Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Jr. will sing "The Living God," O'Hara and Mrs. Richardson will sing "Trees," by Hashbach, besides a number by the Presbyterian quartet. Mrs. J. A. Tedford will be the accompanist. Light refreshments will be served. Honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Ross the church quartet, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Jr., G. L. Dutton and Raymond O. Williams and the organist, Mrs. J. A. Tedford, assisted by Prof. E. D. Towler, basso, and L. J. Lindsey, violinist, will give a sacred concert, interspersed with a few secular numbers Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church, to which the public is invited. The program will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross will leave here Tuesday for Boise, Ida. Their home there will be at the manse of the First Presbyterian church.

One of the most interesting meetings of the Order of the Eastern Star this season was held Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall. After the initiation of Mrs. Della May, the officers of the chapter presented a Biblical story, "The Hazing Star."

Following this the worthy patron, A. V. Lindgren, presented the lodge with a large illuminated star, as a gift from the 1926 officers of Hope chapter. The star, which is three feet across with lights representing the five degrees of the order, was dedicated to the past masters of the chapter and Mrs. Emma Kiddie responded for this group.

Wednesday being Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Mossman's wedding anniversary they were allowed to lead the grand march around the lodge hall and into the banquet room, where Miss Violet Melville and her committee served refreshments. Robert S. Eakin played Lohengrin's wedding march.

After the refreshments Dr. and Mrs. Mossman were properly chartered.

Announcements

The World Wide Guild of the First Baptist church will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Miss Jennie Nielson on Spring street. A Thanksgiving dinner at 6 o'clock is a part of the evening's entertainment.

The Luther league will give a sociable this evening at the church.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, thin cream, soft cooked eggs, crisp bran toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of spinach soup with spinach balls, crisp toast, apples, date and rice pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—fried snapper with tomato sauce, boiled macaroni, buttered brussels sprouts, rolled oats bread, lemon jelly with fresh fruit and whipped cream, milk, coffee.

With the exception of the fish sauce, which may be a bit too rich for small children, there are no dishes mentioned that cannot be served to all members of the average family. No special dishes need be prepared as substitutes because a wholesome varied diet is suggested.

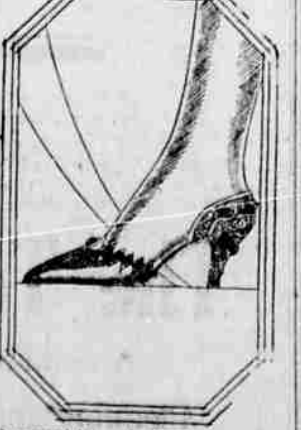

The recipe for the dinner fish follows as it is rather out-of-the-ordinary but simple and good.

Redsnapper With Tomato Sauce
Two pounds redsnapper, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cup canned strained tomato, 2 small onions, 1 carrot, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1 tablespoon minced celery, 1 cup cream, 1 tablespoon flour.

Wipe fish cleaned and boned at market. Wipe with a damp cloth and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Let stand on ice for two or three hours. Peel and slice onions and scrape and slice carrot. Put prepared onions, carrot, parsley and celery into a kettle with 4 cups cold water. Bring to the boiling point and add butter and tomatoes. When mixture boils again, add fish and heat to the boiling point but do not let boil. Simmer just below the boiling point until fish is firm. It will take about twenty minutes. Remove carefully from kettle to hot platter. Strain stock and reheat. Stir flour to a smooth paste with a little of the cream, add remaining cream and stir into hot stock. Bring to the boiling point, stirring constantly and cook until thick and smooth. Pour over fish and serve.

An extra tablespoon of butter can be used and milk substituted for cream.

OUT OUR WAY

Swine Raisers Are Hard Hit in Northern Idaho

LEWISTON, Idaho, Nov. 26.—Dr. A. J. Powell, deputy state veterinarian, has estimated that farmers of this region in the last few weeks have lost hogs worth more than $10,000 through cholera. Among the heaviest losers, he says, are the White Brothers and Crum company, M. H. Kerner, Elliott Brothers, Bert Henderson, E. J. Todd and the Jones ranch.

Every precaution is being taken to prevent the spread of the disease, and when animals are found that are in stages of incubation they are at once killed, as in that case it has been determined that the virus and serum treatment is of no avail. Dr. Powell says that he is of the opinion that the worst is past.

Hunters have suffered as the result of the epidemic, as thousands of acres offering choice grounds for sportsmen have been placarded as closed, as it is claimed that their walking through the fields served to carry germs of the disease to parts not affected.

you pour the scalded milk on the eggs and sugar gradually—a little at a time. Thus you control the process. Hills Bros. follow this principle of control in roasting coffee. Only a little at a time is roasted, and the result is a matchless flavor.

Control in roasting coffee is just as essential as in cooking

CONTROLLED Roasting—Hills Bros' patented process—calls for the same exactness as does good cooking, but the result is surely worth it. Prove for yourself what Controlled Roasting does. Open a tin of Hills Bros. What an aroma! Drink a cup . . . flavor beyond compare! Ask for Hills Bros. by name and look for the Arab on the can. A business session of the Union commercial club was held at the Union hotel Monday evening.

Mrs. K. J. Martin, who has been conducting a millinery store here has gone to Portland and will spend at least part of the winter near the coast.

The Rev. R. C. Lee, pastor of the Union Methodist church, went to Weiser Sunday to deliver an address for the K. P. lodge. Tuesday he was invited to speak before the La Grande chamber of commerce at their evening meeting.

R. C. Emmel, adventure teacher of the Union high school is offering a course in farm shop work to the older boys and men of the community. If enough of a class is enrolled the course will start the first of December and last about three months. Among the topics to be handled at these meetings will be concrete work, soldering, metal work, rope work, belt work, and probably stock judging and milk testing.

An event which was started a few years ago by the Union high school is the annual feed which is given by the senior class for the faculty members, and which was held at the high school building last Monday evening.

Robert Withycombe Jr. is away from his school for a few days owing to an attack of rheumatism. So far as known there are only a few cases of this disease in this community. Measures were taken to prevent its spread in the school. Charley Castor had a slight recovery.

of the thought that ROMAN MEAL, the "Happy Medium" in cereals, is a coarse bran product with merely medicinal and regulative properties. It is a whole grain product of wheat and rye, just a little bran is fast too, and with it wonderful Flaxene, a splendid food in itself and excellent lubricant for the bowels.

Roman Meal is a delicious food, nourishing and refreshingly different, whether served as the children's breakfast cereal, or in muffins or oat bread, or as a luncheon treat which you will be proud to serve your friends.

Because of the startling lack of coarse, unadorned foods in our diet something more is necessary to keep the body in that harmoniously vigorous, smoothly functioning condition—and that something more is Roman Meal! Every family should have it every day some way.
