Minister, Wife Complimented at Farewell Party

A farewell reception in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. William Crosby Ross, who will leave La Grande tomorrow for their new home in Boise, Idaho, was held Saturday evening by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church in the church parlors.

During the evening a musical program was given by the church quartet, composed of Mrs. A. J. Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Bohnerman Jr., G. L. Dutton and Raymond O. Williams, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Tedford, organist. Besides the quartet numbers Mrs. Richardson, soprano, and Mrs. Bohnerman, contralto, each sang solo.

Resolutions of appreciation, signed by a committee of appreciation, were read by C. M. Hishmura, one of the church officers, and A. T. Hill, president of the board of trustees, presented Mr. and Mrs. Ross with a five-piece silver service set.

Edwin Kibby, representing the boy scout troop of which Mr. Ross has been scoutmaster, presented the pastor with a set of golf cutlery from the boy scouts and Norman Frenn presented him with a golf bag and pencil set in behalf of the Presbyterian Men's club.

After the presentations Mr. Ross responded with a few well-chosen remarks.

Lunch and wafers were served by several women of the church, assisted by a number of the girls.

The Rev. and Mrs. William Crosby Ross have been entertained a number of times by members of the First Presbyterian church congregation before their departure for Boise, Idaho, tomorrow.

On Thanksgiving day they and their niece, Miss Margaret Garret, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Wissler. Other dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Ross and their niece and Mr. and Mrs. Wicker and their daughter, Katharine, were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reynolds and their daughter, Dorothy Lee. Dinner was served at 6:20 o'clock.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Ross were guests for luncheon at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds.

The Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Hill were Thanksgiving dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gaskell.

Club Members At Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. H. J. Green was hostess to the club girls and a few guests Saturday afternoon at her home on N avenue at a 1:15 o'clock luncheon. Yellow and bronze pom-poms were used to decorate the luncheon table, where covers were laid for 16.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Green's sister, Mrs. J. W. Shaw, and Mrs. Frank Harmon and Miss Trine Campbell, all of Portland, who were home-guests over Saturday at the Green home.

Four tables of bridge was the diversion following luncheon. Mrs. Norman Frenn made high score among the club members and the most prize went to Mrs. H. J. Green.

Three tables of bridge were at Mrs. Green's home Saturday afternoon when Mrs.

Parkdale Club Is Entertained

The Parkdale club held an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jennie Thompson in Parkdale with Mrs. Clyde Webb and Mrs. Thomas Standley as assistant hostesses.

After a short business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Charles Gump, Mrs. E. P. Mossman had charge of the afternoon's program. She exhibited a number of masterpieces of art, principally by American artists, and told the story of the life of each artist and of the picture.

The hostesses served refreshments after the program.

The next meeting will be Dec. 8, when Mrs. John Rogers, Mrs. Floyd Carpenter and Mrs. Bert Rogers will be hostesses at the home of Mrs. John Rogers in Parkdale.

"The Brownie Band" an operetta with 30 children taking part, will be presented at tomorrow's meeting of the neighborhood club in the club rooms in the library basement.

The cast includes the fairy queen, Peggy Bohnenkamp; the fairy princess, Ruth Stoddard; pensive girls, Barbara Coolidge, Ruth Marchion, Lucille Price, Dorothy Pierce, Jacqueline O'Brien, Margaret Dixon, Jeanne Haum, Winifred Scott and Patricia Jesse; butterflies, Barbara Stoddard and Louise Marie Williams; gypsies, Ethel Harndon and Ruth Black; owls, Robert Stoddard and Carl McInnis; wood nymphs, Julia Siegrist and Sally Siegrist; brownies, Wilbur Tedford, Merrill Almsworth, Max Stoddard, George Stoddard, Albert Dutton and Chester Baum; Mrs. Vernon Almsworth and Mrs. Elmer Stoddard are directors of the operetta and Mrs. A. L. Stoddard is piano accompanist. Mrs. Dwight Jesse is in charge of the costumes.

GRANGE HALL (Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minton, Edward Dunn, Mrs. Elmer Wilhelm and daughter, Thelma Jean, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Kennedy Thanksgiving day.

In the evening most of the party attended the masquerade dance at Eagles' hall in La Grande.

World Wide Guild Members Gather

One of the most interesting meetings of the World Wide guild of the First Baptist church has had this season was the Thanksgiving session Saturday evening at the home of Miss Jennie Nielson on Spring avenue.

After 20 girls had assembled at 6 o'clock the meeting started with the devotional, which consisted of the repeating of the W. W. G. covenant, followed by a discussion of the creed by the Rev. G. A. Pellard, pastor of the church.

After the devotional part of the program the guild members were invited to the diningroom, where two large tables were arranged with centerpieces of bronze pom-poms. Little turkeys marked the place of each guest and with it was a dainty nut cup of blue and white, the guild colors.

A regular Thanksgiving dinner of turkey, duck, cranberries and other things appropriate for the Thanksgiving dinner was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. H. P. Nielsen, and Mrs. G. A. Pellard.

During the dinner one-minute reports were called for from several of the girls.

After dinner a short business session was presided over by Miss Cornelia Hansen in the absence of the president, Miss Ethel Brown. The meeting was then turned over to Miss Hazel Rector, program leader for the evening.

A large doll was the center of attraction in the livingroom and Miss Florence Nielson told the story of "Doll Day" in Japan, after which the guild voted to send the doll to Japan to take part in the doll day.

As a surprise to the guild members Miss Mabel Doty arrived at about 5 o'clock and gave an interesting talk on character building. "Choosing the Right Way" was her subject. Two stories illustrated her subject and were enjoyed by every girl present.

Reports on the point standard system and a Thanksgiving offering closed the meeting.

The Christmas meeting will be with the W. W. G. counselor, Mrs. W. P. McAdory. All of the girls are asked to bring pictures for scrap books at that time.

Twenty-two young married people of the Christian church were entertained Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Landry, when Mrs. Landry and Mrs.

Blanke Shields were hostesses. The home was decorated in a green and lavender color scheme and each of the women present was given a doll cap in the same colors, which she wore during the party.

Games were enjoyed during the evening. Miss Amy Jacoby as a gypsy fortune teller added considerable merriment. The men of the party furnished music.

The hostesses served refreshments at a late hour.

Several members of Soangeton Campfire girl group won their honors by giving demonstrations Friday afternoon when a meeting was held at the home of Miss Dorothy Brown.

Demonstrations in first aid work and in wrapping parcels were the principal ones given.

Christmas carols were also practiced during the afternoon.

Families Join On Anniversaries

A birthday and an anniversary, along with Thanksgiving, was celebrated at the M. W. Huffman residence, at 1204 Pennsylvania avenue, Thanksgiving day. That day was the thirtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Huffman, and also the birthday anniversaries of their son, Elridge, and of William Huffman, father of Mr. Huffman.

Those present for the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Huffman, all of Union, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson and Mrs. J. W. Kennedy, of La Grande, besides the Huffman family.

The last meeting of St. Peter's Episcopal guild this year will be Wednesday evening of this week at Roman hall, and will be followed by a sociable to which the husbands of the guild members have been invited.

Eight women of the society will act as hostesses. They are Mesdames Ross Eaton, Fred Cross, S. D. Gaskell, L. E. Condit, C. H. Gasset, Lola Jones, Hubert Anderson and Henry Hill.

The Royal Neighbors met Friday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall here with Mrs. Ida Hamblen, state superintendent, whose headquarters are in Portland.

In your present home you can enjoy the charm of Bruce Oak Flooring

Instead of endless cleaning and sweeping, a constant task with the old-fashioned wood floor and its dust-laden carpet, Bruce Oak Floor requires the least possible attention.

There can be no accumulation of dirt in its continuous polished surface; no more dragging old carpets into the open; no more beating, hauling, and stretching to get them back in place again.

Right over your old floor, and one room at a time, if more convenient, by Bruce Oak Flooring a carpet of softness of oak, once installed, is your permanent one, just as beautiful and enduring as the floor itself. It is guaranteed in new construction.

You will be amazed, surprised, and delighted when you see it. You were about it.

Women Find

Great comfort in this new hygienic pad that discards easily as tissue—no laundry

ON many important counts, women are deserting the old-time "sanitary pad."

There is a new way. A way that multiplies protection. A way, too, that solves the old problem and embarrassment of disposal.

It is called "KOTEX." Ends the insecurity of the old-time sanitary pad. Five times as absorbent! And odorless—ends ALL fear of offending.

As easily disposed of as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You get it at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Costs only a few cents. Eight in 10 better-class women employ it. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.
