Joseph Banker Slightly Hurt In Auto Wreck

F. H. Gaulky, president of the First Bank of Joseph, was slightly injured about the hip and knee in an automobile accident which occurred about one mile the other side of Island City Friday night. The injuries were not serious enough to delay his business trip to Portland that night, however. He passed through here this morning on his way home. The driver was evidently blinded by approaching lights and did not see the three, until almost upon them. Gaulky's car was unhurt except the fender. The Miller car is in the shop being repaired now. The front axle and the frame were damaged.

He is touring the state in order to get acquainted with Oregon communities and to give them an opportunity to get acquainted with him. F. L. Meyers presided at the luncheon. Musical selections were presented by the chamber of commerce quartet and Miss Francis. The quartet, accompanied by Mrs. G. S. Birnie, appeared twice on the program. (Continued from Page One) ing plays and is very good at snaring forward passes. He was one of the strongest men on Baker's team. At tackles I am placing Smutz, of La Grande, and Parent, of Union. This is probably the best pair of high school tackles I have ever seen. Smutz is exceptionally strong on the defense, knifing through and smearing many plays before the offense got started. In this respect Parent was as strong. Both men were able to open holes in the opposing line at any time. Between the two it was impossible to say which was the better, both being in a class by themselves. Guard positions are given Silver, of Wallawa, and Taylor, of Mac-HI. While Silver played tackle his work on defense was very good and I have given him a guard placing because of there being no outstanding men playing this position in Eastern Oregon. Taylor is a very strong man on offense and defense. He opened the holes through which Johnson made most of his yardage. At quarterback I am placing Jones, of Pendleton. While Jones did not play quarterback he is a tripple threat man—a good kicker, a good passer and a good ball carrier. Because of his outstanding work I feel he should be placed on the first team. The Eastern Oregon association has been weak on quarterbacks and this position was the hardest of all to fill. At halfbacks I select Hines, of Baker, and Cox, of Union. Hines is probably the best halfback in Eastern Oregon. He is exceptionally capable at running the ball and his passing is very good. In connection with his ability he is probably one of the cleanest, most sportsmanlike football players I ever known. I am moving Cox to half from fullback because of his consistent ground gaining and in that he is a tower of strength in backing up the line. He could at ways make yardage when called upon. Johnson, of Mac-HI, is undoubtedly the strongest fullback in Eastern Oregon. He has played a wonderful game throughout the season and merits the position. On the second team, Correll, of North Powder, was of exceptional strength and nearly made the first team lineup. Dutton gives honorable mention to the following players: Bruce, center, La Grande; Snyder, halfback, La Grande; Adrian, quarterback, Baker; Billings, Wallawa, end; Baker, quarterback, La Grande.
